HISTORY

NADIR SHAH,

Formerly called

Thamas Kuli Khan,

The Present Emperor of PERSIA.

To which is prefix'd

A short History of the Moghol Emperors.

Arabe Endir infanted

A CATALOGUE of about Two Hundred MANUSCRIPTS in the Perfic and other Oriental Languages, collected in the East.

By JAMES FRASER."

' The SECOND EDITION.

LONDON:

Printed for A. MILLAR, at Buchanan's Head, over against St. Clement's Church, in the Strand, MDCCXLII.

Dr. Richard Mead,

Physician to the KING,

FELLOW of the College of PHYSICIANS in LONDON,

And of the

ROYAL SOCIETY,

These Sheets (as a grateful Acknowledgment of the Favours received) are, with great Submission, dedicated by His most obliged

Humble Servant,

JAMES FRASER.

THE ## PREFACE.

S the Public is ever favourable to Works of this Nature, I food when the prefent Undertaking. But to fatisfy my Readers what Pains I have been at not to impose upon them, and what Opportunities I have had of being informed, I beg leave to present them with a short Account of the following Sheets.

The Abstract of the Moghol History is extracted from the 6th Vol. of Tarikh Rozit al Suffa, Vakeat Babri, Maçir Jehanguîry, Padihanama, and Tarikh Alumguîri, &c. A particular Account of vabich will be found in the Catalogue of Manuscripts at the End of the Book. As I have so large and choice a

The PREFACE. \{

Collection of Eastern Histories for that surpose, the Authenticness of it will not be disputed.

As to that Part which gives an Account of the State of Affairs in the Moghol Empire before the Persian Invasion, with the Springs that effected the same, I have translated it from a Persian Manuscript sent to Dr. Mead, by Humsties Cole Elg, Chief of the English Pactory at Patna in the East-Indies. That the Facts therein are true, I am well assured, having myself lived in India above Ten Tears, the last Three of which, I held a constant Correspondence with some Persians and Moghols there, and that frequently on the Subject of Nadit Shah's Expedition.

The Account of Nadir Shah's first Exploits I Lave been savoured with from a Gentleman now in England, who resided several Years in Persia, speaks that Language, and has been frequently in Company with that Conqueror.

The Journal of Lis Transactions in India, with the Letters and Cesson of the Provinces, were transmitted from Dehli, by the Secretary of Subulland Khan (whom Nadir Shah Lad appointed to be one of the Commissions) to Muza Moghot, hol, So to Ali Mahommed Khan at Ahmedabad, was being my intimate Friend, gave it to me.

I have been as full in the Notes as possible, and explained whatever Terms I thought required it: Several proper Names and Words I have expressed in the Original Characters, which I thought would be entertaining to those who know any Thing of the Arabic or Persic, and not disagreeable even to those who do not, as they are immediately after set down in Roman Characters, with a proper Explanation. As several of those Terms have occurred more than once, I have annexed an Index of them, referring to the Page in which they are particularly explained.

In the Abstract of the Moghol History, I have reduced the Dates of the Hegira to the Year of our Lord, but in the remaining Part I have kept the Original Dates, and put ours in the Notes.

The learned Reader will please to observe, that in two or three Persic Words, I have been obliged to make use of the Letter B. instead of P. there being no such Letter in the Arabic Types, which I have been favoured with by the Society for propagating Christian Knowledge, at the Recommendation of his Lordship the Bishop of Litchfield and Coventry.

The Oriental Manuscripts, of which I have are exed a Catalogue at the End of these Sheets, have been collected from the Year 1730 to 1740, and purchased with no small Labour and Expence, at Surat, Cambay, and Ahmedabad in the East-Indies; excepting a few ubich I bought at Mocha in Arabia, from some Persians abo passed that Way on their Pilgrimage to Mecca.

The first Master under whom I studied the Perfic, was a Parfi, (or one of the Race of the ancient Persians) now at Surat. The fecond reas a Mullah of one of the Mosques there, whose Name is Fakhr o'din. When I was at Cambay, I findsed under Shekh Mahommed Morad, a Man famous in those Parts for his Knowledge of the Mahommedan Civil and Ecclefiastical Laws. During my Stay in that Place, I employed three Hours each Day with one Srî Nât Veaz, a learned Brahmin, schom I allowed a Sallary on that Account; it was by bis Means I procured my Sanskerrit Manuscripts, which (I believe) is the first Collection of that Kind ever brought into Europe.

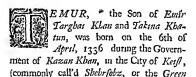

A SHORT

HISTORY

OF THE

HINDOSTAN Emperors of the Moghol Race, beginning with TEMUR.

R

City)

A short History

2

City) which is one Stage + distant from Samarcand: And on the 8th of April, 1370, then aged 35 ‡ Lunar Years and 17 Days, sat on the Throne in the City of Balkb. From which Time until his Death, which was Thirty-five Years Elewen Months and Five Days, he subdued the better Part of the Earth, and obtain'd Victories that might eclipse the Glory of all the Exploits before his Time. He conquered Mawaralnabr (or Trans-oxane Tartary) Biddukbshan, Kbuarysm, Turkessan, Zabuhstan, Kabul, Gbor and Hin-

† The Stages, which in Tartary and Persia they call Sim Manzel, are from 25 to 30 English Miles.

† The Lunar Year they reckon 334 Days, 22 Gurns, 1 Pull The Solar Year they reckon 365 Days, 15 Gurns 30 Pulls, 221 Peels, 60 Peels making 1 Pull, 60 Pulls 1 Gurn, and 60 Gurns 1 Day. This 12 according to the Branum's of Indian Priefl's Calculation, and what the Maghelis and other Mahmmudans in India chiefly go by.

doftar * as far as Deble, all Afia Minor, Sy-

In the Year 1398, he fet out on his Expedition to India, and on the 16th of December the same Year, he took the Capital Deblt, having then an Army of near 100,000 Horse. But finding a general Conquest of India would be attended with much Difficulty, and the keeping it afterwards impracticable, he bent his Thoughts on an Expedition against the Turks, and Three Years Eight Months after the Taking of Debli, in the latter End of 1401, with an Army of near 200,000 Horse he set out against Eildirm || Baiazed, the Son of Sultan Morad Khan (corruptly call'd Amuratb,) and on the 18th of July, 1402, on the Plains of Ango-11a in Galatia, defeated him and his numerous Army. On the 19th at Night Baiazed,

ا المطاعة in the East is known by the Name of طمورستان Hinduston, which figuries the Country of the Hindus or swarthy People, المحدود Hindus or fwarthy People, المحدود The Capital thereof is محلود Debit, which since Shab Jeban temoved thather from Agra, is as often known by the Name of المحالة المحال

المرم Eildirm, which in the Turkish Language fignifies Lightning, was Baiazed's Surname

A short History

4

with his Son Moufa, were taken Prisoners, and presented to him.

After this Victory, all Afia Minor submitted to him, and the Khotbah * was read at Mecca and Medina in his Name.

On Wednesday the 8th of February, 1405, while on his Expedition to Khata +, he died at the Village Atrar, which is distant from Samarcand Seventy-fix Farsangs ‡. His Body was brought to Samarcand, and buried in a Tomb, which he himself had caused to be erected for that Purpose, having lived Seventy Years, Eleven Months and Twenty-two Days.

His Sons were,

- 1. Jehanguir Mirzà, who died in 1374, at Samarcand, in Temur's Life-time, aged Twenty Years.
- Shekh Aumar Mirza, who was kill'd in Temur's Life-time, in January 1394, being Forty Years old.
- * **List Khethab is the Harangue read by the Mullabs on Fridays in the Mosques, in which the Pince who then governs is mention'd and pray'd for.
  - + Ua Khata or Ching.
  - ‡ فرسنك Farfarg is about four English Miles.

of the Moghol Emperors.

3. Mirza Miran Shah, born in 1367-8, and kill'd the 9th of April, 1408.

4. S babrokh Mirza, who reigned after his Father for the Space of Forty-three Lunar Years and Four Months, and died in March, 1447, having lived Seventy-two Years.

Sultan MAHOMMED MIRZA

Was the Son of Mirza Miran Shab who with his Brother Mirza Kbulil lived at Samarcand, and in the Reign of their Uncle Sharalb they both died. The precise Times of their Birth and Death are not recorded in any authentic History.

Sultan ABUSEYD MIRZA,

The Son of Sultan Mahammed Mirza, was born in 1427. fat on the Throne at the Age of Twenty-five, and on the 18th of May 1469, was kill'd, having reigned Eighteen Lunar Years, and lived Forty-three.

Aumar Shekh Mirza,

The Fourth Son of Sultan Abufeyd Mirza, was born at Samarcand in 1456. After his Father's

A Short History

6

Father's Death he held Possession of Fargbana, Khogend and Auratia (anciently call'd Astrushna) and died on the 7th of June, 1494, having lived Thirty-nine Lunar Years.

Zehîr ‡ o'dîn Mahommed Babr,

The Son of Aumar Sbekb Mirza. The best History of his Actions, is the Commentaries wrote by himself, call'd Vakeat Babri ||
He was born the 12th of February, 1483. and on the 8th of June, 1494, aged Eleven Lunar Years, Seven Months, and Twenty-nine Days sat on the Throne at Andjan. While he governed in Mawaralnabr, he had frequent Conslicts with Sbaban Kban Ousbek. After conquering Cabul, Kan-

A Formerly the Khalfe gave Titles to the Mahm-nedan Princes, such as Defender of Religion, the Champton of Religion, & And fince the Destruction of their Empire, the Princes have allumed such as they like best של Sahtan Bahr took the Title of Laber of din, the Supporter of Religion, and the Name בשל Mahmmand, which signifes prais'd, is pressed for understood to be so) to almost every Mulfulman's Name

Vakeat Babri, Lignifies Batr's Oc-

dabar, Biddukhspan, Gboznavi, and the Places dependant on them, he made five different Expeditions into Hindostan. In the first Four he was unfuccessful; but in the Fifth, on the 1st of May, 1526, near the Village Maltia, he gave Battle to Sultan Ibrahim Loudi, who had 100,000 Afghans *, and 1000 armed Elephants, and totally defeated him, and that humerous Army, tho he had fearcely 12,000 effective Men.

He afterwards fubdued all that Empire, excepting the Kingdoms of Deean, Guzerat, and Bengal. Eleven Months and Five Days after this Battle, he engaged Rana Sanga, the most powerful of the Indian Princes; and tho' the Army of the latter was incredibly numerous, and liad many armed Elephants, he got the Victory.

He died on the 25th of December, 1530, in Charbaghi near Agra, on the Banks of the River Chun +, from whence his Body was carried to be interred in Cabul, having lived

† The River Chun, is often called Junina.

* Sisil Mghans are the feveral Tribes of Mahommedans, who inhabit the Northerh Parts of India; there are fome of them spread all over India, known often by the Name of Pattans; they are esteem'd the best Soldiers in the Country.

8

Conquest thereof.

Forty-nine Lunar Years, Four Months, and One Day; and reign'd Thirty-seven Years, Eight Months, and Two Days: Thirty-two Years Ten Months and Three Days before the Conquest of India; and Four Years Nine Months and Twenty-nine Days after the

Nessîr ‡ obîn Mahommed Hemaiun,

Son to Zebir o'din Mabommed Babr, was born in the Castle of Cabul, on the 4th of March, 1508; and on the 28th of December, 1530, sat on the Throne at Agra.

In November, 1534, he fet out to conquer Malva and Guzerat. Sultan Bahadr, who had engaged with him, and was defeated, fled to Mundou; and being pursued, went from thence to Chanpanere; from Chanpaners to Canbaet (or Cambay); and from Canbaet to Diu. Hemasun after flaying some Time at Canbaet, return'd.

Having, in the Year 1535, subdued Malva and Guzerat, in 1538 he conquer'd Bengal; but in 1540, being forsaken by his good أعمر الدين Hemailin took the Title of فعابون الدين Neffir o'din, the Affifter of Religion.

Fortune,

Fortune he was driven out of his Country by the Unitper Sher' Khith the Afgban, from" which he was ablent five Years five Months! and fifteen Days! The Particulars of which? with his Reception in Perfit; and the Affilt ance given him by Shab Thamas, Son to Shab? Ismael, is fully set forth in Akbarnaina f. Padfbabnama, Tebcat Akbarfbabi, Tarikb attin Arai, and Montekbeb at Tunrikh Bedanivni, being too prolix to infert here. At laft, on the ift of September, 1545, he took Kandabar from Mirza Afterl, who govern'd it as Mirzu Camran's Deputy; and on the 16th of November, 1545, he took Cabul1 from Mirza Camran; and in the Spring 1 546, conquered Biddicklyban from Mirza Suliman, who had revolted and taken the Government thereof into his own Hands. In the Beginning of December, 1554; he fet out from Cabul for Hindoftan .; and on the 22d of February, 1555, came to Labor. On? the 27th of May; the fame Year, he came to Serbind; and on the 20th of June, encounter'd and defeated Secandir Sour. This:

. † Thele are five Hillories; the first Three and the Fifth of the Moghol Emperors, and the Fourth of the Persian Kings of the Seff Race.

Secandir was Son-in-Law to the Usurper Sbér Kban. His first Name was Abmed, and he governed Panjab * under Selim Kban, after whose Death he took the Government into his own Hands, calling himself Secandir, and possessing all from the River Seind + to the Ganges.

On the 24th of January, 1556, Hemaium departed this Life, and was buried in a Monument erected on the Banks of the River Chun, having lived Forty-nine Lunar Years, Four Months and Ten Days, and reigned Twenty-five Years Ten Months and Five Days.

JILAL ‡ o'dîn Mahommed Akbar,

Son to Neffir o'din Mahommed Hemaiun, was born in the Fort of Amrhout on the 12th of

* Label Panjab is the ancient Name of the Province of Laber, it fignifies the five Waters or Rivers, fo many running through that Province and falling into the River Sernd of the Moghol Emperors. October, 1542; and on the 12th of February.

+ The River and Scind, is that known by the Name of the Indus

17.6 heing then Thirteen Solar Years and Four Months old, was proclaimed Emperor at Calanore in the Province of Lahor. He was reckon'd a great and good Prince, and was very fortunate, having, in his Reign, made feveral Conquests, and reduced almost all India to Obedience. The Particulars of which are to be feen in Akbai nama, a History compos'd by his Secretary and Vizir Abul Fazl*, and in Tebcat Albar Shahi, and Montelles Tuarikh Bedauvni. As he was professedly fixed to no Religion himself, so he was a Perfecutor of none. In 1582 he wrote a Letter to the King of Portugal, defiring he would fend to him a Translation of the Scriptures into Arabic or Perfian, and at the fame Time a learned Person to explain the Christian Religion. One Geronimo Xavier, a Relation of the famous St. Erancis Xavier, was sent; who having stearped the Person in the Year 1602, presented the Megbed with the Gospels translated into that Language, entirely intermix'd with their Legends, which he imagin'd would make it the more acceptable to Akbar. As I thought the Letter would not be differeable to some of the Readers, I have inserted a Translation of it, in which I have kept as close to the Original as possible.

A Letter from the King of Kings to the Ruler * of the Franks.

LORY + inconceivable to the TRUE
KING, whose Dominions are fafe from the Difaster of Decay, and his King" dom

It is customary with the Madirimedans to begin, ret only their Letters, but also most of their other Wittings; first, with the Praise of God, and then with the Praise of the Propher.

of the Moghol Emperors. 13

"dom secure from the Calamity of shift"ing. The wonderful Extent of the Heavens
"and Earth is but a minute Part of the "World of his Creation, and infinite Space
"but a small Corner of his Production.
"A GOVERNOR who has regulated the Or"der of the Universe, and the Management "of the Sons of Adam, by the Understand"ing of Kings who exercise Justice. A Do"creer, who by the Ties of Love and Bonds "of Affection, has implanted in the various "Beings and several Creatures the Passion
"of Incluration and Union, and the Affec"tions of mutual Tendency and Society.

"And Praises unbounded, an Offering to the poor Souls of the Company of Prophets * and Apostles, who walked in the truest Paths, and directed the rightest

" truest Paths, and directed the rightest " Ways, in general and particular.

"It is well known that (with those who have stored themselves with Knowledge and studied Nature) nothing in this lower World, which is a Mirror of the sprittial one, is presentable to Love, or more sacred than Friendship. In that they ascribe the

" Oecono-

* As Albar was no found Muffulnan, he makes no particular Mention of Muhammed.

14

" Oeconomy and right Disposition of the " World to Affection and Harmony. For " whatever Heart the Sun of Love shines on, " it clears the whole Soul from the Darkness " of Mortality; and how much more is this

" requisite in Princes, the good Correspon-" dence of whom is the Cause of Happi-" ness to the World and the People therein.

" For which Reason it has been my earnest " and entire Endeavour to promote and con-" firm the Ties of Friendship and Bonds of " Union among God's Creatures, especially " among the high Rank of Kings, whom " God by his Favour lias peculiarly diftin-" guilled from the rest of Mankind; par" ticularly with his * Royal Majesty, who is " endoweed with intellectual Knowledge, is " the Reviver of the Ordinances of Jesus, and

" stands in no Need of Praise or Description. " Our Neighbourhood + with that renown'd " Prince making an Alliance and Friendship

" more indispensibly necessary; and as a " personal Conference is impracticable on

· By his Royal Majefly, he means the King of Protogal. + The Part guefe Conquests on the Coast of India, made il em Neighbours.

&quot; account

of the Moghol Emperors. 15

"account of many Obstacles and several weighty Reasons, the want thereof can only be supplied by Embassies, and a mutual Correspondence. Since it is certain that these only can make up the Loss of a personal Conversation and Interviews; we hope they will be mutually carried on, without any Interruption, that the Af-

" fairs and Defires of each may be mani-" Your Majesty knows that the Learned ' " and Divines of all Nations and Times, in ' " their Opinions concerning the World of " Appearance and the Intellectual, agree in " this, that the Former ought to be of no " Confideration in Respect to the Latter: " yet the wife Men of the Times, and the " Great ones of all Nations, toil much in " perfecting themselves, as to this perish-" ing and showy State, and confume the " best of their Lives, and the choicest of " their Time, in procuring apparent De-" lights, being swallowed up and dissolved " in fleeting Pleafures and transitory Toys. " The most High God, merely thro' his " eternal Favour and perpetual Grace, not-" withstanding so many Obstacles, and such 16 A Short History " a World : of Buliness and Employment, " has disposed my Heart so as always to "feek him: And tho' he has subjected the "Dominions of to many powerful Princes" " to me, which to the best of my Judg-" ment I endeavour to manage midlgovern" " fo. as that vall my Subjects are contented." " and happy; yet Praise be to God, his " Will and my Duty to him, is the End . I " propose in all my Actions and Defires. "And as most People being enchained by "the Bonds of Constraint- and Fashion, " and regarding the Customs of their An-" ceftors, Relations and Acquaintances, -with-" out examining the Arguments or Reasons' " for it, give can implicit Faith to that Re-" ligion, in which they have been bred up, " and remain deprived of the Excellency of "Truth, the finding of which is the pro-" per End of Reason; therefore at Times "I converse with the Learned of all Reli-" gions, * and Profit by the Difcourfes of * Abdallah Khan, Prince of Tartary, in his Letters to Akbar (of which I have got Copies) calls him to a . fevere Account, for being fo fond of the Brahmins or Indian Privile, and to indifferent to to the Muhommédan Religion. " each.

" each : (As the Vail of a Language inter-" poses betwirt us, it would be expedient you would oblige me with fuch a Perfon as could distinctly relate and explain "the above Affair. It has also reached my " fortunate Ears, that the heavenly. * Books, " fuch as the Pentateuch, Pfalms, and Gof-" pels, are put into Arabic, and Perfix: Should " a Translation of these, or any other Books, "Which might be of general Benefit, be procurable in your Country, let them be fent ... For a further Confirmation (of our : !! [Friendthip, and fecuring] the Foundation of Affection and Unity, I have lent my " trusty Friend the Learned and Honour-" able Seyd Mazuffer, + whom I have par-Tie had three Tons.

The Mahammedans call the Scriptures conference Cetth Sumavi, or the heavenly Books, and reckon their Koran one of them. They have a great Regard for them all 1 but fay, we have quite altered and corrupted those in our Pollession, especially the Gospels. A. 1. 18 1. 18 1. 18 1. 18 1. 18

† I am not certain if this Letter, and the Emballa-dor went any further than Gon; but it is well known, that upon this Occasion, one Geronimo Xavier, a Jefuit, was directed to learn the Perfian Language, and fent to the Moghol's Court. This Letter I translated from the 1st Tome of Abul Fazl's Collection of Let"ticularly favoured and diffinguished; he'll communicate several. Things personally to you, in which confide. Always keep open the Doots of Correspondence and Embassy; and Peace to him who follows the Guide.

" Written in the Month * Ribbi al-

Akbar died at Agra on Tuefday, 12 October 1605, aged Sixty-three Solar Years and one Day; having reigned Forty-nine Solar Years, eight Months, and one Day, His Body was interr'd in the Burying-place of Seeandra, near that City.

He had three Sons,

Sultan Selim; + afterwards Jehanguir.
Sultan Morad, + who died by excessive Drinking in the Year 1598, in Decean.

* April, 1582.

&#x27;t and Selim,' which is a proper Name for Men, fignifies, praceful, fafe, fecure; and had Selima is a proper Name for Women, of the fame Signification.

T Morad fignifies susped for, defired; being derived from $313! Eradib, the Will.

Sultan Daniel, who died by the like De-, bauch in the said Province in the Year 1604.

And three Daughters,

Shahzadah Khanum. * Shakr Nissa Begum. + Aram Banu Begum. ‡

Nour | odîn Mahommed Jehanguîr,

Son to Jilal o'din Mahommed Akhar, was born at Fattehphur ** (formerly called Sikri)

o . A floort History

which is twelve-Cos * distant from Agra, on the 19th August-1569, and called Sultan Selim. On the 21st Offiber 1605, being then aged about 36 Solar-Years, he sat on the Throne at Agra, and took to himself the Title and Name of Neur edit Mahommed Yehanguir.

After a Reign of twenty two Solar Years and fix Days (the last eight of which he had been afflicted with an Asthma) he died at Chirgarhist, being then on his Return from Cassmir to Lalor, on the 27th of Ostober 1627, aged fifty eight Solar Years, one Month, and twenty nine Days. His Body was carried to Labor, and there interr'd.

He was a weak Prince, and too much overruled by the beautiful Nour Jeban + (or Nour Mabl) which made the last ten Years of his Reign

• A Coß is the Meafure they commonly go by in India, in computing Diffances, they are of two Sorts Jerish, or meafured, which are good English Yards etch, and Rifms or computed, which are from 2000 to 2500 Yards, according to the different Provinces Those mentioned here, are the measured Cos.

† ליכ בילי Nour Jebar, fignifics, the Light of the World Shewasalfo called ליכנ Nour Mahl, or the Light of the Seraglio She was Wife to one Sher Af- han Khan, of a Turkman Family, who came from Perfa

of the Moghol Emperors. 21

Reign very uneafy to him, and unfortunate to the Empire. The Omras, who knew her Original, were refolved to oppose all her Schemes; but she persuaded the Emperor to break thro' all Rules, in order to advance her Father, Brother, and other Relations to the highest Employments.

After his Death she endeavoured to secure the Empire for Shebriar, who was febanguir's son by a Slave, and married to her Daughter by her First Husband Sher Afkan Khan*. But Aff Khan and Eradet Khan, as Sultan Khourm (who was Son-in-law to the former) was far off, and that the three Persia to Hindestan in very indifferent Circumstances. As the was exquisitely beautiful, of great Wit, and an elegant Poetes, Jehanguir was resolved to take her to himself. He sent her Husband, who was esteemed the bravest Man in the Service, with some Troops to command a Place in Bengal; and asterwards sent another with a greater Force to cut him off. When he was killed, Nour Jehan was soon prevailed upon to be an Empres. The Coins struck in Jehanguir's Reign, with the Signs of the Zadiack, were not, as is generally thought in Europe, done by his Empress's Order, nor did she reign one Day, as the common Opinion is; but the ruled the Person who reigned, for above twelve Years.

* الكن Sher Afkan lignifice the Lyon Over-

young Princes his Sons, Dara Shekowh, Sultan Sujah and Auringzebe, were in Nour Jehan's Hands, in order to disconcert her Scheme, and protract the Time until he came, immediately proclaimed Sultan Dawr Bukhsh (alias Bolaki) Son to Khofro, Emperor.

Jehanguir had Three Sons and Two Daughters by the following Empresses:

By the Daughter of Rajab Bovandasi*, who poisoned herself in 1601. because the Emperor did not take the same Notice of her Son as he did of Sultan Khourm.

Sultana Nissa Begum, + born in 1586. Sultan Khofro, ‡ Father to Sultan Davr Bukhsh or Bolaki, || born in 1587. He died in Confinement in the Year 1622.

* Rajah, fignifies, Prince, in the Indian Language, and Rani, Princefi.

+ نسا الله Sultana Niffa, the Queen of Wo-

Javr Bukbfb, fignifies, Ged's Gift.

t عسود Khofre, is the Name of one of the Perfian Kings of the Kauan Dynoffy, who was great and power-الله عمل لعمد المحدد وsenerally applied to any great or powerful Prince, and uled as a proper Name in some Royal Families.

of the Moghol Emperors. 23

By the Daughter of Khojah Hossan, Sultan Parvéz*, born in the Year 1589.

By the Daughter of Rajah Keffoudafs Rattor, Bahar Banu Begum +, born in 1590.

By the Daughter of Rajab Oudefung, Sultan Khourm ‡, born in 1592, who fucceeded his Father, and took to himself the Name of Shah Jehan.

Jebanguir had also Sultan Jebandar. | and Sultan Shebriar ** Twins by a Concubine, born in 1605; which last being Nour Jeban's Son-in-law, she endeavoured to secure the Empire to him: But on Shab Jeban's Accession to the Throne in 1627, he and Bolaki, with Sultan Daniel's Three Sons, * itsy: Parvez, a proper Name with the Ancient Perfant, it fignifies villarious. In the Pebluvi Language, it fignifies Fift, and some imagine it's added to Khofro's Name, because he had a great liking to Fish. Others say, that Khofro Parvez signifies the powerful and villarious King.

24 A Short History Gurfielo * Tenguare and Halloung were

Gurstess *, Teyomars, and Hossburg were put to Death

Shahab o'dîn Mahommed Shahjehan ||

Third Son to Nour o'din Mahomred, Jehanguír was born on Wednesday, the 5th January, 1592, and sat on the Throne in Agra, the 1st February, 1628, being then Thirty six Solar Years and Twenty-eight Days Old On the 29th March, 1647, being the 20th Year of his Reign, he removed the Seat of his Empire from Agra + to Debli, calling it Shahsebanabad, where on the Banks of the River Chun he built a noble Cassle and Palace, with Gardens and other Conveniencies,

which

* Gurstasp, Tesomars, and Husbung, are ancient Persic proper Names of Men

ال الدس الدس Shabab o'd n, the bright Star of Rel gion, and مائع Shab Jeban, the King of the World, were the Title Staten Kburern affumed on his Accession to the Throne

<sup>† # [ ]</sup> Agra, is often called all ] [ ] Albarabad or Albar's Habitation, he having kept his Court there, as 5-bo Doble, is called all oles who Shab Johan abod, or Sha which cost above fifty Lacks * of Rupees. After a successful, and, till then, happy Reign of Thirty Solar Years, Four Months and Eighteen Days, he was first confined by his eldest Son Sultan Dara Shekowh, and at last deposed by his Third Son Sultan Aur ingzebe, and confined in the Castle of Agra, where he died on Sunday the 21st of January, 1666, aged Seventy-sour Solar Years and sixteen Days, being, all the Time of his Confinement, attended by his beloved † Daighter Jehon Ara Begum. His Body was interred at Agra,, in the magnificent Monument he caused to be erected for his Empress Mehd Alia ||, and which had cost Sixty

* A Lack of Rupees is 12,500 L and 50 Lacks is 625,000 L A Rupee is the filter Coin flirek in the Maghi's Minis, with an Infeript on of hs Name and Titles, the Year of his Reign, and the Place it vas flirick at It weighs from 7 dw 10<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub>gr to 7 dw 11gr) and has from 1 to 2 Parts in 100 Allay 100,000 is one Lack, 100 Lacks are one Crote, and 100 Crotes are one Arth

+ Some People suspected he had a cr min. | Converfation with his own Daughter, long before his Confinement.

. | Lacked Mehd Alia was also called Je of Tange Mahl, or the Crown of the Seraels

A short History

26

Lacks * of Rupees. The Empire flourished exceedingly in his Time, comprehending no less than Twenty-three Provinces, the Names and Yearly Revenues of each as follows:

			•
			L.
Deble	too Krores of	Dams	re3,125000
Agra	90		- 2,812500
Labor	90		-2,812500
Aymîr	60		- 1,875000
Dowlataba	d 55		- 1,718750
Berar	55	- —	- 1,718750
Guzerat	53		- 1,651250
Bengal	50		→ 1,562500
Alebabad	40		- 1,250000
Babar	40		- 1,250000
Maha	40		- 1,250000
Khandeish	40		- 1,2 50000
Audıb	30		— 9375∞
Multan	28		— 875000
:	771	,	24,093750

<sup>* 60</sup> Lacks of Rupees are 750,000 L.

A Dam, which is the fortieth Part of a Rupee, and only imaginary, what the Land Revenues are computed by. A Pupee is 2; U.d. Sterling

enniperors.	27
24,	93750
	62 500q
	468750
	468750
	25000Q
	250000
	218750
	125000
	937500
	62500

of the Marchal Frenceror

The Five last Provinces were added to the Empire by him,

1. 27,500,000

880

The Number of his Forces, as they were paid out of the Revenues in 1647, amounted to 911,400 Herfe and Foot.

He had feveral Children, as follows:

By the Empress Mebd Alia, Daughter of

By the Empress Mebd Alia, Daughter of Assign Mind Banu Begum *, Seven Sons and Four Daughters.

28	A Jodet History	:
* Hural N	uffa Begum, born in		1612

Jehan Ara-Begumb	1614
Sultan Dara Shekowab	1615
Sultan Sujab 4
Rossbergas Begum	1617

Sultan Auringzebe 1 1618

* Sultan Amead Bukbsb 1620

* Suria Banu Begum 1622

| Sultan Morad Bukbfb | 1624 * Sultan Loutf Allab* 1627 * Sultan Dovolat Afza | 1628

Those mark'd with an Afterism died before their Father was deposed fore their Father was deposed

of the Moghol Emperors. 29

By a Daughter of Mazuffer Hossein Mir-En Grandson to Shah Hmael King of Perfia. One Daughter.

Parbéz Banu Begum * born in 1611.

Mohy $ .0'DÎN MAHOMMED AURINGZEBE. Third Son to Shab Yeban, was born the 22d of October, 1618 In the latter End of 1656. Sultan Dara Shekowh, endervouring to possels himself of the Empire, confined his Father Shah Yeban, which Auring zebe having Notice of, begun to make Preparations; and giving but that it was with a Delign of fecuring the Throne to his Brother Morad Bukbil. then at Abmedabad +, he wrote to him to fet out with his Forces and join him at Eugene !!. which is the Capital of the Province of * Parhiz banu, lignifies the abstinere فوهنز فاقو Princels.

Malva.

t When Auring zebe became Emperor, he affutned

the Titles of (Ital) and Moby o' din, the Reviver of Religion, and عالم ڪير Alumguir, the Conqueror of the World.

On the 4th of February, 1658, he marched from Auring abad * in Deccan, with 2 5000 Horse, his Son Sultan Mahommed, having set out before him, the 24th of January the preceeding Month. Both the Brothers join'd at Eugene, near which Place they encounter'd and defeated the Maharajah + Jessvint Sung, and Kaffum Khan, who were fent by Dara Shekowh to oppose them. After which they marched towards Debli, and in the Fields of Kejoul, near Agra, gave a total Overthrow to the Army of Sultan Dara Shekowb, who fled towards Labor, upon which Auringzebe enter'd the Castle of Agra, and on the 20th of July, 1658, he fat on the Throne, and was proclaim'd Emperor in the Town of Eazabad, * having first confined his Brother Morad Bukhs, notwithstanding he had swore by the Koran to be true to him.

* al. al. al. al. auringabad, the Capital of the Province of Dewlat Abad, which is 265 measured Cofs diffant from Pebli. Auring zebe had it so called after his own Name

† Maharaja's lignifies the great Prince, Maha being great or mighty in the Samherri or Bramus's Language This Title is given by the Maghali to the Rajahr of Marwar of the Rattar Family The Capital of their Country is Juhdport, which is 176 Cofs diffant from Delhi. The Rajpauts of Marwar are effected the best Soldiers in India.

Having taken Poffession of Debli, he sent his Father from thence to be confined at Agra+; and on Sunday the 2d of January, 1659, he set out for Bengal, where, at a Place called Kuwra, he deseated his Brother Sultan Sujab, and obliged him to fly.

On the 15th of May, 1659, being then aged Forty Solar Years, Six Months, and Twenty-three Days, he fat on the Throne, and was proclaimed a Second Time, and ordered that for the future, the Beginning of his Reign should be dated from the first Ramazan, in the Year 1069 of the Hegira, or the 12th of May, 1659.

Sultan Dara Shekowh being taken Prifoner, was brought in Triumph to Dehli, and sent to Khefrahad ‡, where he was murder'd by Auringzehe's Order, the Night of the 28th of August, 1659.

The 14th of January, 1661, he fent his own Son Sultan Mahemmed, and Sultman * Shekowh, Son to Dara Shekowh, to be confined in the Castle of Gualiar +.

In 1664, going against the Raipouts I, his Son Sultan Mahammed Akhar revolted from him, and joined them. Auringzebe purfued him to Deccan, from whence he found Means to get by Sea to Perfia.

During his Reign, which was about 50 Lunar Years, he was constantly in the Field. He conquered Vijaporell, from Secander and Hyderabad**, from Sultan Abul Hoffan, bcfides several other Territories and strong Holds in Deccan; having twice taken the

famone

Suluman Shekowh fignifies, august as Solomon

+ والمار Gunhar is 28 Cofs from Agra.

I The Rajpouts are the most watlike of the Indians There are several Tribes of them, all Subjects to those Rajabs or Indian Princes, who are in a manner independent of the Machal

Vijapore, or Bijapore, as pronounced by the Moghols, is 357 measured Coss from Deble

<sup>**</sup> Hyderabad, which was formerly called Bhagnagur, is 371 Miles distant from Debli. There is a Castle in this Province, called Goleonda, by which Name the Whole Province is chieffe known in Eutope famous Seva Rajab, * who as often found

Means to make his Escape. The Revenues of the Empire were greatly increased in his Time, for excluding Ballb, Kandahar and Biddulbshan, which Shah

Tehan possess'd, and were afterwards lost, there wasa Revenue of 12071876840 Dams, which (at 220 Dams to a Pound Sterling) is 27,724,615 1 = from the Twenty-one following Provinces:

A short History

34

The Nineteen old Soubahs § or Provinces.

		•
Names.	Capital.	Revenúe in Dams.
$oldsymbol{Debli}$	Debli	1221950137
Agra	Agra	1146760157
Ajmîr	Ajmîr	ઇ 52345362
Alebabad	Alebabad	456543248
Panjah	Lahor	826132107
Audi	Audib	322327829
Multan	Multan	214442936
Gabul	Cabul	1610393 5 4
Cashmîr	Srinagr	229911397
Guzerat	Almedabad	607849135
Babar	Patna	407161000
Scind	Tatta	91816810
Dowlatabad	Auringabad	1034945100
Malva	Eugene	403901658
Berar		614025000
Kbandeisb	Brampore	.448630000
Bedr	Zafferabad	372974370
Beng all	Dacca	524636240
Odissea		142820000
		9880211840

The

of the Moghol Emperors. 35 Carried over 08802 11840 The Two New Soubahs.

1113260000

1078205000

12071876840

Hyderabad

Vijabore

Hyderabad

Vijapore

At 320 Dams per 1. are 37,724,615 1. 2 s. 6d.

On Friday, the 21st of February, 1707. Auringzebe died at Abmednagur, " in the Province of Dowlatahad aged Ninety Lunar Years and 14 Days, having reign'd about Fifty Lunar Years. He was buried there in the Place of Shab Zen al din, +

A Short History 96 At the Time of his Death, his Third Son

Azem Shab was with him, and his Second Son Mahommed Mauzm, at Cabul.* He had left a fhort Will: of which, for the Satisfaction of the Curious, I shall here give a Translation.

A Translation of Auringzebe's last Will.

" I Came empty-handed into the World, " I and empty-handed I guit it. Who" ever of my fortunate Children shall

" chance to rule the Empire, let him not

" molest Mahommed Kambukhsh, + should he " rest contented with the Two New Sou-" bahst.

"There cannot be a better Vizir than Emir " al Omra.

" Let all the King's Servants be true and " faithful to Mahommed Azem Shah.

of the Moghol Emperors. 37

"Whoever shall chance to have the Empire, let him not turn out or molest

" those born or bred up in my House.

"If the Division I formerly made proves agreeable to my Children, it will prevent

" a great deal of Confusion and Bloodshed,

"There are two imperial Seats, Agra, and "Debli; whoever fettles in Agra may " have the Province thereof, Deccan, Malva

" and Guzerat.

" And who resides at Debli may have

" Cabul and the other Provinces.

"I came naked into the World, and naked "I go out of it. Let no Enfigns or royal

"Pomp accompany my Funeral; let Ha-

" mid o'din Khan, who is faithful and trufty

" convey my Corps to the Place of Shah" Zen al din, and make a Tomb for it, in

" thesameMannerasis done for Derveishes: "

" let not my fortunate Children give them-

" felves any Concern about a Monument
" There is in my private Treasury 57382

"Rupees, + let a 1000 Rupees § be distri" buted among the Poor at my Funeral.

* The Tombs for Derveilher are made low and plain, without any manner of Ornament.

† 7172 l. 15 l. 6 125 l.

Auringzebe had Five Sons :

Sultan Mahommed,

Mahommed Mauzm, a who fucceeded his Father in the Empire.

Mahommed Azem, b

Mahommed Akhar,

Mahommed Kambukhsh. a

Darah Shekowh had Two Sons;

Suliman Shekowb, *
Sepeh Shekowb, *

Sultan Sujab had Two Sons :

Zen al din Mahommed,

Bullind Akhter.

Morad Bukbfb had one Son :

Iefd Bukbfb.

- a _ha Mauzm fignifies great, glerious.
- عطر عامر Azem fignifies the fame
- اڪيرء Akbar, is the Comparative Mood of جبير ا
- Pomp like Soloron.
  - septh Shekouh, of military Pomp سبة سنكوة Septh Shekouh, of military Pomp المناقدي Zen al din, the Ornament of Religion
- a بالد احتر Bullind Akhter, of high Stars, or great
  - درد بحس ا Ifl Bukhfb, God's Gift.

KOTEB * O'DÎN BAHADR SHAH,

Upon Auringzebe's Death, Azem Shah, with his Father's Troops, fet out from Deccan towards the . Capital, as did also Mahommed Mauzm from Cabul, in order to decide their Fortunes in Battle. On the Banks of the River Chun, near Agra, both Armies encountred. They were by far the most numerous that for feveral Ages had come together in India. Mahommed Mauzm having 150,000 Horse, and 178,000 Foot, exclusive of the Auxiliaries furnished by the Rajabs; and the other Brother nigh as many. In short, Azem Shab's Forces were defeated, and himself killed, Mahommed Mauzm was proclaimed Emperor, taking to himfelf the Title of Koteb o' din Bahadr Shab, and Shah Alum. He made Mahommed Khan his

* Sultan Mahammed Mauzm, on his Accession to the Throne, assumed the Titles of الدبي Koteb al din, the Axis of Religion, عادر شاء Bahadr Shah, the valiant King, and alle the Shah Alum, the King of the World Notwithstanding each Roteb fignifies only the Pole or extreme Part of the Axis, yet in is used here to fignify the Whole,

Vizir, Zulfecar Khan his Mir Bukhsh, or Paymaster-General, Daud Khan, Soubahdar, or Lord-Lieutenant of the Provinces of Deccan, and Assad Khan Absolute Agent, whom leaving to take Care of the Capital, he went himself against his Brother Kambukhsh, who had left Vijapore, and settled at Hyderabad, where, after some little Resistance, he was taken Prisoner, and died that same Night of his Wounds

Bahadr Shah went afterwards to Lahor to fuppress fome religious Riots, and died shortly after, having reign d about Six Years

He had Four Sons,

Mauz o din, called also Jebandar Sbab. Mabommed Azim, Azim Al Sban a Raffeeib al Kadr, Raffeeib al Shan Kboyisa Akbter, Jeban Sbab.

a معر الدبي Mauzo din, fignifics the Honour or Glo

الدار ساء على الدار ساء على الدار ساء على الدار ساء على ألدار ساء على أ

ملع مام مام و مام مام و مام

عطم السان عطم السان Azimal Shar, of great F gure or Rank وسع القدر، Raffech al Kadr, of exalted Power

f chulu Can Raffee b al Shan, of exalted Rank

احتر ع المر الم المراه المارية المارية ali ole Jehan Stal, King of the World

of the Moghol Emperors. 41

His Brother Sultan Mahommed Accem had Two Sons,

Mahommed Bedår Bukht,*

Mahommed Wallah Jah.

His Brother Sultan Mahommed Kambuksh had One Son.

Iefdan Bukbsh, called also Rabman Bukbsh, whose Daughter has been lately married to Nefr allah Mirza, Nadir Shab's Son.

JEHANDAR SHAH.

Jebandar Shab, Jeban Shab, and Raffeeib al Shan, Sons to Babadr Shab, having joined against their Brother Azim al Shan, defeated and killed him. His Treasure falling into the Hands of Zulfeear Khan, who was in Jebandar Shab's Interest, they marched against the other two Brothers, Jelan Shab and Raffeeib al Shan, and having overcome them, put them to Death. Their Deaths

a war place Bedar Bulb', whole Fortune is awake,

ا والا حالا الا Wallab Jan, of august Rank والا حالا الا الاتحال تحسيا الدوان تحسيا الدوان تحسيا

Rahman Bukhfh, the Gist of the

All sei Nefr Allah, fignifies, offified by God

A short History

fecured the Empire to Jehandar Shah, and Zulfecar Khan became his Vizir.

He was a weak Prince, and fo foolifhly fond of one of his Wives, called Lal Koar, who was of an obscure mean Parentage, and a Singer by Profession, that he endeavoured to fill the Places of the greatest Trust and Honour in the Empire with her base Relations, which fo difgusted Seyd Abdallah Khan and Seyd Hoffan Khan, two Brothers of great Authority in the Empire, and who had a Body of choice Troops, that they refolved to place Mahommed Furrukhsir (Son to Azim al Shan, then at Bengal) on the Throne, This Prince, notwithstanding he had but little Treasure, got Numbers to join him. At first he deseated Eaz o'din, * Jehandar Shah's Son; and afterwards Jehandar Shah himself (thro' his People's Treachery and Cowardice) was defeated near Agra, and obliged to fly, tho' he had near 100,000 Horse and Foot.

Jehandar Shab had one Son; Eaz o'din. Azım al Shan had one Son:

Azım al Shan had one Son :
Mahommed Fur rukbfir. ||

ن الدان با Eaz o' din, fignifies the Glay of Religion, Furrukhur, fignifies of Lappy Disposition.

Raffeeth

44 A Short History

cut off the two Brothers They, on the other hand, were intent on nothing so much as enriching themselves. They turned out Nizam al Muluck * (Ghazi o' din Khan's + Son) from his Government of Deccan, and Hossan Ali Khan went thither hanself. At last, the two Brothers finding the Emperor grew jealous of their Power, resolved to remove him, and put a more passive Prince in his Stead. Having got Aject Sang the Maha Rajah (whose Daughter ‡ was martied

&quot; is a Title fignifying be who arranges and puts in Order the Empire. His first Name was the color of the Empire. His first Name was the color of the Swerd-drawing Lord Some People, by Corruption, pro nounce it Chieklas Cam.

† Live of Le Ghaze o' d.n. fignifies the Champton of Religion Nizam has also a Son called by the Grandfather's Name Ghaze o' din Khan, who has lately got the Title of the policy Nofe Jing, which fignifies reforms in War.

† It is a Custom with the Moghol Emperors to make All ances with the Indiana Rogalor or Princes, by marrying their Daughters, who, as soon as they are taken into the Harram or Seraglio, are converted to Mahamadait'm, by pronouncing in Arabic these Words, Their is lut One God, and Mahammed bis Prophit, and learning a few Prayers to Furrukbsir) to join them, they confined him: Shortly after, they blinded him, by drawing a red hot Wire over his Eyes: And on the 16th of February, 1719, offering him a Thousand Indignities and Insults, put him to Death, after a Reign of Seven Years.

"Twas in this Emperor's Reign that the English East-India Company obtained a Firman * exempting them from paying any Duties in his Dominions, of which I have here subjoined a Translation.

ALL GOVERNORS, People in · Offices, Jaguirdars +, Fojbdars +, Crorss ||.

* قرمان Firmán, fignifics literally an Order, but it is used for a Patent or Grant from the Emperor.

+ When one is preferred to be a simula Manfuldar, or Commissioned Officer, by the Mighel, he etther pays him out of the Treasury, or else allots him as much Lands in fome of the Provinces, as the Salary and Wages of his ciecia Manfub, or Post, comes to The Lands to allotted are called the mesta Jaguir, and the Officer who receives the Revenues as his Pay, is ca'led the Joguirday.

I Fall dars are Officers who have the Command of a Body of Horse, and take Care of the Suburbs of a City, and the Out-parts.

Green are those Officers who collect the Revenues of the feveral Villages, and often farm them of the Lord Licutenant of the Province, or of the Jaguirdar.

· Rahadars*, Gouzerbans+, and Zemidars+, who are at prefent and shall be hereafter in the Soubab | of Abmedabad, and in the fortunate Port of Surat, and Cambay, being in hopes of the Royal Favour, KNOW,

That at this Time of Conquest which carries the Enfign of Victory, Mr John

Surman and Khojab Serbad, § Factors to the English, have represented, by the Means of those who stand on the Steps of the high

"Throne, "That Customs on English" Goods all over the Empire are pardoned,

" except at the Port of Surat, and that at the faid Port, from the Time of the * Rahadars are those who have the Charge of the High way

† Gouzirbans are they who collect Duties on the High roads

ל ( איני און Zemidars, are the Royals or Indian Princes, לייני who have free Estates, and a Tract of Land at their own Command, only paying a small Acknowledgment to the Great Mable The Name is com posed of Ar, a Possesson, Land, and Solar, a Possessor

Soubab fignifies a Province

§ Mr John Surman, an Englip Gentleman, and Ko jol Serlad, an Armenian, were the principal Per fons fent from Bengal to the Mogbel's Court to follicit for the Grant

of the Moghol Emperors. 47

" Emperor who is pardoned *, whose Place " of Rest is Eternal, Shabab o' din Shab " Yehan, 2 per Cent. was fettled as Customs. " From the Time of him who has approach-" ed the Most Merciful, whose Place is " everlasung, Moby o' din Mahommed Au-" ringzebe Ahimguir, 31 per Cent. was ap-" pointed, and in other Places none molested " them on this Account And in the Time " of the Emperor who is pardoned, whose " Place of Repose as Heaven, surrounded " with the Favour of the Almighty, whose " Rank is most Sacred, Abul Mazuffer + " Bahadr Shab, 21 per Cent. was settled, " and is in Force until now: By reason of " the Oppressions of the Muttesiddis I there, " 'us three Years fince they have withdrawn " their Factory In the Soubabs of Bahar " and Odiffea, this Nation pays no Cuffonts; " and in the Port of Hugly, in the Province " of Bengal, they Yearly give Three § Thou-

* This is a fofter Kind of Expression used by the Mal ammedans in mentioning deceafed Pe fons

Abal Man ffer, lignifies the Fa her of 179m

† Muttefiddes are the King's Officers

48 A fbort History

"fand Rupees Peifbeufb * in lieu of Cuftoms; they are in hopes that, according to the Cuftom of other Ports, in the Port of Surat likewife, a yearly Peifbeufb may be fettled in lieu of Cuftoms; they agree to a Yearly Peifbeufb of Ten + Thousand Rupees.

The ORDER which subjects the World to obey it, and which must be strictly followed, is issued forth: That since they agree to Ten Thousand Rupees Peissuss at the Port of Surat, take it Yearly, and besides that molest them on no Account: And what Goods or Effects their Factors bring or carry away by Land or Water, to and from the Ports of the Provinces, and other Parts, looking upon them to be Custom-free, let them buy and sell at their Pleasure; and if in a Place any of * μεὐβαυβ, which literally lignifies, prefented, or drain hefere, is the Term for a Prefent from an Inferior to a Superior; is are also these Words, has Naur, preferted to View, λως. βουστοπ, laid before, &c. And whatever Superiors give to their Inseriors, which is generally Robes, Arms, Horses, Liephants, &c. is called a kbalact and Surrapab, and if Money, an Eram.

of the Moghol Emperors. 49 their Effects should be stol'n, use your utmost Endeavours to recover them, de-'livering the Robbers to Punishment, and the Goods to the Owner; and wherever they fettle a Factory, or buy and fell Goods, be affilting to them on all just Occafions; and whomfoever of the Merchants. &c. they may have a just Demand on by Accounts, according to Equity, give the English their Due, and let no Perfon injure their Factors. They have likewife humbly represented, "That the "Duans * in the Provinces may demand "the Original Sunnid+, or a Copy with the " Nazem or Duan's + Seal affixed; to pro-"duce the Original in every Place is im-" practicable; they are in hopes that a Copy

* The Duans are the Seconds or Deputies to the Lord Lieutenants of Provinces, and Governors of Cities. They are the General Accomptants, and the Revenues pass thro' their Hands

" under the Kazzi's || Seal shall be credited, H

t dim Sinnid, fignifies, a Grant or Patent.

ลกต้

# Nazem is the Governor, or Person who acts for hint

ا قاضي Kazzi, or, as some pronounce it, Cadi, is the judge, who, among the Mahommedans, decides

A Short History

50

" and they not demand the original Sinnid, " or molest them on Account of a Copy " with the Nazem or Duan's Seal: And in

"the Island of Bombay, belonging to the " English, where Portugueze Coins are Cur" rent, that according to the Custom of " Chinapattan +, the fortunate & Coins may all Causes, he being generally a Person of the greatest Repute and Learning, a Copy attested by him to thought fufficiently authentic * As the Island of Bombay (which was made over to the English in King Charles the Second's Time) belonged first to the Partugueze, their Coins passed current there, until the English East India Company had the Privilege of coining Rupees

+ Chinapattan is Madraft, or Fort St George, on the Cormandel Coast, where the English did coin Rupees

& By the Fortunate Coms (which they call as-مبارك Sicca Mobarek) are meant Silver and Gold Rupees, which last they call , Mebr, or Sun, and ought to weigh 7 dw 3 gr and are in Value equal to 12 Silver Rupees weighing 7 dw 10 gr each The Inicription on this present Emperor's Money is, The Fortunate Coins of the valiant Emperor Mahommed Shah, Aruck at en the of the glorious Reign The first and last Blanks are for the Year of the Hegira and Reign, and the Second for the Name of the Place

of the Moghol Emperors. 51

"be ftruck; and that whoever of the "Company's Servants being in Debt, runs "away, may be sent to the Chief of the "Factory; and that on Account of the "Fojbdarr*, and the other forbidden Articles (by which Means the Company's Factors and Servants are vex'd and discountered they be not molested.

"couraged) they be not moletted.

The frict and high Order is iffued forth, that a Copy under the Kazzi's Seal be credited, and that in the Illand of Bombay, fortunate Coins fruck according to the Custom of the Empire, be current; and whoever of the Company's Servants, being indebted, runs away, let him be taken and delivered to the Chief of the Factory, and let them not be molested on * As the Fojbdar is the Person who has the Command of the Suburbs and Out-parts, where it is chiefly that intoxicating Liquors are allowed to be fold, and disorderly Houses kept, he used to take up Sailors, and other Europeans, whom he sound there, and not release them without a Sum of Money, which created the Chiefs of the Factories, and the Company's Servants, a deal of Trouble. This Article in the Firmán is to redress that Grievance, and suffer them to pass Wines, and other Laquors and Necessaries, without any Molessation.

52

Account of the forbidden Articles. "They " have likewise represented, that in Bengal, " Babar and Odiffea, the Company have "Factories, and that they are willing to " fettle in other Places They are in hopes "that wherever they fettle, Ferty Vingas " of Ground may be graciously bestowed on "them by the Emperor, and that their "Sh ps fometimes, by Reason of Tempests, "run ashore, and are wreck'd, the Gover-" nors of the Ports do in an oppressive Man-" ner feize the Goods, and in fome Places de-" mand a quarter Part. ' The Royal Order is islued forth, that they act according to the Customs of the Factories in other Provinces, in regard to this Nation (who have Factories in the Imperial Ports, and Dealings at Court, and have miraculously obtained a Tirman exempting them from · Customs ) Take Care in a just Manner of the Goods of their Ships that are wreck'd or have loft their Paffage, and in all Affairs act according to this Great Order, and demand not a new Grant Yearly.

 $\ \| \ A \ \textit{Vinga} \ \text{1s}$  formewhat lefs than the third Part of an A re.

f this

of the Moghol Emperors. 53
this be punctual, written on the 4th of Safer in the 5th Year of this Glorious Reign.

On the back Part of the Firmân, was the Vizir's Seal, with his Titles, as follows:

The Security of Fortune, and trust-worthy of the Empire,
Chief of the Omras of exalted Rank,

Chosen among the Khans of the High Court,
Manager of the Empire and its Riches,
Director of its Fortune and Grandeur,
Master of the Sword and Pen,
Exalter of the Standard and Ensign,
Vizir of a true Judgment,

Vizir of a true Judgment,
Of one Colour, (i. c. Ingenuous and Sincere)
Prop of the Empire,
Supreme Manager of its Affairs,
The Victorious General,
The grateful Friend, and Pattern for all Vizirs.

* January 6th, 1716-7.

RAFFEEIH AL DIRJAT.

The Seyds, after having made away with Furruklyfir, took Raffeeth al Dirjat, Son to Raffeeth al Shan, out of the Castle of Schingur +, where the Royal Family are confined, and placed him on the Throne. He had not reigned above Three Months, before they mutdered him, and sending for his Brother

RAFFEBIH AL DOWLAT.

Placed him on the Throne, who in a few Days afterwards died a natural Death, and was fucceeded by the present Emperor

Nasr o'din Mahommed Shah,

Son to Jehan Shab, who being raifed to that Dignity by the Seyds, Hoffan Alı Khan and + Sehmgur, fignifies Sehm's Cafile, being built by a Prince of that Name.

Mahommed Shah, on being made Emperor, took to himself the Title of ماصر الدين Nafr o'din, which fignifics, the Supporter and Affiler of Religion

Abdallab Kban, they kept the Power so much in their own Hands, that he had nothing, except the Name of Emperor, which made him eagerly wish for an Opportunity of making himself independant, and revenging the Death of his Uncle's Son, Furrukbsir.

In October, 1720, Mahommed Shah, accompanied by Hoffan Ali Khan, and several Omras*, set out from Agra with a numerous Army, in order to reduce Nizam al Muluck, who had grown very powerful in Deccan.

Having marched Nine measured Coss the First Day, the Emperor called a Divan that Night, and after a short Stay withdrew. As foon as he was gone, Mahommed Amin Khan Heydr Kuli Khan S, Master of the Ordnance. Khandoran, and several others of the Omras, who were most attached to the Royal Family, drawing their Swords, fell on Hosfan Ali Khan, and killed him with two or three of his Friends. Upon this Mahommed Shah laid afide that Expedition, and returned towards Debli, in order to cut off Send Abdallab Khan, the other Brother, who was in that Capital with a great Force; and who hearing of his Brother's Murder, had taken out Sultan Ibrahim, Son to Raffeeib al Shan, and proclaimed him Emperor. Gathering together what Treasure he could, and having broke to Pieces the famous Throne, (which cost Shah Jehan nine Crores of Rupees) in order to pay his Soldiers, he foon compleated an Army of 50,000 Horse, and marched out to engage Mahommed Shah, who had encamp'd at Serkad, which is Twelve Coss from Mhetra.

<sup>* 1,01</sup> Omra, is the Plural of 101 Emir, which fignifies, Prince, and is a Title given to all the Nobility of the first Rank, in the Moghol's Empire, and in Tartary.

ا حيدر فلي Heydr Kuli, lignifies, the Slave of the Lien, حيدر Hoydr, which lignifies, a Lion, being one of the Appellatives given to Ali Martifa, and sis Kuli, in the Turkish Language, figurfies, a Slave.

On the 2d of November, 1720, both Arrnies engaged; and after an obfinate and bloody Battle, Abdallab Kban's Forces were defeated, and himfelf desperately wounded and taken Priloner.

§ One Crore is Ten Millions So that Nine Crores of Rupees, at 2 s. 6 d each, amounts to 11,250000 l. Sterling

of the Moghol Emperors. 57

The young Sultan, whom he had brought with him to countenance his Rebellion, being taken, had no other Punishment inflicted on him, but being sent back to his old Quarters the Castle of Selimgur.

Upon this Victory the Emperor made great Rejoicings, and appointing Mahommed Anin Khan Vizir, returned to Debli.

Abdallah Khan being brought before him, the Emperor faid to him, 'Traitor, fee what thou hast done.' To which he anfivered, ' I took you out of a Prison, and 'gave you an Empire. My Brother being murdered by your Order, as I was at the ' Head of an Army, Self-preservation directed me to make use of it : Providence decreed you the Victory, use it as you think proper, by treating this Clay as your Refentment or Interest may prompt you. Then the Emperor faid to him, What 'Harm had Furrukhsir done to you?' To which he answered: 'He grew jealous of ' mine and my Brother's Power, and as it was inconfiftent with our Interest to refign 'it into his Hands, we thought it dangerous ' to lose any Time in removing him. Had "Providence permitted us to have been fo

T

prudent

or prudent hitherto, we should not have come to this tragical End. But when Fate desitines one to Ruin, it begins by blinding the Eyes of his Understanding. Then the King ordered him to be confined, and four Servants allowed to attend him, and faid, As for the young Sultan he is not to blame; were he to be punished, it would distract this poor Mother; let him remain with ther.

Heydr Kuli Khan was in great Favour, and afterwards made Seubabdar * of Abmedabad. Noufrit Ear Khan was made Soubabdar of Aymur, Sir Butlind Khan was fent for from Cabul to be one of the Vizirs; and Kandoran was made Mir Bukhfki ‡ with the Title of Emir al Omra §.

Furrulsin's Mother defined that Abdallab Khan, the Murderer of her Son, might be delivered to her. Matonmed Shab fent her Word that it was unlawful to kill two Perfons for the Murder of one, and that Hoffan All Khan was killed in Retaliation. He then ordered that Abdallab Khan should lodge in

* So ibabdar is Lord Lieutenant of a Province,

<sup>1</sup> Mir Bukhshi is Paymaster-General and Treasurer.

S Evur al Omra lignifies the Prince of Princes.

of the Moghol Emperors. 59

the Palace of Aff all Dowlat, have a Penfion of 3000 Rupees Monthly, thirty Houshold Servants, seventy Menial Ones, with Provisions of all Kinds from the Royal Kitchen, five Women to attend him, and proper Guards over him. He did not live long to enjoy this generous Allowance, dying a few Months afterwards of his Wounds. Five and Forty Women, most of them his Wives and Concubines, and some his near Relations, burnt ‡ themselves in one Room the Night after he died.

I 2

ln

1 In ancient Times, none but the Wives of the Brabmins (or Indian Priests) had the Privilege of burning themselves with their deceased Husbands: But since the Government fell into the Hands of the Rajpouts, 'tis customary, when any of their Princes die, for one or more of his Wives to be burnt with him. There is no Compulsion to this Sacrifice, as some People wrongly imagine; 'tis entirely of their own accord, and often they are diffwaded from it. Sometimes indeed, when a vain-glorious Passion prevails over natural Affection, the Widow's Relations would gladly have her burn, as it railes the Character of their Family, by making it remarkable for virtuous and loving Women cording to their Religion, 'tis more meritorious to behave chastly and decently in their Widowhood, unt I Death, than burning; because one is but a short Pain, and the other a State of Trial. The Moghols have en-

In the Year 1721-2, the Emperor wrote to Nizam al Muluck, then at Deccan, defiring his Presence at Court, and that he would appoint him Vizir; but if he declined it, he should nominate whomsoever he should judge to be the most deserving. To which he answered: " I am a Dervessh, "and not ambitious of so high a Station, "I was contented with the Province of " Malva, when the Seids intending to di-"ftress me, I was obliged to take Arms. "By the Divine Affistance I baffled their "Defigns, and fecured myfelf. At last " your Majesty, by their Instigation, set out "against me with a mighty Army. Here "the Almighty protected me likewise. In "the Beginning one of the Brothers was "killed; and as you knew me to be a deavoured to discourage this Custom as much as possible; but fince Money is omnipotent in that Country, as well as in many others, a finall Bribe generally purchafes the Confent of the Governor, or Commanding Officer Lately the Seyd and Pattan Families, in feveral Parts of India, have, thro' their excessive Pride, got into this Cuftom, and as it is firstly forbidden by their Religion (which is the Mahammedan) they do it privately, by fetting an Apartment on fire about their Lars faithful Servant, you laid afide that Exfaithful Servant, you laid afide that Exfedition, and returned to Debli, where, being fettled to the Satisfaction of all for People, you have now condefeended to diftinguish me, the meanest of your Slaves, with this extraordinary Mark of your Favour; which I only decline, as knowing myself unequal thereto, and that there are many about your Court more capable and desirous of such an Employment than I."

As Nizam would not come to Court, Mahommed Amin Khan was continued Vizir, and after his Death, his Son Kunmir o'din Khan *fucceeded him in that Office, and enjoys it now.

Nizam continued at Deccan, as Soubabdar of Vijapore, Hyderabad, Auringabad, &cc. and though he acknowledged himself a Subject, yet made no Remittances to Court, but appropriated the Revenues to the maintaining of an Army, which he said was to keep in aw the Mabarattas or Ganims, the Sabou Rajab's Subjects in Deccan; whom notwithstanding he permitted to plunder and lay waste several of the King's Provinces. They قور الدبي تر الدبي Kummir o'din, fignifies the Moon of Religion.

2 A Short History, &c.

imposed a Tribute of one quarter Part of the Revenues, which they call Chot, in many Places, and some Parts they have taken entirely to themselves. He well knew, that with the Mabarattas Assistance, he could defy any Attempts that could be made against him from Court. At last, in the Year 1738, the Mabarattas becoming very formidable, and Nadir Shab having besieged Kandabar II, he was prevailed on to come to Court, as shall appear more particularly in the Sequel.

المال Kandabar, is diffant from Debli 358 meafured Cos, and from Isfaban 463. The State of Affairs in India before the Persian Invasion, with the Motives that induced Nadir Shah to undertake that Expedition.

S the * Emperor's Affairs became daily in a worse Situation, and that thro' the Indolence of the Vizir, and his being entirely taken up with his Diversions, there was no Prospect of a Remedy; His Majesty resolved to send for Nizam al Muluck, who being one of Auringzebe's old Emirs +, and of great Experience, his Presence might give a new Turn to Affairs. Accordingly Orders were issued forth for his Appearance; in Compliance with which, leaving his Son Gbazi o'din Khan to command in Decean, he came to Debli, where he met with a gracious Reception, was made Absolute Agent, which

. The Great Mogbol.

† Errir fignifies Prince or Commander, being the Name that the Nobility are diffinguished by, the Plural of which is Omra.

64 The State of Affairs

is greater than Vizir, and honoured with the Title of Ajof Jab t. Khandoran, who was Bukbsh, or Paymaster General, had the Emperor's Ear fo much, that whatever he requested was granted, His Majesty being entirely governed in all His Actions by him. As Nizani al Muluck was for fettling Affairs upon the same Footing as they were in Auringzebe's Time, and proceeding in Regard to the Administration of Justice, according to Law, and as was done in the Reigns of former Emperors; whatever he requested on that Score was denied him, and all his new Schemes opposed and laugh'd at by the Om-He observing the Weakness of the Emperor, and the Dissoluteness of his Courtiers, who employed their Time in the Company of locfe Women and Buffoons, waited on His Majesty, and framing an Excuse, told him the Affairs of his Province required his Presence. On his Arrival at Deccan he entered into a Concert with Rajab Sabou, and contrived it fo, that Baieeran | should march as far as Debli, and plunder and lay waste all before him : that, at length, the Emperor, and those about him, might be roused out of their Indolence, and be sensible of their ill Conduct. The Maharattas foon over-run the Province of Malva, 'killed Guerder Bahadr, the Governor thereof, and feized all his Treafure and Effects. After having laid waste and destroyed all the Country around, they returned to Deccan. As no Notice was taken at Court of these Inroads, next Year they marched towards Guzerat, where notwithstanding the Inhabitants agreed to pay a quarter Part*, they plundered and distressed them in a fevere Manner: They also ravaged the Country round about Gualiar, which being near the Capital, the Court was alarmed, and Khandoran, with Kummir o'din Khan and other Omras, fent with a powerful Army to chaftife them; but these great Officers thought Peace the fafest Measure,

† Ajôf Jab is a Title commonly given to Vizuri. It fignifies, in Place and Rank as Alof, who, they fay, was Solomon's Vizur. At the fame Time that they howard their Vizuris with this Title, they flatter their own Varity, by comparing themselves to Solomon.

| A famous General of the Maharattas or Ganims, who is lately dead.

* A Quarter Part of the Revenues, which they call Chot, is the Tribute the Maharattas have endeavoured to impose on several Parts of India.

66 The State of Affairs

agreed to pay the Quarter Part, and returned Home. Notwithstanding this Agreement, and the Money being paid, the Maharattas did not spare those Places from being plundered, but even resolved to march as far as Agra to receive the Quarter Part for Debli. The aforefaid Officers fet out again, and came to the City of Agra: A little before their Arrival, the Mabarattas had croffed the River Jumna, with an Intent to march into Audib, the Province governed by Saadst Khan, who having Notice of their Delign, march'd against them with a strong Body, and after an obstinate Engagement deseated them, took two of their principal Officers, and killed 5000 of their Men. With the Remains of their 'Army they marched to Feridabad, which is Ten Coss from Debli. Upon which Khandsran and the Vizir, being joined by Saadet Khan, went in pursuit of them: The Maharattas had left that Place Three Hours before the Omras Arrival, and marched towards Kalka, near Debli; which being a Place of Worship for that Day, the greatest Part of the Inhabitants had assembled there: They robb'd them of all they had, but fpared their Lives; and knowing the City ### in India, before, &cc. 67 City-had but few Forces therein, they intended to plunderit; of which the Emperor being informed, he ordered Emir Khan and Hollan Khan, with all the Companies belonging to the Train of Artillery, to go and oppose them. . They accordingly marched out, and after an Engagement of a few Hours. Hossan Khan was killed, and Emir Khan, with the rest of his Army, almost routed, and the Maharattas on the Point of entering the City, when the Vizir, who had outmarched the other two Omras, came to his Affistance; the Enemy was foon defeated, and put to Flight: The Vizir purfued them to Allaverdi Khan's Serai, + which is Seven Coss from Deble, where coming up with them, and having no Inclination to fight, he fecretly made up Matters: Upon which they marched back to Decean. Saadit Khan being fornewhat puffed up with his own good Services, and incenfed at this shameful Compremise with the Ganims, marched towards his own Province, without waiting on his Majefty; but the other Omras enter'd the City, and paid their Respects to him.

68 The State of Affairs

The Emperor was again inclined to fend for Nizam al Muluck, thinking that while he continued in Decean he should be always in Fear of (or actually diffurbed by) these Excursions of the Maharattas. Mehr Parvir, his Grandmother, who had great Interest with Nizam, at his Request, wrote him a Letter, full of Affurances that he should have the entire Management of Affairs at Court, provided he came without Delay. He complied with her Request, but met with a worse Treatment than formerly. The Omras not only difregarded him, but took all Opportunities of affronting him, especially Khandor an and his Creatures, who when he came to pay his Respects at Court, used to ridicule him, faying to each other, Observe bow the Deccan Monkey dances. This Usage having wrought him up to the highest Pitch of Refentment, he was refolved to revenge himself by distressing the Empire, and destroying Khandoran and lus Creatures. He imparted his Defign to the Vizir, Kummir o'd'n Khan, imagining he would join with him.

in India, before, &c. 69

him. But notwithstanding the Alliance between them (Nizam's Son being married to the Vizir's Daughter, and the Vizir's Son to Nizam's Daughter) he could not engage him to join in any Plot detrimental to the public Interest: on the contrary, he used his Endeayours to diffuade him therefrom. by representing to him the Infamy of facrificing his Country to private Refentment. When Nizam perceived he would not come into his Measures, he applied himself to Saadit Khan, the Soubabdar of Audib, who then had a great Body of Men, was an Officer of Experience. and had lately raised his Reputation by his Action with the Mabarattas: and, what was still more to the Purpose, had fince that Time flood ill-affected towards the Emperor and Khandoran. Having entered into an Agreement, it was resolved that Nadir Shab, Ruler of Perfia, who then was belieging Kandabar, should be the Instrument to distress the Emperor, and remove Khandoran from amongst them.

But before I relate the treacherous Correspondence carried on between Nizam, Saadit Khan, and Nadir Shah, with the Invitation

o The State of Affairs

they gave him to march towards Hindostan, which was the principal Motive that encouraged bim to undertake that Expedition, I shall give a brief Account of the Life and Actions of this Famous Conqueror, sobo of late has made so much Noise in the World, which I had from a Gentleman subo knew bim personally, and was in Persia during the Time of the Great Revolution which happened there; that is, from the Time the Afghans smoaded Persia, and Mahmud Khan, the Son of Mir Vaez, took the Capital thereof Isfahan, making Shah Sultan Hossein Prisoner, with all bis Sons, which were Twenty-three, excepting Thamas Mirza (afterwards Shah Thamas, subo made bis Escape during the Siege) until Nadir Shah fet out for Kandahar to reduce to Obedience

Hoffein Khan, a Brother of the faid Mahmud

Khan.

THE

HISTORY

NADIR SHAH.

TADIR SHAH t, known in Europe by the Name of Kuli Khan, was born at Calot in the Province of Khorafan | His Father was Chief

His first Name was نادر قلع Nadir Kuli, which fignifies, God's Slave, or Interally, the Slave of the Wonderful. It is composed of 35 Nadir, wonderful, which, with the Mahammedans, is one of God's Attributes, and Language, fignifies Slave. In this Manner the Arabs, and other Mahommedans, compose most of their proper Names, by prefixing the Word see Abd, Slave, to God's Name, or any of his Attributes, thus: All our Abdallah, the Slave of God, and Jus Abd o' Rahman, the Slave of the Merciful, &c.

Kharafan is one of the most eastern Provinces of Perfia, which its Name imports, fignifying, towards the

The History of

Chief of a Clan of the Affbar * Tribe; and Governor of a Fortress belonging to hat Place, wherein a fufficient Guard was kept to prevent the Oufbeg Tartars from making Incursions into Khorafan. It commanded one of the Passes, and was so situated by Nature that a Handful of Men might eafily defend it against a numerous Army. The Father of Nadir Kuli (for that was his first Name) dying during his Minority, his Uncle took the Command of that Fortress, which had been Hereditary in the Family for many Years, under Pretence of keeping it until Nadir Kuli was of Age; but when he was grown up, the Uncle pretended he was still too young to take such a Charge; and infinuated to the Clan, he was a Youth of a fierce and tyrannical Disposition, not fit to command them, unless, instead the Sun; 35 Kher, fignifying, the Sun, in the ancent Perfic. The Perfams generally pronounce it Kherafur, making an 1 a, before an pm, or an jm, found like an ju, which, they think, gives the Words a fweeter and fofter Sound. But in Tartary, and all over the Maghol's Empire, the Words are pronounced as they are wrote.

* The Affhars are a Turcoman Tribe, divided into two or three Clans.

73 of mild Treatment they chose to be fway'd with a Rod of Iron. The Affl ars being well fatisfied with the Uncle, defired him to continue their Chief, declaring that as they already had fufficient Experience of his Capacity and Humanity, they would not run any Risque by submitting to his Nephew. Nadir Kuli being thus thrust out of his Right by the Cunning of his Uncle, and being of too great a Spirit to live in a State of Subferviency among his Relations, went to Mufl.ad*, a City famous for the Sepulchre of Imam Ali Reza, and there entered into the 'Beglerbeg's + Service, as one of the under Maflers of Ceremonies; in which Office he behaved fo well, that the Prince foon gave him the Command of a Troop of Horfe, In the frequent Skirmishes he had with the Tartars he gave fuch Proofs of his Conduct and

Courage, that in a few Years he was made Mim Bashi, or Commander of 1000 Horse,

* Mushad is a City in Khorasan, which, since Shah Abasi's Intention of making it a Place of Pilgrimage. has been of more Note than Herat, the ancient Capital thercof

† Beglerbeg is a Title fignifying, in the Turkilb Language, Lord of Lords.

74 The HISTORY of

bout thirty two Years of Age, behaving on all Occasions with the greatest Gallantry and Resolution. He was esteemed and respected by those whom he chose to be familiar with; but others who were not fo intimate with him, and to whom he behaved with Referve, made little Account of him. He fo well disguised his Ambition, that, altho' determined to push his Fortune to the utmost, when a proper Opportunity should offer, he took the greatest Care to smother whatever might give the least Jealousy or Offence to his Superiors, feeming perfectly happy in the Station he had obtained, until the Year 1720. when the Oufbeg Tartars, by Susprife, entered Khorasan with a Body of 12000 Horse, and began to commit Hostilities, The Beglerbeg not having above 4000 Horse, and 2000 Foot in Readiness to march against them, called a Council of his Officers, and told them if an immediate Stop was not put to the Progress of the Tartars, they would lay waste and plunder the whole Province, and, according to their Cuftom, carry off Man, Woman, and Child, with every Thing of Value they could lay their Hands. ODI on; in Confequence of which he must lose his Head. The General Officers declared the Force his Highness could then muster was not near fufficient to encounter the Enemy with any Probability of Success, and that the King would blame him should he attempt it, and thereby only throw away the Lives of fo many brave Men. The Beglerbeg perceiving their timorous Disposition, declared he would put himself at the Head of what Troops he had, and try his Fortune, it being better to run any Hazard than fit down tamely, and be idle Spectators. while the Tartars ravaged the Country, and carried away the Inhabitants to a perpetual Slavery. Nadir Kuli, who was present at this Council, (but whose Station did not entitle him to speak until the Opinion of those of the same Rank was asked) got up, and defired that he might be indulged to offer formething on this Occasion: Which being granted, he faid, It was then no Time to deliberate; that the Enemy were advancing towards them, and in a few Days would force the Generals to do what what at present they feem'd to have no Inclination to: that he could not enough commend the brave Refolu-L 2 tion therefore give you the Title of General, with the Command of all the Troops now here, and order you to march with them, as foon as possible, against the Tartars, and either give them Battle, or take fuch Measures as may feem to you most proper, in order to put a Check to their Progress. Accordingly a Commission pro tempore was prepared and figned for Nadir Kuli to command in this Expedition as General, and the Prince affured him, if he fucceeded, he would use all his Interest at Court to get him confirmed. Altho' the Common-Soldiers were well fatisfied to have Nadir Kuli to command them, yet all the General Officers, and most of the Mim Bashis, his Seniors, refused to act under him, which the Prince being informed of, defired they would flay with him. and that others, whom Nadir Kuli appointed, should act in their Stead. Accordingly several Officers were promoted in order to supply the Places of those who staid; and the Troops fet out with Nadir Kuli at their Head, with the same Resolution that he did, to conquer or die. The Tartar General, who lay about four Days Journey from Mushad, hearing the Perfians were in quest of them, called

76 The History of

tion of the Prince in offering to go in Perfon, and give them Battle, tho', at the fame Time, there was no Necessity for His Highness to run so great a Risque, since if any Accident happened to him the whole Province would be loft; that it would be more advisable to remain in the City Muskad to take Care thereof with what Forces he could gather from the adjacent Parts, and let the Army fet out immediately, in order to give the Enemy Battle, or to secure some Defiles and narrow Passes to prevent the Tartars advancing until his Highness could send Succours: That for his Part, he affured him he was, by Experience, so well satisfied of the Bravery of the Troops they then had, that if he would honour him with the Command of this Expedition, he was fo well affured of Success, that in Case he miscarried he was willing to forfeit his Head. The Prince was so pleased with an Offer of this Kind, that he did not wait for any of the Generals Opinions; but immediately told him, You have, in your prefent Station, when Occasion offered, given fuch Proofs of your Conduct and perfonal Valour, as leaves me no Room to doubt of your future Behaviour; I do therefore therefore give you the Title of General, with the Command of all the Troops now here, and order you to march with them, as foon as possible, against the Tartars, and either give them Battle, or take fuch Measures as may feem to you most proper, in order to put a Check to their Progress. Accordingly a Commission pro tempore was prepared and figned for Nadir Kuli to command in this Expedition as General, and the Prince affured him, if he fucceeded, he would use all his Interest at Court to get him confirmed. Altho' the Common-Soldiers were well fatisfied to have Nadir Kuli to command them, yet all the General Officers, and most of the Mim Bashis, his Seniors, refused to act under him, which the Prince being informed of, defired they would flay with him, and that others, whom Nadir Kuli appointed, should act in their Stead. Accordingly feveral Officers were promoted in order to fupply the Places of those who staid, and the Troops fet out with Nadir Kuli at their Head, with the same Resolution that he did, to conquer or die. The Tartar General, who hy about four Days Journey from Mushad, hearing the Perfians were in quest of them, called

78 called together all his Forces, who were out a marrauding in different Parts. Nadir, who bent his March directly towards him, on his Arrival, found the Tartar at the Head of his Troops ready to give him Battle; upon which he drew uo his little Army on an Eminence, and told them, that half the Tartars at least were a foraging, and left to guard the Captives and Plunder; that he was affured they had not above 6 or 7000 Men, tho' they were drawn up loofe in order to make the greater Show; and that he should not doubt of Victory had they been twice as numerous, from the Experience he often had of their Courage on other Occasions, which he was affured they would then exert to the utmost, as thereon entirely depended the Lives, Liberties, and Estates of their Countrymen. The Tartars charged with their ufual Fury, which the Perfians, animated by the Example of their young Leader, fustained with all the Intrepidity imaginable. Both Parties being brave and equally refolute, a bloody and obstinate Action ensued, in which the Victory for a long Time feemed doubtful: At last Nadir's Fortune prevailed; for having flain the General with his own Hand, the Tartars were immediately put to Flight, the Persians pursuing and slaughtering them for several Miles. In this Battle upwards of 6000 Tartars were killed, and of the Remainder not half returned to their own Country, being either killed or taken Prisoners by the Peasants.

This Victory gained Nadir Kuli immortal Honour; and the Beglerbeg affured him, on his Arrival at Mufhad, that he had wrote to the King to make him General under him, that is, Lieutenant General of Khorafan. But Shah Sultan Hossein, who was then King of Perfia, being a weak and indolent Prince, never regarded the Services Nadir had done him, but appointed in that very Post, which he ought to have, a young Nobleman who had never feen any Action. This Affair was managed by the great Interest the other General Officers had at Court, who (tho' afraid to undertake it themselves) were highly chagrin'd at Nadir Kuli's having had the Command of the Tartar Expedition: The King's Weakness giving them a fair Opportunity of indulging their Resentment, by procuring the Difgrace of this brave Man, who bad no Friends at Court to foliicit for him. Being

The HISTORY of 80

Being highly incenfed at this Treatment, he waited on the Prince, and told him, he had depended on his Promife to no Purpole, for inflead of being confirmed in his Post, he was degraded and difgraced for his good Services, and a young Fellow appointed to Command the Army, who was only fit to be shut up in a Seraglio with Women, that he observed, he was a Person nearly related to his Highness, whence he concluded he was raifed to that Station by the very Interest promised him: The Prince assured him of the contrary, and as he had endeavoured to ferve him, was highly displeased at his daring to tax him with a Breach of Promise. Nadir, by infifting on what he had faid. and dropping some other unguarded Expreffions, so far trespassed on the Prince's good Nature, that he ordered him to be bastinadoed on the Soles of the Feet, till his Toe-Nails dropt off, and turned him out of the Service. The Reader must not be furprized at this Sort of Punishment to a Field Officer, for it is frequently inflicted on those in the highest Stations, if they incur the King's Displeasure, and all the Nobility are liable to undergo it, if they disobey the Commands nf of their Superiors in a Post subordinate to them. Nadir was now fet adrift, and having no Friends at Court; had no Hopes of being re-instated; this made him turn his Thoughts on retiring to the Place of his Nativity, and endeavour to recover his paternal Inheritance. On his Arrival there, his Uncle received him very kindly, and he lived with him and his other Relations fome Time: but on his endeavouring to recover the Command of the Tribe,' by first infinuating privately, and then infifting upon it that it was his Right, his Uncle let him know he would not refign it, and treated him in a most contemptuous and flighting Manner. His other Relations did the fame, which was Ufage Nadir's high Spirit could not bear, notwithstanding the State of Poverty he was reduced to, which was fo very hard, that he was forced to borrow fmall Matters of any that would lend him, to procure the common Necessaries of Life. This was enough to beget desperate Resolutions in a Man who had deserved great Things from his Prince and Country, for the good Services he' had done them; inflead of which, as I have already observed, he was degraded and punished: And when he fled into

M

82 The HISTORY of

the Arms of his Relations for Relief, and claim'd his Birth-right, found that withheld from him by his Uncle; and all those who, by Tics of Blood, ought to have been his Friends, turned his Enemies, for no other Reason that I could ever learn, but that they found him a bold enterprising Man, and superior to themselves in Point of Genius and every other Respect. Nadir, in this melancholy Situation, determined to get that by Force, which he could not obtain by any other Method; and having affociated with a Couple of stout Fellows of desperate Fortune, went upon the Highway, and robb'd a finall Caravan of Three or Four Mules laden with Merchandize, and found Means to dispose of them, the Produce of which (fetting afide what they wanted for prefent Expences) he laid out in Arms and Ammunition, and enlifted privately in his Gang all the desperate Fellows he could pick up. He fet out a fecond Time with about 20 or 25, and robb'd a large Caravan of 30 Mules and Camels, laden with Merchandize and Provisions, which he carried to the Mountains, where Persons came fecretly to him with Arms, &c. and exchanged them for Goods, much to their Advantage Advantage. In this Manner he frequently robb'd, traded, and enlifted fresh Men into his Gang, most of whom were Soldiers who had formerly served under him, until he had got near 500 flout Fellows well mounted, with which Force he kept the Country in aw, and laid them under a Contribution, which they would not comply with, till he had first threatned, and afterwards performed his Resolution of carrying away their Cattle, and plundering and burning their Houses. But it will be proper here to take Notice, that he could not have reigned long in this Manner, but would have been purfued and overpowered by the King's Forces, if the Empire had not been involved in War. The Afgbans, under Mir Vaez's Son, had taken Isfahan, and reduced the South-East Parts of Persia to their Obedience; the Turks had entered the Western Parts, and taken most of them; and the Muscovites had taken Poffession of Gilan (the ancient Hyrcania) and other Places bordering on the Caspian Sea; fo that Shab Thamas having but two or three Provinces left, which were furrounded by Enemies on all Sides, he could not spare any Forces to reduce Nadir Kuli; the

M 2

Country

The HISTORY of 84 Country People were afraid to attack him,

so that he lived on them, and exacted what he thought proper for the Support of himfelf and his Followers. At this Time, one Sef o'din Beg, a General in Shah Thamas's Army, and Chief of a great Tribe, called the Bayets, Laving offended the King, his Perfan Majefly was determined to take away his Life, which Sef o'din Beg being privately informed of, he fied from the Camp in the Night with 1500 of his own Men, and not knowing where to take Sanctuary, he went to Neder Kuli, and joined him. By this Addition to his Force, he had now got upwards of 2000 Men, and was become very formidable and expensive to the Neighbourhood. Nadir's Uncle began to dread the Strength of his Nephew, who not being above 100 Miles off, might come and attack him whenever he pleafed: He therefore wrote him a Letter, wherein he affured him, he was of Opinion, that if he would fubmit, and go into the King's Service, his Majesty would grant a Pardon to him and all his People. Nadir feemed very well pleafed with this Propofal, and wrote his Uncle, that if he could procure the Pardon he mentioned, he should be glad to accept of it. Accordingly his Uncle fent a Petition to Shah Thamas, in behalf of his Nephew. His Majesty at first seemed not inclined to pardon a Man who had been guilty of fuch notorious Crimes; but being told the ill Treatment he had formerly met with. forced him to take fuch Measures in order to support himself, that he was a gallant Officer, and that his Troops might be of great Service to his Majesty, who was in want of such Men. the King comply'd, and fent a free Pardon figned to his Uncle, which he immediately forwarded to Nadir Kuli, who, upon the Receipt thereof, fet out with Sef o'din Beg. and 100 chosen Men for Calot On his Arrival there, his Uncle received him very kindly. Next Day he made a grand Entertainment for him and his Followers, which he intended to have continued for three Days, far from apprehending any Treachery from his Nephew, who now meditated Revenge for the Injury done him in withholding his Right, and flighting him when reduced to the greatest Necessity. He had concerted with his Followers how to put it in Execution before he left the Mountains, and had ordered 500 more of his Men to fet out the next Day after him, and to lay concealed near the Caffle of Calot (which they might easily do, it being a mountainous Place.) Accordingly having that very Night made proper Preparations, about two in the Morning, at a Signal given, those within fell on the Sentries, killed fome, and feized the rest, whilst Nadir Kuli went to his Uncle's Chamber, whom having killed, he took the Keys of the Castle, and opened the Gates, in order to let in the 500 Men, who were ready at his Signal. His Uncle's Men, who were about 160, befides the Sentries, had taken the Alarm; but Nadur's Peoplehaving secured the Doors of the Barracks where they lay, they could make no Relistance, so that they furrendered; and, being difarm'd, were fet at Liberty the next Morning: there was not much Blood flied on this Occasion. not above fifteen or twenty being killed in all. Nadır immediately dispatched Messengers to those remaining in the Mountains, who came to him in a few Days. This happened about the Year 1726-7, upwards of fix Years after he had been turned out of the King's Service in Mulbad, as before-mentioned.

Nadir, by this Action, not at all to his Credit, had gratified his Revenge on his

Uncle,

Uncle, and had all his Relations (who lived mostly in the Town, and the adjacent Villages near Calot) in his Power; but he shewed no Resentment to any of them: On the contrary, he treated them with Civility and Respect; several of them entered voluntarily into his Service, and are now with him in great Posts. He continued in this Place for some Months ruling in an absolute Manner, and raising Contributions, for fifty Miles round, to what Amount he pleafed. Shab Thamas was fully apprized of all that Nadir had done, and was highly displeased at the ill Use he made of the Pardon sent him, which was to destroy his Uncle, and get Posleffion of a strong Place, whence nothing but a great Force could diflodge him; but as his Affairs were in a declining Condition, every Day feeming to threaten his Ruin more and more, being hemm'd in by the Turks on one Side, and the Afglans on the other, he judged it better to make use of the Rebel Nadir's Affiftance, than to weaken his own Force by attempting to destroy him. He therefore let him know, if he would fubmit and come to him, he should be graciously received, and admitted into the Service as a Mint-

The HISTORY of

88

Mun Baff 1, and that Sef o'din Beg should likewife be pardoned, and entertained in the fune Station Nadir accepted this Offer, and having left one of his own Officers, with 500 of his Men, to command the Cafile, he fet out with the rest, and waited on the King, who at first rebaked him for what he had done, but told him and his People, that he had forgiven them, and did not doubt but their future Behaviour would make Amends for their past Offinces Noder excused himfelf as well as he could, by telling the King the ill Treatment he had met with from the Prince of Kingfan, in being turned out of the Service at a Time when he ought to have been rewarded for 'his fuccefsful Expedition against the Tartars, and that the injurious Usage he received from his Uncle and Relations had forced him into the Merfures he had taken to support hinsfelf, but as his Mujesty had now generously pardoned him, he should endeavour to render himfelf deferving of the

Clemency which had been them him

As he had now frequent Occasions, he fignalized himself by his Courage and Conduct, and was the Admiration of the King and the whole Army The Turks (who before Name Fir Kuli's coming into Shah Thauas's Army, were always victorious, and feem'd determined to extirpate the Persian Race, and divide the Empire between the Afgbans and themselves, with whom they had made Peace, and entered into an Alliance) were now frequently repulled with Lofs, tho' their Numbers were vally superior to the Persians; and in all those Actions and Skirmishes, Nadir, the' he had but an inferior Command, vet he shared the most Honour; till at length the King made him a Lieutenant-General. having removed two of his principal Officers to make Way for him. As Nadir had, by his Station, frequent Opportunities of waiting on the King, he foon infinuated himfelf into his Fayour. He had but one Rival to deal with, who was of any Confequence, namely, Fatteh allah Khan Kajar, with whom, in Appearance, he kept a ftrict Friendship; but the very Moment the King (being fet on by his Creatures) had called that General to an Account for his Management. in Regard to the Army, Nadir Kuli affured His Majesty he had been a long Time sensible of the Abuses committed, and unless there was a Reformation in the Manner of paying M and 70 and disciplining the Army, the Troops would defert; that they already began to murmur at not receiving their Pay regularly, and complained of the exorbitant Deductions made out of it for Cloaths, &c. The King, on hearing this, was highly incenfed against the General, and declared, if what was alledged against him was true, he would order his Head to be cut off. He having nothing to fay in his own Justification, but pleading it as a Custom, and what his Predecessors had always done, His Majesty ordered him to be executed on the Spot, and appointed Nadir Kuli General, who readily accepted of it. without the Formality of defiring to be excused on Account of his Inability to acquit himself as he ought in such a Post. This was in the Year 1727-8, and not above one Year fince he was pardoned, and taken into the King's Service. Nadir having obtained that high Station, began to display Talents vaftly superior to what he had discovered hitherto, and the King had so great a Dependince on his Management, that he feldom or never interfered in any Thing relating to the Military. Nadir, being fensible of the Trust reposed in him, was resolved to improve it to his own Advantage, by removing those in the Army whom he had Reason to believe were not attached to him, and putting in those who were. He gain'd the Affection of the Common-Soldiers, by paying Them with his own Hand the Moment he received the Money, and letting them have Cloaths at the first Cost. Finding himself in this happy Situation, he wish'd for nothing more than Action, but his Forces (being no more than 15 or 20000) were not _fufficient to act offensively against the Turks: However, he annoyed them so much by Means of flying Parties, that they were glad to fit still in their Quarters; they fent to acquaint Shah Thamas, that if he would relinquish to them the Right of those Places they had already in Possession, they would make ·Peace with him, and leave him to recover the rest of his Dominions from the Afghans. Shah Thamas let them know he would confider of it, and defired a Truce till he could get an Answer from the Grand Signior to some Proposals he had to make - him; to which the Turks agreed, promifing to commit no Hoshlities until they received · Orders from the Port, and fo their Confines were were fixed to Hamadan on one Side, and Tabriz and Arcobil on the o her Shab Tlaries fen 1 Vestenger to Constantinople with Of ere of an Accommodation, but on Terms which he knew would not be granted, he gave private Orders to the faid Messenger to pretend Sickness on the Road, and to delay his getting thither as foon as possible, fo as not to give the Turks any Cause of Suspicion Sl ab Thamas s Delign was only to gain Time that he might go and subdue Meluck Mahmud, Governor of Mufbad, who had rebelled during the late Revolution, and fet up as King. Having, thro the Bravery of his General Nadu, taken the faid Governor Prisoner, and jeized his Effects, he fet out with 12000 Horse to chastise the Abdollees, a Tribe of Afglans, who had taken Possession of Herat in Shab Sultan Hoffein's Time, and were now preparing a grand Army to invade Khorafan, and lay Se ge to Mufbad The Abdollee Afghans met him about three Days Journey from Herat, with an Army of near 30000 Horse As they were reckoned better Soldiers than the Kandal ar Afgbans, who had taken Isfalan, the King feem'd to dread the Event of the Battle, but Nader, whose Courage was invincible.

The History of

NADIR SHAH. invincible, affured the King he did not doubt of Success: that Victory depended more on Resolution and Conduct than on Numbers. and that he was fatisfy'd his Majesty's Troons had both. Having drawn up his Army in order of Battle, he harangued them in the fame Manner, telling them withal, that the Loss of that Battle would be the Ruin of Persia, and that they and their Generations would be made Slaves for ever, if they did not conquer that Day; after which a general Shout was given. The Abdollee Afghans. who were drawn up at some Distance, hearing their Shout, returned it, and advanced with great Fury to charge the Persians. Nadir kept his Men close, and being posted upon a rifing Ground, he played upon them with fome small Field-pieces, which did great Execution, not fuffering any of his People to discharge their Small-Arms until the Enemy was within thirty or forty Yards, when they made a general Fire, which made fuch Havock among the Abdollees, that they were obliged to retire, and give the Persians Time to load again. In short, after several desperate Attacks, which the Perfians sustained with an uncommon Valour, a general Engagement

94 The History of

gagement enfued, in which Nadir behaved with a most furprising Conduct, for, tho his Personal Bravery naturally carried him too far, his Vigilance was fuch, that he always fent timely Assistance wherever it was reouired; at last, the Abdollees were entirely routed, 5000 were taken Prisoners, and near 15000 killed and wounded The Lofs on the Persians Side amounted to no more than 1500. After this he marched to Herat, and befieged it for fome Months, until the Enemy fubmitted, and had agreed to pay down a certain Sum, and give an annual Tribute on Condition they might have a Governor appointed by the King out of their own Tribe, which being granted, they fwore Obedience to Shah Thamas, by whom they were to be treated in future as natural Subjects. The King, who was in the Army, but did not command, fet out for Mulhad. Nadir Kuli, having Orders to follow him as foon as possible, arrived there in August, About this Time the King received News that Asbruff, the Afgban (who succeded Mahmud, the Son of Mir Vaez, and was then in Possession of Isfaban) was preparing to come and attack him with a powerful Army.

Army. The faid Asbruff, hearing of Nadir Kuli's Success, thought it dangerous to give fuch a Man Time to augment his Forces; he therefore determined to crush him in the Beginning: For which Purpose, having compleated an Army of 30000 Men, he fet out from Isfaban in September, 1729, and march'd towards Khorasan. This News alarmed Shah Thamas, and likewise his General Nadir; but his Troops, being flush'd with their late Victory, feem'd eager to be led against the Enemy. He was glad to find them in this Disposition, especially as he had but little Hopes of raising any great Number of Recruits, few People caring to enlift, as they knew they were immediately to enter upon a desperate Action; however, he augmented his Army to near 16000 Men exclusive of the Troops left in Garrison: Having set out from Muflad, by flow Marches he came to a Place called Dangoon, where, posting himfelf advantageously, he waited the Enemy's Arrival. When Ashruff came there, finding Nadir Kuli fo well fituated, he was unwilling to attack him, but was over-ruled in Opinion by his Officers: They told him, that by his declining to come to Action, the Enemy

96 The History of

Enemy would obtain a cheap Victory; as the Country People (on hearing the Afghans were afraid to encounter the Perfians) would rebel, and stop all Provisions from coming to the Army. Afteriff then proposed to march directly to Mushad without attacked Nair Ruli, which being rejected, the Signal was given for Battle. The Event convinced the Afghan Officers of their Error; for attacking them at that Disadvantage gave the Perfians a compleat Victory. The true it cost them dear, having lost above 4000 Men. The Loss sustained by the Afghans was about 12000, among whom were some of their best Officers.

After this Defeat Afteruff retired towards Isfaban, having scarcely a third Part of the Troops he set out with, a great Number of his Men (especially the Persians he had taken into his Service) having deserted after the Battle.

Shab Thamas, who was prefent in this Action, and an Eye-witness to the Conduct and Valour of his General, told him he had nothing to prefent him, worthy his Acceptance, but his own Name, and ordered that, for the future, he should be called Thamas Kult.

Kult * with the Addition of Khan, which fignifies Lord.

Thamas Kuh Khan, (for fo we shall call him until he is elected King) having refreshed his Troops at Damgoun, marched towards Ishahan. The Afghans, on his Approach, quitted several of their Garrisons, and fled towards the Capital, and in some Places the Persians cut them off, declaring openly for Shah Thamas, and fending to Kuli Khan what Supplies of Men and Money they could furnish; fo that, by the Time he arrived at Cashan, which is four Days Journey from Isfaban, his Army confifted of 40000 Horse and Foot. The Afghans laid in great Stores of Provisions, and seemed determined to defend themselves to the last Extremity; but their Leader Afbruff chose to try the Event of another Battle before he fuffered himfelf to bei besieged. Having brought together all the Forces he could muster, which amounted to no more than 30000, confissing of Afghans, Darguzzis, Hazarris, Persians, &c.,

* Thame: Kuli, figurifies Thamas's Slave The greateft Honour a Perfian King can confer on any Subject, is giving him Liberty to make use of his own Name, sitho' it is only to figurify, he is his Slave

he marched out to a Place called Mourcha Khor, which is about thirty English Miles from the City, and encamped there, waiting Khuli Khan's Arrival, which not being so soon as he expected, he had sufficient Time to exercise his Cruelty on the Persians in and about Isfaban: At first, he ordered all the principal Men to be cut off, and afterwards all they could find in the Streets; fo that, for the Space of twenty Days, there was not a Perfian to be feen abroad, none appearing but Women, who came out to buy the common Necessaries of Life. At last, Kuli Khan arrived at Mourcha Kbor, where, engaging the Afghans, he obtained a compleat Victory. Askruff, having lost 7000 Men, retired to Isfaban, where, calling a Council, it was refolved, that all the Inhabitants should be flaughtered; and the Palace and other Houses set on Fire; which being done, they were to march off with all the Effects they could carry with them. Just as they were on the Point of executing this barbarous Refolution, those whom Asbruff had appointed to watch the Motions of Kuli Khan, fent to acquaint him, that the Persian Army was in full March towards the City. Upon which, Albruff

Albruff ordered his Men to come to the Palace and load their Beafts with Money (of which there was a great Quantity) and then follow him, as they could only fave themfelves by Flight. This Order was executed with so much Dispatch, that before two o' Clock in the Afternoon there was scarce an Afghan to be feen in the City. The Perfians, who before lay concealed, came out, and began to plunder all Houses without Distinction; even the Peafants from the Outparts flocked in in great Numbers to have their Share of the Booty, but on the Arrival of 1500 of Thamas Kuli Khan's Troops, all the Rabble disappeared, and the Officers took Possession of the Palace, and placed Guards at the City Gates. The next Day being

November, 1730, he entered Isfahan with his whole Army, and continued there, cloathing his Men, and dividing among them the Plunder recovered from the Inhabitants. It was a Matter of Surprize to most People that he did not pursue the Afghans; but in a few Days afterwards it appeared he had forme private Reasons for it: For, on Shah Thamas's Arrival (which was three Weeks afterwards) he declared that unless his Majesty

o The History of would give him the Power of levying Money in all Parts for the Payment of the Army, he would decline the Command thereof, and return to his own Country, being well affored that the Persons who should be ordered to supply him would be negative gent, and by that Means frustrate all his Defigns. The King was averse to this Propofal, and had Thoughts of removing him, but could fix on no other who was fit to fupply his Place; having founded forne of the principal Officers, he found them of Opinion, that it was better to comply with Kuli Khan's Humour for the present, and thew a proper Refentment of his Infolence when there was less Occasion for his Service; adding, that the Soldiers, at this Juncture, would be unwilling to ferve under any other General. At last, His Majesty consented but with the greatest Reluctancy: For, in giving that Power, he (in Effect) parted with his Crown. He did not even flop here, but heaped more Honours upon him, appointing him Generalissimo and Beglerbeg of Khorasan, and giving him his Aunt in Marriage. After obtaining these Favours he seemed perfeetly zealous for his Mafter's Service; and, in order to convince the World of his Sincerity, would fet out with an Army in the Middle of Winter against the Afghans, who, finding the Persians did not pursue them, when they quitted Isfahan, had taken up their Winter Quarters at Shiraz, and plundered and ravaged that Part of the Country in a harbarous Manner.

102 The HISTORY of

he made a desparate and brave Desence, but being greatly overpowered, he and most of . his Party were cut to Pieces.

Thamas Kuli Khan, having staid about a Month in Shiraz, fet out for Hamadan, in order to recover it, with other Places formerly belonging to the Perfians, which the Turks had feized during the late Troubles. On his Arrival there, Abdallab Bafka came against him with all his Forces, who, being worsted, fled towards Carmanshab: Thamas Kuli purfued him thither, and defeated him a second Time. Having staid a few Days at Carmanskab, and fired a Garrison there, he fet out for Tabriz. As foon as he recovered and fecured that important Place, he detached a strong Party to Ardebil, which the Enemy had quitted on their Approach. The Turks, being thus unfuccefsful, demanded a Truce; which Thamas Kuli granted the more readily. as the Abdollees at Herat rebelled a fecond Time, and had a powerful Army in the Field.

Having fecured, and left fufficient Garrifons in those Places he had lately recovered, he set out for Harat. After descating the Abdollers Army, he laid Siege to the City, which which being a Place of great Strength, held out until Famine obliged them to farrender. He put the Governor and all the principal Men to Death, and having peopled the Place with Perfians, and left a Garrison of his own Then therein, he marched to Muskad.

During this Time, Shah Thamas, who was at Isfaban, finding the Turks were fending Forces from Conftantinople and other Parts towards the Frontiers of Persia, he mised an Army of 20000 Men, and fet out for Tabriz, where, joining the Troops left there by Thamas Kuli, he marched to Erivan, and defeating a Body of Turks, belieged the Castle, but not being able to fupply his Army with Provisions there, he returned to Tabriz, and from thence intended to advance towards Carmanshab, but was prevented by Abmed Bafha, who, coming against him with a superior Army, entirely defeated him. A few Days after this Battle, the Basha fent him Word, he was impowered by the Grand Signior to conclude a Peace with him. King came readily into the Balka's Proposals. which were, that each Party should remain in Possession of what they had then got.

When

When Thamas Kuli Khan was informed of this Peace he was greatly enraged, and wrote to the King and several of the Nobility, acquainting them, he would foon wait on His Majesty, and convince him of the Necessity there was to break this scandalous Peace. Accordingly he fet out with all Speed from Mulkad, and in August, 1732. arrived at Isfaban with his whole Army, which amounted to upwards of 60000, all choice Troops. He waited on the King, and told him, He ought first to make an Example of those who advised him to such dishonourable Meafures, and then carry on the War with Vigour against the Enemy. The King seeming unwilling to break the Peace he had concluded with the Turks, Thamas Kuli Khan told him, he had good Reason to believe most of the Courtiers were his Enemies, and had been endeavouring to prevail with His Majesty to take away his Life. The King asfored him his Informations were not true. Upon which Kuli Khan prefented the King with a Bundle of Letters, telling him, thefe would convince his Majesty, that he had just Ground for his Apprehenfions. After which he took his Leave.

These Letters had been wrote to him privately by several of the Nobility at Court; in which they informed against each other, and acquainted him with their Designs against him. They also let him know what had passed in several Conversations with the King; at the same Time reslecting on his Majesty's Incapacity, and assuring Kuli Khan how much they had his Interest at Heart.

The King was aftonished when he perused these Letters, and finding the Treason too general to be taken any notice of, unless he resolved to cut off the greatest Part of the Nobility, he destroyed the Letters, being deterinined to wait for a more convenient Opportunity of resenting their Villany.

Thamas Kuli Khan, who with his Army lay encamped without the City, waited to know what Effect these Letters would have on the King; but finding he took no Notice of them, he consulted with the Chiefs of his Army, and acquainted them with the Steps he had taken. They agreed with him in Opinion, that the King's Intention was to destroy him and his Friends, and disband the Army; and that the late shameful Peace concluded with the Turks was chiefly with a

Р

View of having more Leifure and Opportunity to accomplish his Designs. Kuli Khan told them, the only Expedient to save them and himself, would be to depose the King, and set up his Son in his Stead; by which Means they should have a fair Pretence of

Means they should have a fair Pretence of making a Rupture with the Otloman Porte: His Officers came readily into this Scheme, which was executed in the following manner, Kuli Khan invited the King to a Review of the Army; he accordingly went, and was exceedingly delighted with the fine Appearance they made, and the Performance of their Exercise, the Merit of which he publickly attributed to the General. As the King was riding thro' the Ranks, some of the Under-officers and Soldiers said aloud, "If your "Majesty has any Commands, we are ready "to execute them." This at first surprized Kuli Khān, but on recovering himself, he, with himself, he was the said th der-ofticers and Soldiers laid aloud, "It your "Majefty has any Commands, we are ready "to execute them." This at first surprized Kuli Khan, but on recovering himself, he, with his usual Presence of Mind, addressed the King, desiring him to tell them they were to obey their General Thamas Kuli Khan, to whom he had given the sole Command of the Army; which his Majesty complied with, and then went to a Banquet which had been prepared for him in the General's neral's Tent. The King having indulged too freely in drinking Wine, (which 'tis supposed was mixed with some introxicating Drug) he fell afleep on his Sofa. The General ordered his own People to carry him to a Seraglio in the Garden of Hazar Jerib. His Majesty's Servants who were then in Waiting, feeming to dispute Kuli Khan's Orders, by telling him, they would take Care of the King, were commanded to withdraw at their Peril; upon which they endeavoured to make their Escape, but were seized by the Guards, and confined.

After Kuli Khan had fecured the King, and placed Guards over him, he returned to his Tent, where most of the General Officers, who had been present at this Scene, were attending. He asked them, what was to be done further with the King? They replied, Nothing more than what is already done! But he foon perfwaded them it would be neceffary to keep him confined in fome remote Part of the Empire: and accordingly three Days afterwards he was fent to Mazandran, attended by a Guard of 6000 Men, among whom were very few Persian Troops, being P 2 chiefly

chiefly Afghans, and others of the Sunni Re-

After feizing the King, he fent a strong Detachment to the City, to take Possession of the Palace, and place Guards at the City Gates, and in some of the principal Streeter Early next Morning he was proclaimed by Beat of Drum, that no Persons, on Pain of Death, should stir out of their Houses: At Noon finding every Thing was quiet and casy, a second Proclamation was made, ordering all People to carry on their Business and several Occupations, and go abroad, as usual.

veral Occupations, and go abroad, as ufual.

The Perfians made feeretly great Lamentations, imagining their King was killed; but being informed he was alive, they flattered themselves with Hopes that the Army would rise in his Defence.

Next Day, after the King, was fent away, Kuli Khan went to the Palace in great Pomp, attended by all the Officers both Civil and Military. He ordered the King's Son to be brought out of the Seraglio, who being then in his Cradle, was placed on the Throne; the Koyal Diadem was put, at the Head, and the Sword and Target fixed to the Side thereof; after after which, with the proper Ceremony, he was declared King, by the Name of Shah Abafs the Third. Kuli Khan first swore Fidelity to him on the Koran, and the rest followed his Example.

NADIR SHAH, 109,

This Mock Ceremony being over, he continued in the Palace until he had appointed proper Officers in the City, and removed those Governors of distant Province whom he did not care to confide in: Afterwards he fet out with his Forces against the Turks, and meeting Ahmed Bafba at the Head of a numerous Army, within a few Days Journey of Bagbdad, he entirely defeated him, and marched towards the City, which he laid close Siege to. The Garrison being very numerous, defended it a long Time, but a terrible Famine raging amongst them, they were on the Point of furrendering, when Topal Othman, Basha Seraskier, and feveral other Balhas came with an Army, which, including Servants, &c. was upwards of 200000 Men. Having advanced near Bagbdad, they obliged Thamas Kult Khan to raife the Siege, and give 'em Battle. The Persian Army, which then confifted of 120000 Men, charged fo furiously. and feconded their Attacks with fo much Vigour, gour, that the Turks were on the Point of giving Way, when Kuli Khar's Horse was shot under him. Having fought some Time on Foot, before he could get re-mounted, his Standard-bearer concluded he was killed, his Standard-bearer concluded he was killed, and rode off with the Colours. This alarm'd the whole Army, who instantly faced about and sled; Kuli Khan endeavoured to rally them, but to no Purpose; the Turks purfining with great Fury, made a terrible Slaughter of them: The Persians lost in this Action upwards of 60000 Men, and the Turks nigh as many.

This Defeat would have discouraged any but Kuli Khan, who had a Soul superior to all Misfortunes. He stopped at Hamadan, where in a few Days most of the Troops who were dispersed joined him. He told them he had certain Intelligence the Turks had given over Pursuit, and had divided their vast Army into lesser Parties, for the Convenience of foraging and getting Provisions, of which they were in great Want: He was determined to go and attack 'em one Party after another, and either conquer or die, since after what had been already done they could expect no Mercy from their Country, to which they must, must never return but in Triumph: And should they give the Turks any Time to refresh and unite their Troops, they would certainly be an Over-match for them. His Officers being entirely of the same Opinion, he marched back with great Expedition, and fell upon the first Party of the Turks, who, imagining him to be at a great Distance, were not prepared to receive him. Having successively beat three considerable Bodies of them, he at last encountered Topal Othman Basha, at the Head of 60,000 Men, who being shot in the Beginning of the Action, his whole Army was soon routed, and put to Flight.

Since this Battle the Turks have not appeared in the Field against him, but suffered him for two Years successively to take one Place after another, some by Storm, and others by Capitulation, till he had recovered all the Territories they had seized during the late Troubles.

This unexpected Success had greatly raised his Reputation, and Volunteers came from all Quarters to offer him their Service. Having compleated a choice Army, he marched a fecond Time to besiege Baghdad.

When

When the Siege was pretty far advanced, he received News, that Mahommed Khan Bulluche, one of his Generals, had rebelled, and proclaimed Shah Thamas King; that he had taken the City of Shiraz, and had an Army of 30000 Men, which increased daily: Whereupon Kuli Khan immediately raised the Siege, and marching with all Expedition against the Rebels, was upon them when they least expected him. Upon the first Report of his Troops being near, they marched out to attack them, imagining it was only a fmall Detachment under the Command of one of his Officers, but they had not advanced above 20 Miles before they met him at the Head of his Van-Guard, which confifted of 12000 Men. Mahommed Khan Balluche being overjoyed to find him attended by so few, told his Officers, that Fortune had delivered Thamas Kuli Khan into their Hands; that they might eafily defeat him; before he could have any Succours, as his main Army was a Days Journey behind: But when they approached each other, and heard Kuh Khan thundering out his Orders, they were ftruck with fuch a Panick, that they fled, without fustaining his first. Attack-

Attack. Mahommed Khan Balluche, who was personally brave, having singled out Kuli Khan, rode full Speed towards him; being repulsed, he fought his Way back again, and intended to make his Escape, by croffing the Gulf of Perfia in an Arab Veffel; but those treacherous People seized him, and, in hopes of a Reward, carried him to Thamas Kuli Khan, who fent him to Prison, in order to force him into a Confession of his Accomplices, and what Treasure and Effects he had. In this he was disappointed, for the Moment Mahommed Khan Ballucke was left alone, he hanged himself. They could find no Papers that gave any Account of the Perfons he corresponded with, or where his Effects (which were very confiderable) had been deposited. Thus ended this brave Man, who was defervedly efteemed for feveral good Qualities; he was as great (tho' not fo fortunate) a Soldier, as any in the East, and judged to be the best Horseman in Persia.

Thamas Kuli Khan Staid a few Days in Shiraz, being employed in putting to Death fome of the principal Persons concerned in the Rebellion, and feizing their Effects. He afterwards returned to Isfahan, where fettling fome fome Affairs, he fet out for Georgia, and took the Capital Teffis by Storm, upon which the whole Country fubmitted to him; from thence he marched to Erroan, the Capital of An mema, which having recovered, he afterwards took Shamakhi by Capitulation, and Ganjan by Storm. In the mean Time, hefent a Messenger to the Russians to defire them to relinguish Gilan and the Silk Countries, according to their Promise, otherwise he should be obliged to pay them a Visit, as they had no Inchnation to enter into a War with him, they evacuated all the Places on this Side the Cafpian Sea, except Derbend and Bachu, which he had given up to them. Upon this he concluded a firm Peace with them, and not long after made a Peace with the Turks.

114 The History of

Having thus fettled Affairs in Regard to those two Powers, he sent a general Edict to all the Rulers of Provinces, Chiefs of Tribes, and Governors of Cities and Towns, commanding them to meet him on a certain Day in the Plains of Chul Megbam, on Pain of high Displeasure. At the Time appointed they appeared, to the Number of 6000 and upwards, at the faid Place, where they found him encamp'd with an Army of 150000.

Men.

Men. Thamas Kuli Khan ordering them to appear before him, he told them, the Reafon of calling them together was to acquaint them that he had now fubdued all the Enemies of the Persian Empire, except the Kandahar Afghans, whom he was determined to march against very soon; that, after he had reduced them to Obedience, he intended to retire, and end the Remainder of his Days in Peace and Tranquility, unless his Country should again require his Service; that he had made Peace with the Turks and Muscowites, and chastifed the Tartars, and other Enemies on the Frontiers, in fuch a Manner, that (in all Probability) they would remain quiet for a long Time, fo that it only remained with them to elect a King, either Shah Thamas ! their late Sovereign, or any other whom they judged the most capable; adding that he expected their Answer in three Days. After this he retired to his Tent, and give Orders that the faid Affembly should be entertained at the public Expence, during their Stay in the Camp. In the mean Time, Kuli Khan's Creatures took Care to intimate to the principal Persons, that they ought to compliment their Regent and General with an Offer of the Crown, tho' at the fame Time, they were certain he would not accept of it. When the Time was expired, they waited on him with an Address, in which, after setting forth the fignal Services he had done to his Country, they begg'd he would accept of the Crown and take the Charge of the Empire upon him, and that they (as faithful Subjects) would affift him on all Occasions with their Lives and Fortunes. Thamas Kuli Khan told them, that he thank'd them for the Honour they had done him, which was contrary to his Intention in calling them together, yet as he look'd upon the Voice of the People to be the Voice of God, he must fubriit to the Cares of a Crown, and facrifice his own Ease to the public Good, not doubting but (by the Bleffing of the Almighty, and their unanimous Concurrence) he fhould raise the Persian Nation to as great a Pitch of Glory as any of their former Kings had done. And, in order to fet out right, and have a perfect Understanding with them, he should require three Things to be folemnly confirmed by them:

116 The History of

I. That they thould make the Crown Hereditary to his Heirs for ever.

II. That

NADIR SHAH. 11%

II. That no one, on Pain of Death, and Confifcation of Effects, should presume to take up Arms in Favour of the late Royal Family, or any Branch thereof, on any Pretence whatever, nor so much as mention any Tling tending to Rebellion.

111. That, as great Disturbances and Mischiess had always arose between them and their Neighbours, the Turks, Indians, and Tartars, on Account of the Difference of Religion, he desired a Number of the Religious of both Sects might assemble to confider of, and resolve upon, an Uniformity; adding, that as the Points in which the Starnis and Schias* differed were not very effending

* The Sunnis are those Mahammedans, who acknowledge as lawful the Succession of Muhukk, Aumas, Othman, and Ais, and receive the Koran and Mahammed's Traditions in the Sense they are expounded by their four great Doctors, Abul Hamsa, Malek, Shass, and Hambal.

The Schuat are they who dispute the Lawfulness of the Succession of Ababackt, Aumar, and Othman, and maintain that Mortifa Ali (according to the Prophet's Will) ought immediately to succeed him. They pay no Regard to the Opinions of the abovementioned Dockors, but are entirely guided by their own Imáms.

tial,

tial, he was of Opinion an Accommodation might be easily effected.

The Grandees came readily into the two first Articles, but as to the last they defired he would first hear what the Mullab Bashi (or High-Priest) had to offer on that Head before they should subscribe to it. Accordingly the High-Prieft addressed him, and said, As to Matters of Religion we have the Law of God, and the Traditions of his Proe pliet Mahammed to direct us, it is not for Princes to make Innovations therein; and therefore I humbly hope your Majesty will not begin your Reign with attempting to overthrow the Established Religion, as a 'Step of that Nature must be attended with ' dangerous Consequences.' Then Kuli Khan immediately ordered him to be strangled, to prevent the People from attempting to fecond his Discourse, which they would certainly have done, if this fudden Execution has not detered them from it. He then asked the People whether they would fubferibe, and take Oaths to what he had propofed; which they tamely and readily fubmitted to. The next Day, being March 1735-6. he was proclaimed Emperor of Perfia, by the Name of Nadur Shah, on which Occasion Coins, with a pompous Inscription *, were struck in his Name.

Having

* On Nadir Shah's being proclaimed King, Coins were struck in his Name with the following Inscription.

> سکه بر زر کرد نام سلطنت در حهان نادر بران مهمی و خسرو کبنی سان

Sicca bir Zir Curd nam é Sultanit dir Jehan Nadir é Irân Zemmi v' Khofro é Geti Setan,

Which figurfies,

Coins and Money have proclaimed through the Earth, the Reign of Nadir of Persian Soil, and the Ling will a conquers the World.

On the Reverse in a Cypher, الحبر قبها وبع Al Kher fi ma vackes.

Which fignifies,
What has happened is best.

The Numerical Letters of the faid Motto, make up 1148 the Year he usury'd the Crown.

Dr Mead has one of thele, with two other different Coins, which have been fireck in Nadir Shah's Name

Having entertained the Affembly in a grand Manner, for the Space of three Days, he difmiffed them with Prefents, and treated them all with great Civility, excepting the Priefts, who he found were commenced his

One of which has "I Al Sultan Nadir, The Sultan Nadir, on one Side; and on the Reverle, stability of the Sultan Nadir, on one Side; and son the Reverle, that Stability of the S

The other, which was struck in India, after his Victory at Karnal, has on one Side.

> هست سلطان بر سلاطین جہان شاہ شاهان نادر صاحب قرآن

Hist Sultan, bir Salatin Jehan Shab é Shahan Nadir Shaheb é Kéran.

Which is to fay,

Nadir, the Master of Fortune, and King of Kings, is the most powerful of the Princes of the Earth.

On the Reverse,

خُلد الله ملك ضرب في احمداياد ١١٥٢ Khould Allah Mulick bi. Zirb fi Ahmedahad, 1152.

Which fignifies,

May God perpetuate bis Reign. Struck at Ahmedabad in 1152.

bitter

bitter Enemies, for cutting off the Mullab Balhi, and for the Alteration they found he was determined to make in Religion; but, in order to prevent their being able to do him any Injury, he fent for the Chiefs of them. and ask'd in what Manner they employed the vast Revenues they had. The told him, that they apply'd them to the religious Pur--poses for which they were intended, such as Salaries for Priests, the Maintenance of Colleges, and a great Number of Mosques, in which Prayers were daily and hourly offered up for Success to the Arms of their Prince. and Prosperity to the Empire of Persia. He told them, that by Experience it was evident their Prayers had not been heard, fince for fifty Years past the Nation has been on the Decline, and at last almost ruined by Invafions and Rebellions, until God's victorious Instruments (meaning his Army) had come to its Relief, who were now ready to facrifice their Lives for the Defence and Glory thereof; that these poor Priests (pointing to his Soldiers) were in Want, and must be supply'd by fome Means or other; that therefore it was his Royal Pleasure, that the greatest Part of the Church Lands and Revenues should R he be confiscated and appropriated towards paying the Army, which was accordingly done, and by an exact Computation found to amount to near 1,000,000 Tomans, which is about 3,000,000 l per Annum The Priests were highly enraged at this Treatment, and did all they could to fur up the Army and People against him, the former, being above half Sunnis, only laughed at them, and the latter, when they confidered that by this they were to be eafed of a Part of the Taxes, were not diffatisfy d with it After this Kuli Khan fent for the Chiefs of the People, and, acquainting them with what he had done, told them, if they wanted Priests, they must provide them at their own Expence, that, for his Part, having little Occasion for any, he would be at no Charge about them then published an Edict (of which the following is a literal Translation) ordering all his Subjects to conform to the Sunni Religion, on Pain of his Royal Displeasure

A Translation + of Nadir Shah's Edict for an Uniformity of Religion between the Schias and Sunnis.

LL in high Stations, the Sedr*
of great Power, the Governor, Ministers of the Law, and learned Men of the Royal Residence of Issahan, being exalted thro' the King's Favour, K N O W, That while the abode of our Ensigns (on whom Victory attends) was at Sebrai Mogham ‡. It was agreed at several Meetings, that from henceforth, according to ancient Custom (being fix'd and establish-

+ This Edict is translated from a Copy in the Original Perfic, which Dr. Mead was pleased to favour me with

 The Stdr is a Person of great Authority in the Empire, who has the absolute Management of Church Lands, and what Revenues are appropriated towards the maintaining of public Schools, Salaries to Learned Men, and other pious Uses.

The fame as Chult Mogham.

124 " ed in the Religion of Hanifa | and Jaffer &, " as transmitted to us by our Predecessors) " we do acknowledge the + directing Khalifs " (in all whom the high God is pleafed) as " the Successors of the Chief of Messengers "; "and whenever they prefent themselves, " mention the Names of each of the Four "with great Respect. Moreover, in some " Places of these Kingdoms, at the Time " of calling to Prayers, and standing up at " Prayer, they mention these Words, Ale " the Friend of Gon t, according to the

Hanifa, one of the four great Doctors, fo famous for expounding the Mabommedan Law.

§ Jaffer, one of the Imams, whose Opinion in fereral Points the Sunnis themselves pay the greatest Regard to Thulfa Rafebedenn, the directing خلفا واشدى Khal fs, by which are always meant Abubucker, Aumar, Othman, and Als.

* By the Chief of Meffengers is meant Mahoniried.

1 All de Als vulls Allab, or A the Friend of God, is always annexed by the Schias to their Kelmah in this Manner.

لا اله الا الله محمد رّسول الله وعلى ولى الله

La Ilab il Allab, Mahommed Rafoul Allah v'Ali Vulle Allah Which is Interally, There is no God but God, and Mahommed the Prophet of God, and Ale the Friend of God

" ufual

" usual Method of the Schias, and contrary " to those who are Orthodox. This is repug-"nant to Religion, and contrary to the "Agreement and Covenant enter'd into. " Besides, it is evident to the World, that " as the Prince of the Faithful, the Lyon " of Gop, the Victorious ||, is elect, prais'd " and acceptable to the Lord of Glory, his "Rank and Interest at the Court of Unity " will not be increased by vulgar Testimony, " nor the full Moon of his Power be di-" minushed by omitting these Words. The "ill Consequence of this Form is, that both seeds $, who equally acknowledge the " Chief and Prophet tof both Worlds, will " by this Difference be provoked to Animo-" fities, which are disagreeable both to the " Prophet and to the Prince of the Faithful *. "Wherefore, as foon as the Purport of this

الموسنت الموسنت المسائلة الموسنت المسائلة المسا

§ The Sunnis and Schias.

+ Maborared.

* Mortifa Ali.

" high Edict is known, let it be fignified to " all Mussulmen, High and Low, Great and " Small, the Callers to Prayer in the City, " its Dependencies, and the adjacent Coun-"tries, That from this Day henceforth, " these Words, as differing from the Ortho-"dox Cuftom, be not mentioned. It is " also usual with the Governors in their " Affemblies, after Fattaba and Tokbîr 1, to " fay, May the King from whom all our " Fortune flows, live for ever. As a Tokbir " for perpetuating a mortal Man is vain, and " of no Effect, I expresly order that every " Khan who is a Master of a Tabal | and En-" fign, fay it in this Manner, Thanks to the " true King for all Benefits. From hence-" forward all Persons must observe these 44 fettled Regulations, and written Or-" ders: For, whofoever deviates therefrom, " will incur the Displeasure of the King

‡ Fattaha is a prefatory Prayer, which is generally the first Serra or Chapter of the Keran. Tekbir is repeating three times these Words, Allah Akbah, which is to say, Goo is Greatest, before the Kelmah above mentioned.

I Tabal is a Imali Drum, which General Officers have fixed to their Saddles.

" of Kings. Written in the Month Safer, "1149*."

This Edict was received with great Joy by Numbers of his Subjects, as many being fecrety of that Perfivation, as of the Schia established Religion; it was particularly agreeable to his Soldiers, who being chiefly Sunnis, became thereby the more attach'd to him. However impolitic these Steps might have seem'd at first, yet it was the only Method he could have thought of in order to establish himself and his Heirs on the Throne of Persia; besides the Advantages it already has and may still give him in his suture Designs on his Neighbours, who are of the same Religion which he has now established in Persia.

Shortly after he was elected and proclaimed King, he went to the City of Kazwin (or Kaibin) where the Ceremony of Inauguration of the Perfian Monarchs is performed. Having girt on the Royal Scymitar, and put the Imperial Crown on his Head, he took the usual Oath, which is, To govern the People according to the Laws of God, as 1evealed by bis Prophet Mahommed, and protest and defend them against all their Enemies. After this, he marched with his Army to Isfahan, where he continued some Time, making Preparations for his Expedition to Kandabar. During his Stay there, he received the Compliments of the neighbouring Powers: The Grand Signior and Mogbol acknowledged him as Emperor of Persia, and at the fame time congratulated him on having established the true Orthodox Religion in his Empire, and discouraged the former Herefy. In December, 1736, Nadir Shab fet out from Isfaban, with an Army of upwards of 80000, chiefly Horfe, and marched towards Kandabar, by the Way of Carmania, and was shortly after followed by Thamas Khan Vakeel with about 40000 more.

* June 1736,

What happened after this, the Gentleman who favoured me with the above Memoirs is a Stranger to; excepting that on his Departure from Persia to India, which was in February, 1736-7, he heard Nadir Shah had hesteged Kandahar. His Transations since that Time, I shall continue as translated from some Persic Manuscripts, Manuscripts, which I have mentioned in the Preface.

The same Gentleman has also favoured me with a personal Description and Character of this great Heroe, which I skall reserve for the Conclusion of these Sheets.

Nadir Shab, having fecurely established himself, and settled his Affairs in Persia, he left his Son Reza Kulı Mirza to command there, and fet out with his Army towards Kandahar. Hoffein Khan, the Governor thereof, having laid up great Stores of Provisions and Ammunition, held out for 18 Months; at last, being reduced to Straits, he fallied out with his Men, most of whom died bravely fighting. Hoffein Khan and his Son being taken Prisoners, the Persians entered the Caftle, and took Possession thereof.

While Nadir Shah was bufy in fecuring and fortifying Kandabar, and bringing over to him the Zemidars of those Parts, Letters came from Nizam al Muluck and Saadit Khan. inviting him to march towards Hindoftan. In Answer to which, he objected the Difficulties of getting thro' the Defiles, paffing the great Rivers, and the many Encounters he S must 130 must expect to have with the Afgbans, and the warlike Nations of those Parts, the Opposition he must expect from Nasir Khan, Soubabdar of Cabul, and Zekaria Kban -Ruler of Labor; and, last of all (should his Fortune furmount all these) his Fate will depend on his Success against a powerful Imperial Army. They foon fatisfied him how unnecessary his Fears were, and that, before he crofs'd the Attok*, he should have a Proof how able they were, and how much inclined to facilitate his Paffage. Being encouraged by those Representations, he set out with an Army of 125,000 Horle, Kuzzlebaft, Georgians, Turks, Khorafanis, Balkhis, &c. all inured to Fatigues and Hardships; they were well provided for this Expedition, and greatly encouraged thereto by the Hopes he gave them, of not only enriching themselves, but bringing Wealth and Glory to their impoverished Country, by the Plunder of India. In the mean Time, Nizam al Muluck and Saadit Khan used all their Endeavours secretly to promote his Interest, and wrote to Sherzib Khan +, Governor of the Castle of Cabul. and Nagir Khan, Soubabdar of that Province (who was a Creature of Khandoran's) as also to Zekarra Khan, Ruler of the Province of Labor, to this Purport 'Nadir Shah, being thoroughly informed of the State of Affairs in India, and that his Imperial Maselty and favourite Courtiers employ their 'Time in Wine and Women, has come to a Refolution to finke a Blow at this Emone. You well know that none of the great Ones here are fit to take the Field. "much less to resist a Man who is conducted by Fortune As this is the Case, you can have little Hopes of Affiftance from hence, the best you can do will be to behave discreetly, and fave yourselves' These Letters cooled them pretty much, and had

* Attak is the Name of a River, that separates the Province of Labor from Peifter. There is but one Place where an Army can be conveniently transported, the Stream being fo rapid in most Parts. There is a Cafile commanding that Paffage, called the Caffle of Attok.

† 'Tis customary in India to have two Governors, one to command the City, and another to command the Caftle The latter is generally for Life, and he must never flir out of the Caffle, unless he is turned out by the Mogbal The Governor of the City is called _____ Hakem, and he who commands the Caftle is called the defired Effect with Naçir Khan and Ze-

132 The History of

Nadir Shab, having subdued Ghorbund and Gloznam, and garrifon'd them with his own People, came to Cabul and befreged it. Naçır Khan (before hıs Arrival) had left it, and marched to Peiffor; but Sherzib Khan defended both the City and Castle for 6 Weeks with the utmost Bravery, and wrote repeatedly to Naçır Aban, and to Court for Affistance; but none coming, both City and Castle were at last taken by Storm, and he and his Son were put to Death. Nadir Shah found Treasure, Jewels, Arms, &c. to a great Value, which, fince the Great Mogbol Babr's Time, had been thut up in Vaults? When the Taking of Cabul was known at Court, the Emperor gave Orders to get his Troops in Readiness, and provide all Things necessary for taking the Field. As Rajab Jessing was more attached to Khandoran than to any of the other Omras, he repeatedly wrote to him to this Purport: ' Nadir Shab's Coming is a concerted Thing. You must be watchful over the Mogbol Omras ‡, who feem to be united in order to compass fome treacherous Design. Nagir Khan and Sherzib Khan have always been supported by the Court; one has facrificed his Life to its Interest, and the other (asraid of his Life) has sted to Pershor. If Zekaria Khan, a Ruler of Labor, makes any Opposition, it will give the Emperor's Army Time to advance pretty sar, in order to check this Invader; as for us Raspouts we are ready to join the Royal Ensigns.

Rhandoran knowing him to be well-affected, represented this to the Emperor, and told him, it would be very imprudent in him to leave the Capital, and take the Field: However, it was at last agreed, that the Army should march to Labor, that the Emperor should accompany it so far, and that from thence it should proceed towards Cabul, under the Command of Nizam al Muluck, and the other two Omras; for which Purpose, † By the Moghel Omras, he means those of Tartar and Persian Families, whom the Indians, without Distinction, call Moghels.

the Peishkbanna * was ordered out to the Gardens of Shalimar; but after it was fent thither, to every Body's Surprize, Khandoran came back to the Palace, and delayed the March, whereas Nizam feemed to be for haftening it all in his Power. The Emperor's Servants, who knew Kbandoran to be attached to their Mafter, contrived all the Impediments they could think of, so that Nadir Shab had not only Time to secure Cabul, but was far advanced in his March to Peifbor +. where the Afghans and Mountaineers very much incommoded him, and kept him in Play for Seven Weeks; in which Time he had a great many Men wounded and killed. Seeing there was no forcing the Paffes, without much Bloodshed, and that the Afghans had fortified themselves on the Tops of the Hills; he fent them Offers of Accommodation; which they came into the more readily; as the Soubabdars had fent no Affiftance; and that they had been four or five Years without receiving any of their usual Allowance t from Court: Upon Nadir Shab's paying them a certain Sum of Money, they not only let him pass unmolested, but several of them lusted in his Army; the other Afghans hearing of this, followed their Example. So, leaving the main Army behind, with 10,000 chosen Horse of Kuzzlebash |, in seven Days he got to Peistor. Naçir Khan, who with 7000 Horse had incamped without the City, not imagining he could get through the Passes so foon, upon hearing of his Approach with to large a Body of Horfe, was greatly perplexed; feveral of his Auxiliaries lest him, and few besides the King's Men stood by him. who, after a brave Refultance, were defeated,

* Peifithanna fignifies the Tents, &c. that are fent before to the Place where the Prince, or General Officer, defigns to half, or encamp.

† Peifter is 202 meafured Cofs from Dehli, 97 from Labor, and 35 from Attel.

‡ As the Revenues of those mountainous Parts and the Passes, are not sufficient to maintain a requisite Number of Troops for the Desence thereof, there was a certain Sum appointed to be yearly remitted thither, which of late had been neglected.

לענונים Kuzzlebaßh, are an Order of Soldiers among the Persians, as the Januzarier (or more properly Ingecheria) among the Turks It signifies, in the Turks Language, Red Heads, to called from the Red Caps they wore when first instituted by bleks Hodr, the Father of Shab Ismael first Kung of the Seffi Family.

136 The History of

and Naçır Khan taken Prisoner. Some Afglans who, waiting the Event, were posted on the Hills, feeing Nadir Shah prevail, came and offered him their Service. After this Victory, he entered Peiffor and took Possession thereof. When the News of this Defeat came to Court, Nizarh al Muluck, Khandoran, Kummir o din Khan, and the other Omras, according to the King's Order. on the fecond of January, 1738-9, marched out with a numerous Army, a large Train of Artillery, and other warlske Necessaries, in order to oppose this Conqueror, and halted at the Gardens of Shalimar Nizam, who was the Contriver of this Storm, endeavoured all he could to prepoffefs the Minds of the Soldiers with a Terror of Nadir Shab's Forces, and how vain it was to refift him, and, at the fame Time, amused them to divert their going too far forward But the King iffued out Orders, that Nizam and the other Omras should advance with all Expedition, he lumfelf intending to follow foon after them Nizam al Muluck, and the rest, according to these Orders, marched on, and encamped in the Plans of Larnal, which is Fufty-Five Cofs Coss * distant from Debli. The Emperor also set out the 18 of January, 1738-9, and on the 4th of February joined them.

Nadir Shah having secured Peishor, and croffed the Attok, marched directly towards Labor: Zekaria Khan, Soubahdar thereof, had (to Appearance) fortified the Place in the best Manner possible, and having entrenched himfelf without, feemed eager to engage the Enemy, but as foon as Nadir Shab's Troops came within Sight of the Intrenchments (having had his Lesson from Nizam al Muluck) at a Signal given, he and all his Forces retreated to the Castle, from whence they cannonaded the Persians three Days, after which, having capitulated, one of the Conditions being, that the City should be spared, a Thousand Kuzzlebash took posfession of the Castle, and Nadir Shah having flaid one Week in the Gardens called Shalimar + of that City, he, with his whole Army, by continued Marches, arrived at the Village Tillauvri, which is near Karnal.

* The Cois mentioned here are thort computed ones, this Place being no more than 26 measured Cois from Dehli.

† There are Gardens at Labir also called Shalimar, as well as at Debli.

Before I begin with the Journal of Nadir Shah's Transactions, after his Arrivalat Kannal, Islall trouble the Reader with Transactions of some genuine Letters, which having been wrote before the Persian Army crossed the Attock, I thought this the propency Place for inserting them.

A Translation of a Letter from Nadir Shah to Mahummed Shah, received the Begining of Jumadı al avulı 151, which is about the middle of August.

BE it clear to the enlightened Mind of your high Majesty, that my coming to Cabul, and possessing myself thereof, was purely out of Zeal for Islam*, and Friendfhip for you. I never could have imagined, that the Wretches + of Deccan should ' impose a Tribute on the Dominions of the 'King of Mussulmen. My Stay on this side the Attock is with a View, that, when these

· Infidels

* By Islam (which literally figuifies Safety) is meant the Mahammedan Religion.

† The Maharattat of Ganims.

Infidels move towards Hindestan ‡, I may fend an Army of the victorious Kuzzalebash to drive them to the Abys of Hell. Hiftory || is full of the Friendship that has fubfished between our Kings, and your Majesty's Predecessors. By Ali Mortifa,

I swear, that (excepting friendship, and a ' Concern for Religion) I neither had, nor have any other views; if you suspect the have any other views; if you fulpect the contrary you may; I always was, and will be a Friend to your illustrious House.

About the latter End of August, an Embassador came with another letter, demanding four Crores of Rupees (5,000,0001.) and four Souhahs or Provinces.

‡ The Province of Dehls, in particular, is called by this Name; but it is generally used to fignify the whole Empire.

| Vide Tarikh Alum Arai by Secander Beg in the Life of Shah Thamar, and the first Volume of Akhar Nama in the Life of Hemaiin.

The History of 140

A Translation of some Paragraphs of a Letter wrote by a Kuzzlebash in Nadir Shah's Camp, at Jillalabad, to a Friend of his at

Dehli, concerning Nadır Shah, HE has 36,000 Horsemen with him-felf; Kassum Beg Khan is Nazem

' Munazem, Mother al Muluck, and Aif-

" mad al Dowlat *, the Son of Maurli, is ' Arrizbegi +. Questions and Answers are

- entirely managed by these two, and besides
- them, none have the Power of preferring
- Petitions, or representing any Thing to him;
- of the above Army 1000 Horse Hajee " Basha's, called also Niquibs ‡, and 1000 are
- Shamkhi ||, and 1000 are Chaux S, who go
- before, crying out, Victory to the King of
- ' Kings; 1000 Horse his special Guards, and
  - * Nazem Munazem, the Orderer of what is to be ranged or put in Order, Mother al Muluck, Trustworthy of the Kingdom'; Aitmad al Dowlat, the Security of Fortune , these are the Titles of Koffum Beg Khan, who was Vizir.
    - + Arrizheet is the Person who presents all Petitions: either written, or by Word of Mouth
      - $ Niquibs are much the fame as Corporals.
        - || So called from the Place they come from.

' 1000 Horse his Jeloudar*, who alight and 'march on Foot close by his Person, but in Fight none of them attend him. Who-ever runs away, or turns his Back, is ordered to be cut off.

$ 2000 Horse are detached with Haire Beg Khan, a Courd +, who is General. At ' present we are arrived at Peisbor to fight Navob + Nacir Khan : 1000 Horsemen of his own People are along with Juan Kuli Beg Baffi and 2000 Oufbeg Horsemen from Gunib, 2000 Horse Rijee, 2000 Horse of the Turcomans, and 1000 Horse Kuzzleball, are under the Command of Sirdar Beg Afshar; 4000 Afghan Horse with Sef Khan and Shahin Khan, the Officers of * Hoffein Khan, Governor of Kandahar, and ' 12000 Horse are lately arrived with Nadir " Kuli's Son from Balkb, of which 1 500 are fent back, and the rest kept. There are

page. + Courd, a Native of Courdiflan.

4000

* Jeloudar fignifies, belonging to his Train or Equi-

† Navob is a Title frequently given to the Omrai in India, denied from the Worl Navb, Deputy, lignifying that they are the King's Vicegerents. In Perfacting given, among their other Titles, to the Wives, Sons, and Daughters of the Royal Family.

4000 Shop-keepers, Musiulmen, who trade with the Shab's * Money, he standing to the loss, if any happens.

' After Morning Prayers, he fits on a ' Throne, the Canopy of which is in the ' Form of a Dome, and of Gold; 1600 Young Men with Royal Standards of Red Silk, and the Lance Tops and Taffels of ' Silver, are disposed regularly, and at a proe per Distance; 500 beautiful Slaves, from 12 to 20 Years old, stand one half on his right Hand, and the other on his left; all the great Men stand fronting him, and the · Arrizbegi stands between in a Readiness to represent whatever he is defired, and every ' Body has his Caufe decided at once; Bribery is not fo much as known here. He has ' particular information given him of every ' Thing that passes; all Criminals, Great and Small, Rich and Poor, meet with im-' mediate Death. He fits till Noon, after ' which he dines, and then repofes a little; ' when Afternoon-Prayers are over, he fits ' till the evening Prayers, and when they are over, he shoots five Arrows into the Khak over and then goes into the Womens Apartments.

* Nader Shob.

A Translation of a Letter wrote by Sirbullind Khan's Secretary at Dehli, to Mirza Moghol, Son to Ali Mahommed Khan, at Ahmedabad, dated the 15th of Shaval, 1151 +, and received the 6th of Zeccadih, 1151 +. It is a true Account of the State of Affairs at Dehli, and the Reports deat were Current there before Nadir Shah's Irrival.

NADIR SHAH's coming has been talked of these eight Months past.
He came to Khandahar, and from thence * Khok Troudo is a Heap of fine Mold, well fifted, and beat firongly in betwirk two Stone Walls. 'Tis five Foot high, three Foot thick, and from three to four Foot broad. The Front of it very fmooth and even, beat hard with a heavy Trowel. One who is well skilled, can fhoot his Arrow into it quite to the Head; whereas one that fhoots ill (be he never fo ftrong) can't put a third Part in, 'The Arrows for this Exercise have the Iron Part quite round, about four Fingers long, of the Size of the Reed, until near the Point, where they are fomewhat thicker, from which Part they taper gradually to a fharp point. The Length, from the thickeft Part to the Point, is from \( \frac{1}{2} \) to Incb.

† 15 January 1738-9. 1 5 February 1738-9.

to Cabul, which is the Limits of Hind *. of which he took Poffession; from thence ' he fent an Emhaffador to Mahommed Shah.

When we heard here of the Embassador's coming, and Cabul being taken Poffession of, which was in the Month + Ribby al ' avul. The Emperor's Peifhkbanna was fent out for an Expedition against Nadir Shab; which on Account of the Disharmony of the Omras, was kept in Suspence. About forty Lacks 1 by Bills at different Times were remitted to Navob Nigir Khan, Soubabdar of Peisbor, that he, joining with the · Afghans of that Quarter, might make Head against Nadir Sbab; the said Navob enlisted ' Men, and prepared to fight, expecting to ' be fupported by an Army from Shabjebana-' bad; notwithstanding which, until Rijub s, onothing was put in Execution. Nadir Shah ' at Cabul cultivated a Friendship with the · Zemidars of that Quarter, and hrought over to his Side the Tribe of the Safis, who are famous in those Parts. There were fe-' veral Messages passed and repassed between ' him and Naçir Khan, to whom no Affif-

* Hind, the same as Hindostan. † June 1738. $ 500,000 L. & Odiber 1738.

" tance

146 The History of already croffed the Ganges in his Way to Court, but was ordered to go back again; which he did. The Omras have been divided in Opinion and Interest a long Time; for which Reason several unbecoming with sages now passed between them. The Emperor, who confulted Khandoran's Eafe and Pleasure, ordered Nizam al Mulcick and the Vizir to leave him at Court, and they to go on with the Expedition; but they excused themselves. In the plean Time,

News was brought, that Nadir Shab (by Nagir Khan's Advice) had put on the Indian Dress, and fat on the Throne in the Manner of the Indian Emperors, and that his Forces had croffed the Attock, and were on their March to Laber. On this News the Emperor was quite confounded, and, fending for the Superintendant of the Boats, fending for the Superintendant of the Boats, asked him how many Days it would take to go by Water to Patna or Kassi Benaris.

to go by Water to Paina or Kalji Benaris ||.
 It being told the Vizir and Nizam al Mu-luck, that the Emperor had fuch a Defign, they petition'd him, that the E Slaves (meaning themselves) might not go upon the Ex-A city in the Province of Alebahad, famous for the Iraken Worthip, and their Colleges there.

c pedition

* peditious in fuccouring me, lest Things should * be past Remedy

' Ieminabad, which is a confiderable Place, and fubordinate to Labor, was under Kul-' linder Khan, one of Zekaria Khan s Giruei. with a Body of 10000 Horse Emir Khari, one of Naçır Khan s Dependants, who how ' had fubmitted to Nadir Shah, with his own ' People and feveral Kuzzlebafh, made an Attack by Night on the faid Place, in ' which Kullinder Khan we killed, and ' Emir Khan possessed himself of the Place " Nadir Shah s Munaddi * being beat about, and his Government acknowledged there: ' Upon hearing of this, Zekaria Khan, who had advanced 10 Coss from Labor, with an Army of 20,000 Horse, retired into the City Upon which News here, on the ' oth of Shaval+, Khanderan Nizam al Mu-' luck, and Kummir o din Khan, marched on 10 Cofs, and the next Day 10 Cofs ' more, and fo on, that they are now at ' Sonput, and Nadir Shah is yet in Peishor'

P S Corn produgious dear, the People distracted

* A fmall Drum that is beat about to notify or proclaim any Thing

+ January 9, 1738 9

N the 12th of Zeccadib §, the Royal Camp *, in Orenic about feven Cois, was pitched in the Fields of Karnal, it was furrounded with Mourchas †, on which were mounted near 5000 Carriage Guns, belonging to the Emperor and the Omras. In the Centre was the Emperor himfelf, and fronting him were Nizam al Muluck's and Saad o'din Khan's Mourchas, on which were mounted the Emperor's own Ordnance, attended hy the Train belonging thereto: On the right Hand were Khandoran, Mazuffer Khan, Ali Hamed Khan, Mir Gullou, Shebdad Khan,

§ February 11, 1738 9

* The great Maghel's Camp

<sup>1</sup> Meurcha fignifies Barreadats, but generally the Intrenchmen's and Breaft-works about a Camp, or any other Post.

13th + fome Kuzzlebash Horsemen appeared at different Quarters of the Camp, and killed and took Prisoners several People who were coming from the Out-Parts thereto; four of the Kuzzlebash were likewise taken and brought to Nizam al Mulick. On the 14th # Nadir Shah having Irit one Boungab || at Shababad (which is one Stage from Serbind) and a fecond at Taniscer, he advanced with 40,000 Horse, partly Lancemen, Archers and Musquetzers, to the Village Tillauvri, each Horseman having two and fome three Attendants, Grooms, and Camel-drivers, all robust young Men, compleatly armed and mounted, fome on Camels, fome on Mules, and others on Tabous &, not one in his whole Army being on Foot, even those who followed the Camp, and trafficked for Necessaries to the Men, were compleatly armed and mounted, the Number of all amounting to near 160,000. In the Time of Action the Mafter could not be diffin-

† February 12, 1738-9. - ‡ February 13, 1738-9. - $\ Boungah fignifies the Baggage, and all the Furniture appertaining to a Camp.

§ Yabeus are a Sort of small Horses, which are very hardy and serviceable.

nine o'Clock News was brought that his Attendants * and Baggage (fome of whom were at a Distance behind, and others had pitched their Tents without the Mourebas, between Nadir Shab's Camp, and Khandoran's Re.Jr) had been attacked, and feveral of them lalled and plundered by the Perfiate Van Saadit Khan, upon hearing this, left the Dirbar +, and (with all Expedition) marched to his People's Affiftance. Khandogan being nigh, he, with his two Sons and the rest of his Troops, joined him, as did also Mazuffer Khan, Seyd Hoffan Khan, Khan Zuman Khan, Mir Gullou, Shebdad Khan, Afflih ali Khan, &c in all twenty-two Omras and General Officers, each with a Body of his own Men

Nadir Shah, who had just then arrived from Tillawri, being apprized of this Affair, advanced towards that Quarter, and de-

tiched

* Mahammed Reza Khan, Saadit Khan's Bukl/fin, or Paymafter and General, was the Person first attacked by sour or five hundred Auzzlebash, several of his Men were killed, and he was taken prisoner

+ Dirbar fignifics literally, the Deer of Admittante, bring a Word composed of Dir, Door, and J. Bar, Admittance 'Tis the common Name for the Kings' of a Governor's Palace

tached 1000 Courds, 1000 Kajirs *, 1000 Backhtiaris, and 1000 Harquebusers, in all 4000 Horse, 3000 of whom he planted in three different Places in Ambush, 500 Harquebusers he sent towards Saadit Khan, and the other 500 towards Khandoran to draw then into the Field; in which having fucceeded the Horsemen who lay in Ambush poured in upon them in three different Places, and engaged them in a most obstinate Manner. Besides these 4000 none else of Nadir Shah's Men joined in that Action, excepting that he himself, attended by a 1000 Affbar Horse, rode to and from all Quarters to encourage and direct these Men: The rest of the Army (according to his Order) flood drawn up at a Distance, each Nation separate, ready at a Signal to come to his Affiffance; but, as it happened, there was no Occasion for them; these 4 or 5000 having fought obstinately until near the Evening, when the Emperor's Forces gaveGround, Saadit Khan, Sheerjing and Khandoran's youngest Son, were taken Prisoners; Khandoran, having received several mortal * Kajirs are a Tribe of Turcomans, and the Backhisaris, or Backrians, are so called from Backsir, or Backria, the Place they come from.

Wounds, was carried back to his Quarters, Mazuffer Khan, with feveral other Officers, were killed, and some mortally wounded, returned to their Camp, Seyd Hossan Khan, being wounded, marched towards Debli, and great Numbers lay dead in the Fields of Battle *.

When those who fled from the Engagement returned back, there was a great Tu-

* In a Letter that was wrote from Mahors med Shah's Camr, a Day after the Engagement, it is faid, that Nadir Shah fought with 50,000 Horse And when Khandoron and Mazuffer Khan came with their Forces. he divided his Men into three Bodies, and at last routed the Mogbol's Army Saadit Khan's and Sherjing's Ele phants getting foul of each other, the Kuzzlebafb furrounded and took them Prisoners Khanderan received a Bullet in his Arm, and another in his Side -Mazuffer Khan was killed, jumping from his Elephant -Mir Gullou, Shebdad Khan, Akblafs Khan, Endger Khan, and Ahandoran's eldest Son were killed Khan Kumlpo fb, with his Son, and Abdal Rizak Khan. and Taffer Khan, with his Son and Brothers, and Sirdar Muluck were wounded Mirza Khoudabunda. Grandson to the great Mohabet Khan, was killed -Khan Zuman Khan was wounded by a Bullet in his Throat -Ghazi ber Khan was also wounded -On Nadir Shai's S de seven principal Officers, and 2500 Men were Lilled, and about 1000 wounded with Swords, Cuttar ri's, and Bullets mult and Noise in the Camp, and most of the Tents and Effects of Khandoran, Mazuffer Khan, Saadit Khan, &c. were plundered

2

by their own People.

Amidft this Confusion the Emperor went to yards Nizam al Muluck's Moureba, who was a the Front, and in Conjunction with the Nizar and other Oraras, went without the Mourebas, and drew up their Men in a Line of Battle, with a Delign to put a Stop to the Enemies advancing any farther; but, had not the Night come on, these Precautions would have served them in little Stead, and that Day would have put an End to the whole affair. About an hour after Sun-set the Emperor returned back to his Tent.

Several of those who escaped out of the Field, as also those who attended the Baggage and Carriages, fled towards Debli; a great many of whom were killed and plundered in the Way.

The Camp in some Places was very thin of Men, insomuch that when at Midnight, the Emperor sent for Nizam al Muluck, the Space from his Mourcha to the Emperor's Tent (which is about three Quarters of a Cos) was found entirely empty.

Nizam

160 The History of

Nizam al Muluck, Sirbullind Khan, Kummir o'din Khan, and all the other Omras that were left, staid with the Emperor in deep Consultation until near the Moming, when each returned to his own Quarters.

On the 16th ‡, finding the Camp fo thin, and being apprehensive of the Kuzzle fasts attacking them, they contracted the Luzzle fasts attacking them, they contracted the Luzzle fasts requisite to contain the Number of Troops they had left, which was the Space between the Emperor's Tent and Nizam's Mourcha, and there they stood under arms the whole Day, every Minute expecting the Enemy's Approach. Towards the Evening a small Tent was pitched for the Emperor, and all the Troops were disposed for their respective Posts, where they continued under Arms the whole Night, and their Horses faddled, without either Hay or Corn.

The 17th | also passed in Fear and Anxiety. This Day, according to an Order, from Nadir Shah, Saadit Khan sent for his own Men and Baggage; some of them who were scattered up and down the Camp, went to him, carrying along with them all that escaped being plundered of his Horses and other Effects. Nadir Shab had ordered a Tent to be pitched not far from his own Quarters, for Saadit Khan, Sherjing, and Khah lorar's Son; their Baggage and Attendance he gave a Place to, without his Camp; none durst for much as come to see them, nor were they allowed to make use of any of their own Necessaries.

I The 15th of February. | The 16th Dutta.

. On the 18th+, Nizam of Muluck* and Azim Alla Khan went to accommodate Matters to Nadir Shah's Camp; after a Stay of fix Hours, they returned back; what they might have done there, was kept a Secret. Towards the Close of the Evening, Khandaran died of the Wounds he had received

Y

+ February 17, 1738 9.

* Nizam al Muluck, with Azīm Allab Kban, and feveral Horfemen, went out, and pitched a small Tenteword the two Camps, to which Nadir Sbab's Airtheword al Dowlat, or Vizir (Kossim Beg Kban) came, and from thence conducted him to his Master, who embraced him stiting, and made him stand honourably, close by himself; he gave him a Cup of Sberban, and made him eat at the Fizir's House; after which it was agreed, that Mahemmed Sbab should come and see Nadir Shab.

162 The History of

The 19th + alfopaft in Deliberation, and at Night, Nizam al Muluck received a Khalat +, on being appointed Mir Bukhshi || and Emîr al Omra

On the 20th * in the Moming the Corps of Khandaran was carned out of the Camp to the Village Karnal, and the Emperor fiting in a royal Litter §, with a Cangy and an Umbrella, one led Horfe and a Drum, attended by Ghazi o'din Khan, Azim Allah Khan, the Vizir s Son, and feveral Eunuchs, with about 200 Horfe, marched out of the Camp, and when he had gone a little Way, by a Sign he forbad the Horfemen to accompany him any firther, then with his Eunuchs and the above faid Omras (each of whom had not above two or three Servants to attend him) he went on to Nadir Slahs Camp,

† The 18th of Februars

† Khalaet, a Present of a rich Vest, Arms, &c

* The 19th of February

S The Word in the Original is "Tall!" Tall!

when

Mir Bukhhi, or Ch ef Bukhhi, fign fies Paymafter General, who commonly commands all the Forces Em. r al Omra, fignifies Prince of Princes, a Titlegiven to the Favourite Munifler, who thereby becomes Head Omra when he was about half Way, Thamas Khan Vakeel * came to freet him, and did him the usual Honours. Afterwards Nesr Allah Mirza, Nadir Shab's Son, who came in a Royal Litter, having alighted, paid his Refpects according to the Form + of his Country. The Emperor ordering his own Litter to be fet down, embraced Nefr Allah Mirza, after which they both marched on until they came as far as the Train of Ordnance; here all the Attendants were obliged to stay behind, only the Emperor with two or three Eunuchs, and the Omras abovementioned, were allowed to pass; when they came to the Door of the Royal Tent, and the Emperor was alighted, Nadir Shah came forth to receive him, having embraced him, he feated him close by himself on the same Mufnidd 1; after the accustomary Forms of Salutation, and the Enquiry after each other's

* Vakeel fignifies Agent, also Factor.

† Not in fo submussive a Manner as is done at the Moghol's Court.

† Mufnidd is a particular Place in the Druan, commonly higher than any other, and large enough for two or three People to fit thereon. It is forced with a better and fofter Carpet than any other Part, and is covered over with fine Lannea.

64 The History of

Health were over, Nadir Shab addressed him thus:

It is strange that you should be so unconcerned and regardless of your own Affairs, that notwithstanding I wrote you several Letters, sent an Ambassador, and testised a Friendship for you, your Ministers should not think proper to fend the afatts-section of Your Want of Command and Discipline over your own People, one of my Ambassadors*, contrary to all Laws, has been killed in your Dominions.

Led in your Dominions.

'Even when I entered your Empire, you feemed under no Concern for your Affairs, nor fo much as fent to afk who I was, or what was my Defign. When I advanced as far as Labor, none of your People came with a Meffage or Salutation, nay, not with an Anfwer to my Salutation to you; Afterwards when your Ourras were awaked out of their Lethargy and Indolence, they prevented all Means of a Reconciliation; and coming tumultuoufly with an Intent to flop my fatther Progress, they brought them-

* The Ambassador was killed on the Palfor Side of the Attack, by some rebelliou, Rajpouts.

themselves into one general Snare, without having the Foresight to leave any behind, who upon an Emergency could make Head, who who will be the state of the stat and retrieve their Affairs. Befides this, you have foolishly cooped yourselves up in your Mourchas, not considering that if your Fremy was stronger, you could not re-

Mourchas, not confidering that if your Enemy was stronger, you could not re main within these Barricadoes without ei ther Water or Grain; and if he was weaker, ther Water or Grain; and if he was weaker, 'twas both unnecessary and disgraceful to fuffer yourselves to be besieged by him; besides, if you thought lightly of him, and imagined him a rash inconsiderate Man, imagined him a rash inconsiderate Man, without exposing your own Person and Re putation fo much, you ought to have de tached a faithful and experienced Officer, tached a faithful and experienced Officer, who, in a little Time, might have found Means to diffress and cut him off; but if you dreaded his Experience and Conduct, you had still the less Reason (after provoking him thus far) to venture your All at one Blow. Even when you had thus entangled yourfelf, I fent you Offers of an Accommodation, but you was so puffed up with your own childin Conceits, and foolith Resolutions, that you would not give Ear to any honourable Overtures, or con-

r confult

166 The History of

fult your own Interest, until, at last, by the Assistance of the Creator of the World, and the Strength of the Arms of the victorious Warriors, you have seen what has happened Moreover, your Predecessors were pened Moreover, your Predeceffors were wont to take the * Jezsah from the Infidels, and you in your Reign have given it to them, having in these twenty Years, fuffered the Empire to be over-run by them. But as hitherto the Race of Tenur have on injured or milbehaved towards the Seffi Family, and the People of Perfia, I finall not take the Empire from you, only as your Indolence and Pride have obliged me to march fo far, and that I have been put to an extraordinary Expence, and my Men, on Account of the long Marches, are much futigued, and in Want of Necessaries, I must go to Deble, and there continue some

I must go to D-bli, and there continue some Days, until the Army is refreshed, and the Pershcush, that Nizar al Muluck has agreed to, is made good to me, after that I shall leave you to look after your own Affairs

Mahorimed Shah gave no Answer during the whole Speech, but was fixed in a Silence,

* Jeziah is a Poll Tax lened on all who more not Mahama dars, especially the Hindus

which testified a good deal of Confusion and Shame.

To this Discourse, there was none present but Favead Khan, Bebroz Khan, and Ghazi. o'din Khan : towards Evening the Emperor returned back to his own Camp, and feveral of his officers having represented to him, that the Banians made the Grain very dear, he ordered their Shops to be plundered, which, instead of mending the Matter, very much increased the Dearth of Provisions. On the 21st*, in the Morning, Nizam al Muluck, the Vizir, Azîm Allah Khan, and Ghazi o'din Khan, went to Nadir Shah: On their taking Leave to return. Nizam was honoured with a Present of a Coat, Vest, and a Horse: the Vizir, Azim Allah Khan, and Ghazi o'din Khan, each with a Coat and Vest: at nine o'Clock at Night, they waited on, Mahommed Shab, and communicated to him. what had passed in their Conserence, which, was not made publick. That fame Day the Emperor ordered 500 Beldars to bury the Corps of those who fell in the Field of Battle. the Number of whom were found to be 17000, all of the Hindostan Army, and the

* The 20th of February.

Bodies lay spread over the Space of seven Coss; the said Beldars liaving strewed a little Earth on some of the Carcasses, returned back. It was reported that 400 of Nadir Shab's People sell in Battle, and that 700 were wounded, but of those that were killed not one was to be seen in the Field, they having buried them that same Night Of the Hindossam, several were wounded in such a Manner, that they were not able to sir, nor had any the Compassion to bring them off the Field of Bacche as be cured, so that in a little Time they expired among the rest of the dead Bodies: Three Elephants were also killed.

On this Day (which is the 21st *) there was no Grain to be had without great Trouble, and that at the Rate of 1 and 1½ Sters § of Wheat, per Rupee, and 2 to 4 Rupees per Seer of Glee +, the Reason of which was, that since the Day of Battle the Camp was in a Manner befieged, and no Provisions allowed to come to them, nor durft any of the Soldiers go without their Mourchas. In Nadir Shab's Camp (as they went out a foraging for 30 or 40 Cofs round) Wheat was fold at the rate of 12 Seers for a Rupee.

* February 20, 1738 9

† A fingle Seer, which they call Seer Cacha, is 14 Ounces, 15 ‡ Drams, but the Seer mentioned here is a Seer Pucca of 1 lb, 13 Ounces, 15 ‡ Drams

† Ghee is only Butter well boil'd and skimm'd, which is preferved in Jars, and keeps fweet a long Time, especially if a little Salt is put at the bottom of the Jar.

The Numbers of those killed fince the Battle, on the Roads, and round about the Country, by Nadir Shah's Men, when they went out a Marrauding, amounted to 14 or 15000 Men.

On the 22d* Kassum Beg Khan came from Nadir Shab's Camp, and stayed with Nizam al Muluck until the Evening.

Mir Hoffan Khan (who being wounded in the Battle, fet out for Shah Jehanabad) being afraid of the Dangers upon the Road, returned back, and came to the Camp this Day.

On the 23d + the Camp was removed to the Side of Karnal, opposite to Nadir Shah's Army. In their March the Kuzzlebash Horsemen carried off 27 Elephants, and 25 Camels, and in the Night Time discharged a great many Guns.

* The 21st of February. † The 22d Ditto.

On the 24th * Nizam being fent for, went to Nadir Shab's Camp, where he, with five or fix of his Attendants, was kept.

Several of the Kuzzlebash being sent against Taniseer, having plundered the said Place, and flaughtered the Inhabitants, returned with a great Booty.

In Mahommed Shah's Camp, what Grain was to be had, was fold from 2 to 3 Rupees per Seer, and whoever went to Nadir Shah's Camp, were allowed to buy as much as they confurned there, but not to carry any away. About eight o'Clock at Night, the Vizir received a Firman (or Order) from Nadir Shab, to this Import, ' Kummir o'din'Khan ' Vizir, KNOW, that to-morrow Mahonmed Shah, Sirbullind Khan, Mabbmmed Khan

' Bungush, and Azîm Allah Khan, shall ' come into the Prefence +, therefore look well after your People, that they be not

' dispersed, or straggle abroad; when you ' have secured that Point, come you hither also,

When the Emperor was appriz'd of this, he fent for Sirbullind Khan, and all the other Omras, with whom he held Council,

* The 23d Ditto

Ta common in the East, instead of Court, to use the Word - Hazour, the Prefence, and likewise the Word signify Majefty.

until Midnight; at last the Emperor declared that Affairs were now gone beyond his Power, and that he must do one of three Things; To-morrow to march out and make one desperate Push, to determine his Fortune at once, or put an End to all Thoughts and Misery by a Dose of Posson; or else submit peaceably to what Terms may be imposed. The Emperor's Inclination (tho' he did not then declare it) was for the last of these.

On the 25th * Sirbullind Khan, Mahommed Khan, &c. were ready each with his own Men, that in Case the Emperor should make a Push, they might not be unprepared, and if on submitting, he should go to Nadir Shah, and bid them come, they should follow his Fate. But neither one nor the other of these Resolutions was fixed on that Day; Grain was not to be had on any Terms, and old carrion Beef, notwithstanding there was a great deal of it, was fold, 1 : Seers, for a Rupee. At Night arrived a Note from Nadir Shab to this Effect: ' Sirbullind Khan, ' be of good Chear, and perfectly composed, ' get yourfelf hither before Mabonimed Shab ' fets out.'

* The 24th Ditto.

On the 26th * Sirbullind Khan having obtained Leave, marched towards Nadir Shah's Camp, and, according to an Order, leaving his Men and Baggage on the Righthand thereof, he, with Khan Zad Khan, three Horsemen and four or five Servants entered the Camp, and pitched a small Tent for himself near the Bargab +, close by Saadt Khan's Quatters.

About nine o'Clock that Morning, Mahommed Shah (according to an Order) being feated in a Royal Litter, with a Canopy and Unbrella, fet out for Nadir Shah's Camp, attended by Emîr Khan, Ifhak Khan, and fome Eunuchs. On his Arrival he alighted at a Tent, which had been pitched the Day before by Nadir Shah's Order, for that Purpofe, in the Front of the Camp, where he was allowed to have as many of his Domefticks of all Sorts as were necessary, and 1000 Kuzzlebash Horsemen were detached as Guards round him. About 8 o'Clock in the Evening, Mahommed Shah being called, went to wait on Nadir Shah: after three

* The 25th Ditto.

† Bargah fignifies the Place of Admittance, or the publick Dryan, where Audience is generally given.

Hours Stay he returned to the Camp, and there was an Order, that none of the Omras should be allowed to go to see him.

On the 27th +, Sirbullind Khan, being called, went to Nadir Shab's Dirbar 1, he was ordered to attend the Towpebi Bafki | and the Nishbebi Bashi *, who had each 200 Horse, and that, with the Assistance of Saad o'din Khan, the Tompehi Bafhi should seize all the King's and Omras Ordnance; and the Nissikbebi Bashi, with Kummir o'din Khan's Help, the Treasury, Jewels, Teifbik-kbanna ... and all the other Implements and Arms that belonged to the Emperor and the deceased Omras, and to fend to Mabonmed Shab, his Son Sultan Abmed, and Malika al Zumani S. the Empress, and to give Orders to Kummir

† The 26th of Februars.

<sup>1</sup> Dirbar fignifies the King's or Governor's Palace. Towpebi Bofbi, the Mafter of the Ordnance.

* Nuffikbehi Bafbi, literally, Head Regulator, or Manager, an Officer who is generally fent to regulate Diforders, and make Seizures.

<sup>4</sup> Teifbik-khanna, where all Arms, warlike Furniture, Implements, &c. are kept.

§ Malika al Zumani, literally, the Queen of the Times, Mabemmed Shab's Emprels.

174 The History of

o'din Khan and Saad o din Khan, that all the Emperor's old Servants and Soldiers be continued in their Places, and brought along with them, but to let the Babeers || and new enlifted Men go where they please

Accordingly they went and seized all these Things, and sent the Emperor's Son, with Mahka al Zumani, and the rest of the Mahl * (according to Nadir Shah's Orders) to Mahammed Shah

This Day there were great Diforders and Confusion in Mahommed Shah's Boungah, informed that a great many Things were plundered and lost, and several out of Fear leaving their Tents and Effects, ran to and fro, looking out for a Corner to secure their Lives, especially the Artifans and Servants

On the 28 +, Mahommed Shah, with his Men and Baggage, leaving only the Ordnance behind, went towards Nadir Slah's Camp

Baherri, People employed for carrying Bangage

* Mabl f gnifies a Place, but particularly where the Monen are kept It salfo alled Harram (i e prohi bted, or unlawful, an Regard to Men) and in Turkey to called Serat, which f gnifies the fame as Mabl. The Women there is are also called Mabl, which is the Signification it bears here

+ The 27th of February

In the Way he discharged the Babeers and new lifted Men, letting them go where they pleased. The Omras and the Emperor's old Servents according to an Order for that Purpose, took up their Quarters at one Side of the Camp, being feparated by a fmall Riwilet. The Effects of Mahommed Shah and the Omras, which were throught, were put into Nadir Shab's Poffession, and having bicked out 200 Gatuon with their Carriages out of Mahommed Shah's Ordnance, they fent them with some Treasure and other Effects then feized (accompanied by 1000 Horfemen. which belonged to the Emperor's Train of Artillery, and 2000 Kuzzlebash) to Cabul, to be from thence carried to Khandabar.

This Day Nadir Shah gave three Months pay as a Gratuity to every Man in his Army, Soldiers, Servants, Attendants, &c just as he had done before at Kandahar upon taking it

Or the 29th *, in the Morning, Thamas Khan Vakeel was dispatched to Shahpebanahad, with 4000 Horse and Musqueteers to take Possession of the Castle, as was also Saadit Khan for the Safe-guard and Carcos the City, and the Houses and Effects of the Omrai; and Azim Allah Khan, for the Superintendency of the River, each with his own Men and Baggage, and several Nishibchi Horsemen; they were strickly ordered to prevent any Harm or Damage being done to the Inhabitants of the City. Sirbullind Khan being ordered, went to his own Boungab.

On the 1st of Zelbuyh* Nadir Sbab began to prepare for his March to Sbabyebanabad, and at four next Morning he set out, attended by 20000 choice Horsemen; 4000 Harquebusers were detached as a Kouruck + for that separate Quarter where the Mabl marched, betwit which and the Army there was a Distance of near one Coss, no Soul on Pain of Death, either of the Persians to Indians, being allowed to pass that Way; each Party marched at the Distance of one

* The first of March

† Kouruck When the King's Women in Perfia go out any where, a Number of Men go before hand to those Places through which they are to pass, to fignify the same, that no Body may appear there. The Women are guarded by armed Eunuchs, and sometimes by a Body of Soldiers at a Distance, who if they find any Man or Boy in the Way, will kill him, or, at least, drub him very severely, and this is called the Kouruck.

Arrow that from the other. Mahommed Shah. with 40 or 50 of his principal People, and about 10.000 Kuzzlebalb Horiemen. and 2000 Harquebusers, followed Nadir Shab at a Diffance of one Cofs : On one Side was Sirbullind Khan, with his own Men and Baggage, next him the Men and Baggage of Mahommed Shah; on another Side were the Men and Baggage of Nizam al Muluck, and Kummir o'din Khan, and next them Mahommed Khan Bungulb with his Men and Baggage, each Party separated by a Distance of and some Cos, and between them marched Kuzzlebash Horsemen to prevent their joining, and make each Party march the Way that was appointed for them. The Compass of Ground they covered in their March, was five Coss in Length, and three in Breadth, and this Method was observed every Day's March.

After five Days continual marching they came to Sonput: there were feveral Villages in the Way which they not only plundered, but likewise killed a great many of the Inhabitants, Paniput and Sonput were also facked.

On Tuesday the 6th of Zelbujb * they marched from Sonput, and came to Nirela. In the beginning of the Night, Sirbullind Khan having seigned an Indisposition, had Leave to go before to the City, and on the Morning he arrived at his own House.

On Wednesday the 7th + Nadir Shab arrived at the Gardens called Shallemar.

On Thursday the 8th 1, Mahammed Shah, by Nadur Shah's Order, being seated in a Royal Litter, with a Canopy and Umbrella, two Standards, about 200 Horse and Foot of his own Servants, and 4000 Kuzzlebash Horsemen entered the Casse. After which they gave him a Place near Aersh Mahl 8. Nadur Shah having heard, that the People of the City were of a seditious and turbulent Temper, did not care to enter, in the Night Time. But this Morning, attended by 20,000 Horse, he marched with all the Caution imaginable to the Casse, leaving the rest of his Army encamped without the City:

* The 6th of March. ,† The 7th Ditto.

† The 8th Ditto

§ Acth Mahl, fignifies the Place of Joy, one of the Apartments in the Calile The Place they gave Mahommed Shah near it, was Suhman Beurge, or Solomon's Tower.

After he had alighted, Mahommed Shah came to congratulate him, and they breakfasted together. They were in Conversation until the Evening, during which Time Nadir Shab behaved with the greatest Complaisance and feeming Affection to him. He issued out Orders in the most peremptory Manner, to prevent the Soldiers wronging or infulting any of the Inhabitants, and enjoined the Niffikhchis, who have the Inspection of these Things, to spare no Punishments, such as cutting off Ears and Nofes, and bambooing to Death, whoever molested the Indians: for which Reason, none of the Kuzzlebash, either high or low, durst injure any of the Natives; but most of the People were so frighten'd at the terrible Aspect of these Men. and the barbarous Figure + they made, that they avoided (as much as possible) having any Dealings or Conversation with them.

On the 9th ‡ at Night, Nadir Shab, having called Saadit Khan before him, spoke † The Persians, however polite and luxurious, in Regard to the more Western Nations, are but rude and hardy, as to their Apparel, Diet, and Living, in Compation with the delicate India Mogbols and the Persians, who have lived some Time in that Empire.

‡ The 9th of March.

with a great deal of Warmth and Paffion in Regard to the collecting the Peifleufh * Money, and used some hard Words to him. At four o'Clock next Morning, Saadat Khan, who had been for some Time weak and indisposed, departed this life. Some imagine he died thro' Anger for the Usage he met with, and others are of Opinion Jealous'y provoked him to take Poison.

On Saturday, which was the roth for the Moon, and the Eid Zoba (or Feast of Sacrifice) after five Ghurris, and thirty Pulls f, the Sun entered Aries. This Monning Strbulland Khan (being called) went to the Castle, where with Thamas Khan Vakeel, Mushapha Khan Arrizbegi, Nizamal Muluck, and Kummir o'din Khan, he staid the whole Day, deliberating on Means for collecting the Peishcush Money. This Day at Noon Thamas Khan had sent nine Nishkhchi Horsemen towards Pahr Gunjb §, to order the opening of the Granaries, and settle the

* This was a Present of 20 Crores of Rupees, which Nizom had agreed should be paid to Nadir Shab.

† The 10th of March.

† Two Hours and twelve Minutes after Sun rufe, § Pahr Gunjb, the Place where Corn is fold,

Price of the Corn: Being arrived there, they caused them to be opened, and Wheat was fold ten Seers for a Rupee: As this Price did not turn to the Proprietors Account, towards Evening they affembled the Mob *, and a great many disaffected People joining them, they killed the abovefaid Nissikhchis, with feveral Kuzzlebash, who had come over to buy Corn. After Sun-fet they spread a Report that Nadir Shab was taken Prisoner, and some said he was poisoned, on which the Mob and Tumult exceeded all Bounds, all the idle Vagabond and disaffected People joining from all Quarters, with what Arms they could most readily find, poured like a Torrent towards the Castle. Of those of Nadir Shab's Troops, who were posted without at the Foot thereof, some retired within, and others went towards the Reti +, (which is the Place twixt the Castle and River) and feveral of them were cut off: Those of the Kuzzlebash who had taken up their Quarters in Khandoran's Palace, and other great Houses, kept a strist and careful Guard the whole Night; several Cannon, Harquebuses and Musquets were discharged from the Castle and the said Houses, to keep the Mob at a Distance; all this Time they were encreasing, and became more and more surious: Seyd Neaz Khan, Son-in-Law to Kummir o'din Khan, had shut up in a Room several Nissibelis (whom he had taken before, as a Saseguard to his House) and now set Fire to it.

* The Promoters of the Mob were Seyd Neaz Khan, Sheh Soar Khan the Son or Relation of Kourrih Khan, and Rasban Nazr.

+ Rett fignifies Sand in the Indoftan Language.

182 The HISTORY of

On Sunday the 11th +, about eight o'Clock in the Morning, when the Turnult was in its Height, Nadir Shab being highly provoked, walked out of the Caffle, and mounting his Horfe, went from thence towards Chandni Chok +, to quell the Mob, who were committing great Diforders in that Quarter, and in the Way perceiving a great many of the Bodies of his own People, who had been killed in the Night, he fent a strong Party to endeavour to suppress them, and in Case Threatning and fair Means were ineffectual, he licensed them to cut them off, but on no Account to injure others who were not concerned. At first, they proceeded gently, which, instead of appealing the Mob, made them more bold and infolent, and without the least Awe, they began to difcharge Fire-Arms, and Arrows, at them. Nadir Shah went into the Misjid | of Roishin al Dowlat, which is near the Cutual's § Chaboutra *; the Inhabitants near that Mifind got upon their Terrasses, and began to throw Stones; and, either from one of these Terrasses, or a Window thereabouts, a Musquet was designedly shot at Nadir Shah, which missing him, killed one of his Officers who flood next him: This made him give Way to his Passion, and order a general Slaughter to be commenced from that very Place; the Soldiers in an Inflant getting upon the Walls and Terraffes, began to plunder and kill. This bloody Scene extended from Minid is what is vulgarly called a Mosque.

† The 11th of March.

The Name of a Square Bazar.

* Chaboutra fignifies a Tribunal.

§ The Cuttal is a Magistrate who, in all Cities, has the Care of punishing those who drink or fell intoxicating Liquors, and keep disorderly Houses, with several other Affairs, which are not of Consequence enough to be brought before the Governor

184 The History of

the Serafa Ardun +, which is before the Castle, to the old Eidgab 1, which is three Coss Diflance, and on one Side as far as Jitth Tomb, and on the other as far as the Tobacco Mandave and Poul Meetai | . The whole Streets of the Bazar, and the Alleys and Wards on all fides, the Khanum's Bazar, and round about the Jamih Misjid*, and the Cotton and Jewellers Bazars, were all plundered, feveral Places they fet on Fire, and whomfoever they found in the Wards and Houses, Streets, Alleys and Shops, Great and Small, Men and Women, they put to the Sword, even the Brute Creatures did not escape their Fury; feveral Women were made Prisoners Loutf Alt Khan, the Officer who was appointed to flaughter and plunder towards the Square of Saad Allah Khan and Dehlt Gate, when he came as far as Sirbullind Khan's House, he, in a great Surprize and Fright, came out to meet

+ Serafa Ardus, where all the Bankers and Money-Changers, belonging to the King and his Army, have their Shops

their Shops

† Eidgab, the Place where all the People affemble to Prayers, on the Two great annual Eids or Festivals

|| Poul Meetar, a Bridge so called, because there are a great many Consectioners Shops thereon.

* Jamib Misjid, the Cathedral, or great Mosque

the faid Officer, and repterenting to him, that the People of that Quarter were not to blame, he made them defilt and flop his Men, ou promiting they fliould pay a Sum of Money. But in other Places the Slaughter, Plundering, and Burtling, went on in a most barbarous Mannier.

Nadir Shab; after he had given the Orders, returned back to the Cafle; about two o'Clock Mahonimled Shah and Nizam al Muluck waited on him, who having made great Interceffion for the city, the folders were ordered to defith, and it was proclaimed by Beat of Drum; that none of the Inhabitants' flould be any longer molefied.

The Slaughter continued from eight in the Morning till three in the Afternoon; above 400 Kuzizlebafti were killed, and of the Citizens (great and finiall) 120000 were flaughtered, others computed them 150000. What Treafure and Effects were plundered, forme Nadir Shab had, and a great deal was destroyed by the Fire. In feveral of the Hindu Houses, where one of a Tamily furbived, he used to ple threy of forty Carcases a top of one another, and burn them; and fo they did in the Streets, notwithstanding which

ВЬ

there

186 The HISTORY of

there still remained fo many, that, for a confiderable Time, there was no fuch Thing as passing any of those Ways. When the Slaughter began, those who raised the Commotion disappeared in an Instant, and left the innocent Shopkeepers, Bazaris, and many honest Families, to be butchered by the enraged Kuzzlebafb; feveral, jealous of their Honour, not only killed their Women, but laid also violent hands upon themselves; one of these unfortunate Wretches in particular, when the Soldiers came near his House, burnt about twenty Women of his Family. and was in Expectation of their entering every Minute and killing him; by Chance they. missed that House, but he was so insatuated, that, finding himfelf disappointed, he went out, and bringing some of them back, shewed them the Way to his own House, telling them there was a good deal of Money and Effects therein. After they had plundered his House, they went their Way without killing him, which so enraged him, that he difpatched himfelf. There were great Numbers of People, especially Women and Chil- : dren, burnt in their Houses.

On Monday the 12th *, the Prifoners, especially the Women +, according to Nadur Sbab's Orders, were all conducted back to their own Houses, but with Eyes full of Tears, and in Circumstances not to be described or uttered.

On Tuesday the 13th ‡, a Party, who had been formerly detached by Nadir Shah to seize the Cannon at the Serai of Rouh Allah Khan, having been cut off by the People there, in Conjunction with those of Mogbolr, a strong Body was sent over thither, who slaughtered between 5 and 6000 of these People, and brought bound with them about 300 of those belonging to the Ordnance, also the Hazarris § and head Officers. This Day, Scidy Folad Khan received a Khalaet on being consirmed Gutual of the City, Proclamation was made by Beat of Drum,

* The 12th of March, 1738-9.

† About 10,000 Women threw themselves into Wells, some of whom were taken out alive, after being there two or three Days. The Number of Prisoners released, Men and Women, were 50,000.

† The 13th of March, 1738-9.

§ Hazarri lignifies Coptain of a Thousand.

ordering every Body to betake themselves to their feveral Employments, and to be under no Apprehension of the Soldiers any more. A Body of Men was fent to the Granaries at Pabr Gunib, which they fealed up and put Guardson: Sandit Khan's Effects were feized, and Nizamal Muluck and Kummir o'din Khan made a Peifl.cufb of some Money and Effects which they had given in an Account of, and was registered in the List; the Effects of Khandoran and Mazuffer Khan were likewise feized; the Jewels, Treasure and Goods of the former, (not reckoning what he had in the Camp) was computed at no more than one Crore of Rupees; but Mazuffer Khan's amounted to very nigh four Crore. This Day, according to the Sbab's Order, Parties of Soldiers were planted as Guards all around the City to the Banks of the River. and in the Retee opposite to the Castle, to prevent any Persons going out without Licence, but to hinder none from coming in : All those who were brought bound from the Serai of Rough Allah Khan, had their Heads cut off, and were thrown into the Retee.

On Wednesday the 14th *, a number of Fakirs **, wanting to go out of the City, with a Design to travel and beg abroad, the Out-Guards cut off their Noses and Ears, and made them return back again.

On Thursday the 15th +, as the great Number of dead Bodies that lay about the Cassle, and in the Bazzars, and other Places, caused a very offensive Stench, they pressed most of the People they met with in the Streets, and employed them in removing the Bodies. Some, by tying Cords to the Feet, they dragged without the City, some they threw into the River, and those whom they imagined to be Hindu's, they piled forty or fifty of their Bodies a-top of each other, and burnt them with the Timber of the demolished Buildings.

On Friday the 16th ‡, a Firmán, exempting the Dominions of Persia from Taxes for three Years, was drawn up and dispatched by a Choppar || : At the same Time the Ar-

* The 14th of March, 1738 9.

<sup>**</sup> Fakirs are Beggars, or poor People.

† The 15th of March, 1738-9. ‡ The 16th of March, 1738-9

Choppar, an express Messenger.

190 , The HISTORY of

rears* formerly due to the Soldiers, as also one Year's Pay before-hand, and six Months Pay as a Gratuity, was given to all his People, even to the Servants, and those who trafficked for Necessaries in the Camp (each of these having a settled Pay from Nadir Shab) Niçar Mahommed Khan was sent with 1000 Nizatebash Horsemen, to bring Saadit Khan's || Treasure from Pourth.

On Saturday the 17th $\dangle$, Sirbulling Khan, according to an Order, went to the Dirbar, where he staid until the Evening. Nadir Shab let him know, he was pretty well assured, that under a Pretence of old Age and Infirmity, he did not care to sur about in collecting the Peishcush Money and Beavra from the People in Offices, Merchants, &c. However, his Advice to him was, to behave with more Activity in that Affair, and make an End of it very from.

* The Year's Arrears due to Nadir Shab's Men was 4 Creres, 88 Lacks, or 6,100,000 l

[ Saadu Khan's Treasure, fent from Lukaswis by Munsur di Khan, arrived the 25th of Mishirum, or 23d of April, being 80 Lacks of Rupers, which is 1,000,000!

<sup>1</sup> The 17th of March, 1738 9

† Beatra, fignifies a forced Contribution.

On Sunday the 18th*, the faid Sirbullind Khan went likewise to the Dirbar, where were present Nizam al Muluck and Kummir o'din Khan, and he stayed there until Noon; Thamas Khan and Muftapha Khan preffing them concerning the Money, Sirbullind Khan told Nizam al Muluck as follows: " I have a long Time ago foreseen this Disgrace, and frequently represented to the Emperor, " that before Things were past Remedy, he " ought to take fome Meafure, and not thro' " too much Security, reckon any Accident " unworthy his Care and Prevention; I de-" fired him to employ fome experienced and " faithful Person, and to give him full Power, that with a Sum of Money and other valuable Things, as a Peifbcufb, he might " make up Matters, prevent the impending " Calamity, and live, as formerly, with the " Shab in an amicable Manner.

" Every Body imagined I couched fome Defigns and Self-Views under this Advice; they themselves would contrive no Expedent, nor would they rely on the Contrivance of another, until, at last, Affairs are come to this calamitous and difgraceful

* The 18th of March, 1738-9.

192 The History of

" Iffue." To this Nizam al Muluck made no Answer. Then Thamas Khan addressing himself to Kummir o'din Khan, repeated to him the Substance of what Nadir Shab, at first Meeting; reproached Mahommed Shah with: Afterwards he told him, " What is " past shall not be remembered. Now my " Shab wants the Money, use all Means " you can to raise it, and bring not yourselves " into any further Difgrace by being dila-" tory," Sirbullind Khan answered, " Un2 " doubtedly we will raise it, wherever it is " to be found." Thamas Khan asked him; if he had not Money, himfelf, Sirbullind Khan said to him, " If I had had Money; " I would have fent it to you to Kandabar; " and prevented you'the Trouble of coming' " hither." In fhort; by what paffed at this Meeting, it was known, that Nadir Shah; after his Victory, and having established his Power, had demanded of Nizam al Muluck, twenty Crore * of Rupees (exclusive of the Jewels, Gold Plate fet with precious Stones, and other fine Goods; feized of the King's, and other Omras) to be collected in the best' Manner he could out of the King's Treafury, his own Effects, and all the other Ouras, wealthy People and Inhabitants. Such a Sum was not to be raifed out of the King's Treafury, or the Ouras Effects; for, in the King's, the Gold and Silver Coins did not, exceed three Crore §: But, in the inward Vaults (which had been flut up and fealed for many Years, no Body knowing by whom they were fealed, or what they contained) there was found of Gold and Silver to a much larger Amount than the Money in the Treafure. Nizam al Muluck contributed a Peifficuff of 1the Crore in Ingewels, Treafure, and Goods, as did also Kummir o'dia Kban to the fame Amount.

* Twenty Grores are 25 Million's Sterling.

Saadst Khan had formerly agreed to pay one Crore * of Rupees, and made good thirty Lacks + thereof, which was all that had escaped being plundered; he promised to send for the Remainder from his Soubab.

Sirbullind Khan, on Account of his Poverty, was excused from any Share, and three Crore ‡ of Rupees were appointed to be levied on some Mansubdars, Muttesiddys, Officers, and the rich Inhabitants, each in Proportion to his Circumstances. Formerly Saadit Khan was ordered to collect this Money: After his Death, and the Slaughter and Plunder of the City, this Bufiness was recommended to the Care of Sirbullind Khan, and the other Omras, which Thamas Khan, at this Meeting, prested them about: Accordingly it was now agreed, that Azim Allah Khan. Chuckl Keishvir, Vakeel of the Soubabdar of Bengal, Seeta Ram, and all the Manfubdars and Officers of the Chaboutra, &c. should meet at Sirbullind Kban's House, and make an End of this Affair. All Officers, Inhabitants, &c. who were suspected to be rich, were ordered to give in a Lift of what Money or Effects they were Masters of, to be laid before the Shab, that what he liked he might take, and what he forgave them they might keep; and whoever pleaded Poverty, fuch Person should declare the same by a Writing under his Hand and Seal, that in Case it should be afterwards proved, that he had given in a false Account, he might be punished.

<sup>$ 3,750,000</sup> l. | 1,875,000 l * 1,250,000 l. † 375,000 l. | 2,3750,000 l. C c portion

94 The History of

That Day the People beforementioned came to Sirbullind Khan's House, and having staid until the Evening, and enrolled fome Names, returned to their own Houses.

On Monday the 1 oth * they all met there again, and were taken up all that Day in the enrolling of Names, and preparing the Lift. This Day Seyd Neaz Khan who, the Night before the Slaughter, had shut up several of the Kuzzlebalh in a Room, and burnt them) was, by Nadir Shab's Order, firangled with a Shaul, and Sheb Soar Khan and Rathan' who in that Night were the Promoters of Mischief, were punished likewise. The first had his Head cut off, and the fecond his Relly ripped up.

On Tuesday the 20th +, Sirbulling Khan being fent for, went to the Dirbar, where he received a Khalaet of a rich Vest, from whence he returned Home to affift Azim Allah Khan, and the rest in the Business they were about

On Wednesday the 21ft 1, Rebim Beg Amin Balbi, with 200 Horsemen and Musqueteers, were appointed to be under the Command of Sirbullind Khan, that he might

* The 19th of March, 1738-9.

† The 20th of March, 1738-9. † The 21st of March, 1738-9.

Cc2

196 The History of

fent them to the Manfubdårs, &c. to oblige them to produce all their Elephants, Horfes, and Camels, with Orders that what should be judged proper for the Sbab's Stables, should be immediately seized.

On Thursday* also they were employed as the Day before.

On Friday the 23d +, Strbulland Kban, Axim Allab Kban, &c. according to an Order, met at the Castle, where was held a Council for ascertaining the Money of the Peislecus.

There was an Order made, that Murid Khan +, with fifty of Sirbullind Khan * Horfe-men, thould carry a Sirrapab and Firmán to Sujaat Khan, Soubabdar of Bengal, and to take from him the three Years Treasure and a Persbeugh: Accordingly 1000 Rupees || were given out of the Shab's Treasury to Murid Khan for his Expences, and 3220 Rupees to the fifty Horfemen for their Charges.)

* The 22d of March, 1738-9.

Company with Mir Tuckee Kuli beg.

§ 4021. 101.

Saturday,

Saturday, Sunday, and Monday*, were employed in the Peifbeufb Affair. During this Time they were bufy in preparing Illuminations on the Banks of the River, and Fireworks for the Wedding of Nefr Alla Mirza, Nadur Shab's Son, who was to be married to the Daughter of Iefdan Bukhfh, the Son of Kam Bukhfh, and Grandson of Auring-zebe.

On Tuesday Night + the Marriage was confummated. Mahommed Shah made the young Princess a Présent of Jewels to the Value of 50000 Rupees 1, and in ready Money 50000 || more. Some Days after the Marriage, Nadir Shāh sent her Jewels to the Value of five Lack of Rupees &.

The Council for afcertaining the Peifleufh was continually held in the Caftle, near the Divan of Jufice, at which affitted Thamas Khan, Muftapha Khan, and Mahommed Shah's Omras, until the tenth of Mohirrim* at Noon, and during that Time every Body was prefent at the faid Place from Sun-rife to Sun-

* The 28th of April, 1739,

* The 24th, 25th, and 26th of March, 1738-9,
† The 27th of March, 1739.
† 62501. § 62501. § 62,5001.

fet. All the Vakeels and Agents of the Manfieldars, and other Officers, gave conflant Attendance, and at night each returned to his own House without having a Sentry or Guard over them. In those Days, and also afterwards, several People finding Affairs go hard with them, left their Effects and Familess behind, and inade their Escape out of the City in the best Manner they could, being glad at any Rate to save their Lives, several of Mabonined Shab's Omras were obliged to stay the whole Day in the Cassle, in a mean Manner and perpetual Fear, with but one Horse and a few Servants to attend them, and at Night they returned to their own Houses. In these Days of Mobirrim, no Person, either of Hindostan or the Kuzzlebash, durst so much as mention the Words, Tazia,* or * Tozua fignifies Mourning, and Mâtim fignifies Death. It is customary with the Schuz, to make great Lamentations annually for Mortifa Mit's two Sons, Imâm Hossan Ilmam Hossan, on the first ten Days of Mobirrim The former was possoned by his Wife Seada, at Mediana, in the Khohssan of Macua, on Thunssan the 7th of Safer, in the seth Year of the Higira. The latter was killed in the Defert of Kirbila, by Shinr, a Soldier belonging to Inzid, the Son of Macuae, Khalif of Syra, on Friday the 10th Mohirrim, in the 61st Year of the Highra.

Matim.

Some of Nadir Shah's Soldiers, who were incamped without the City, having one of these Nights made a Noise of Mourning and beating their Breasts, were severely punished by him. During this Time, a great many People were very hard preffed for their Quota's of the Peifbcufb, infomuch that several, to save their Credit and Reputation, killed themselves. Amongst the rest, Alim Allab, the adopted Son of Scidy Folad Khan; and his Naib, who acted entirely in all Things belonging to the Cutual's Office. having been ill used, and publickly difgraced, on the fifth of Mobirrim +, cut open his own Bowels with his Cuttarit, and died foon after.

On the 6th ||, Mijilifs Rai, Kummir o'din Khan's Duan, was fent for by Thamas Khan, who ordered one of his Ears to be cut off in his Master's Presence. Kummir o'din Khan was going to intercede for him, which Thamas Khan perceiving, he told him, in an angry Tone, "It will be your Turn by and by," which presently silenced him, and Mijilis

† The 3d of April, 1739.

A Sort of Dagger wore by the Indians,

The 4th of April, 1739.

Rat taking the above Ufage to Heart, killed himfelf afterwards, on the 12th * Several of the King's Muttefidds were so beat with Sticks, in Thamas Khan's Presence, that the Blood slowed out about their Faces and other Parts.

Sitá Ram, and Chuckl Keiftroir +, were violently beat on the Back and Sides When the Lift of Names was ready, Nadir Shah appointed Nizamal Muluck Strbullind Kban||.

* The 10th of April, 1739

† Chuckl Kefbure, the Bengal Vakel, being ordered to fend for Seven Corne of Repeet, faid, So much would make a String of Waggons from Bengal to Debts, for which being roughly used, he went home, and murdered himfelf and Family

Il Sirbillind Khan prefling very hard upon the People, Kanuch Khan, Relation to Kummin e din Ahan, with Arrib Khan, and others, killed themfelves, after paying in feveral Lacks, and the Complaints thereof coming to Nadir Shah, Twenty Lacks of Rapter were remitted to great Men, who were found ind gent. Sher f Kuli Khan, Son to Ahadr al Niffa Bazum, and several Eunuchs, complained to Mahammed Shah of Sirbillind Khan's ruining People, and his Exactions, and that he wanted Three Lacks from him. Mahammed Shah fent for Ahdil Bah Khan, one of Nadir Shah several Eunuchis, who manages betwise them Two, and had him acquaint his Master therewith, who fent for Sirbillind Khan, whom he found innocent of what was lad to his Charge.

Kummer o'din Khan, Azim Allah Khan, and Mortifa Khan, the Brother of Murid Khan. to collect the Money: he told them, he expected they would collect the faid three Crore *, and pay it in ten Days Time: They divided the Sum and Names into five Parts. and had a 1000 Kuzzlebash Horsemen, 200 each, that in Case any on their List made Delays in paying their Quota, they might oblige them thereto by Blows: So that on the 10th + at Noon, the faid Omras, with the appointed Horsemen, set about collecting the Money: The People, in Respect to their Circumstances, were very unequally taxed, for some who were Masters of ten Lacks 1, were only fet down 5000 ||, and others who could not muster 10,000 &, were set down 12,000 *. This was not owing either to the Favour or III-Will of the Managers, but to their own good or bad Luck; and when the Sums were once ascertained, there was no Redress to be had. Many of them, during the collecting of the Money, were,

* 15000 i.

<sup>* 3,750,000</sup> l. † April 8, 1739. ‡ 125,000 l. | 625 l. § 1250 l.

202 The HISTORY of

by bad Usage, forced to dispatch themselves, and Numbers died of the Blows they received; those who came best off, had either a Leg or an Arm lamed; from Morning to Night, nothing was done or thought of, but gathering in this Money, in which no Barbarities were left unpractifed. This fo dispirited the Inhabitants, that if one Kuzzleball Horfeman came among 10000 of them, he might fafely use them with all the Severities he pleased. This Work went on until the Day Nadir Shah left the City, when near four Crore * were collected from the People. Three Crore +, and thirty Lacks of Rupees, were paid into Nadir Shab's Treafury, and seventy Lacks I were made away with among his Omras, and some expended among the 1000 Horsemen; a great deal was funk in the undervaluing of Goods, for a Horse worth 500 Rupees ||, was only rated at 5 Tomans §, which is 100 Rupees, and Shauls of 50 Rupees * taken at one Toman, or twenty Rupees 1, and Jewels and other Goods, in the fame Proportion: What the Shah took was valued in this Manner, and received for so much in the Contribution Account; but what he had no occasion for was fold, and the Produce brought to Account, which was no Advantage to the Owners of the Goods, as there were no Buyers but the Kuzzlebash.

<sup>* 5,000,000</sup> l. † 4,125,000 l. $ 875000 l. || 62 l. 10 s. $ 12 l. 10 s. || 6 l. 5 s. $ 2 l. 10 s.

Since the Day of the general Slaughter, wherever any Granaries were, the Kuzzelebalb feized them; this and the Roads being stopt to all Quarters made Wheat 2 Seers a Rupee, Rice 1½ Seer, and Ghee ½ Seer: Things were at that Rate for about twenty Days; at last, Sirbulland Khan and Azim Alla Khan, having obtained a Pass and Licence, sent several Waggons to fetch Corn from Feridabad. Whoever had any Carriages, sent them, several of the poor People and Bantans going along with them.

In a little Time Wheat was fold feven Seers for a Rupee, but no more Rice than 2½ Seers, and Geer 7 of a Seer; during this Time the Kuzzlebafh Horfemen were wont to go round about Feridabad, and other Places, marrauding twenty and thirty Cose each Way, spoiling all the Fields, and plundering all the Villages as they went, and killing the

Dd 2 Inha-

204 The HISTORY of

Inhabitants that made any Refistance. They gave their Horses, Camels, &c Barley and Wheat-Straw instead of Grass, and the People of the City could have neither at any Rate, so that most of their Cattle died

The latter End of Mobirrim*, Danishmund Khan (whose Brother Mullab Ali Akber was the Shab's Mullab Bashi) was, by Nadir Shab's Recommendation, raised to the Mansiab of 7000, with its full Jaguir, besides the Post of Mahommed Shab's Khan Samars, but a few Days after Nadir Shab's Departure he fell fick, and on the 14th of Ribby al Aul + departed this Life Excepting him, Nadir Shab recommended none else to the Emperor

On Tuefday the 3d-Safer ‡, all the Omras were ordered by Nadir Sbab to be present at Mahommed Shab's by five o'Clock in the Morning, where they put on forty-two Khalaets, sent thither by Nadir Shab for them The Khalaets for Nizam al Muluck, Sirbullind Klan, Kuminer o'din Khan, and Mahommed Khan Bungush, were

The latter End of April

§ Aban Saman, Steward of the Houshold

† The 10th of Jure, 1739

The 1st of May, 1739

A rich Atlass Vest

A Hunting Coat, of a rich Stuff wove with Gold

Four Yards of Tiffue

A rich Mandil or Turban

A Persian Sabre mounted with Gold

A Knife with a Sheath of enamell d Gold.

The rest of the Kbalaets were different, some had five Pieces, some sour, three and two, and some had only one Piece of Gold, or one Piece of Silver Stuff, according to the Rank they bore

About eight in the Morning, Mahommed Shah, seated in a Royal Litter, with a Canopy, Umbrella, and one led Litter, with several of the Omras, went towards the General Divan, the Omras being mounted at a small Distance behind him, when they came near the General Divan, the Emperor ordered Saad o din Khan to let none but the Head Omras, and a sew of the Chief Manfubdars go further At the Door of the General Divan all the Omras alighted, and followed on Foot to the Door of the private Divan, where Nadir Shah was, there the Emperor came off his Royal Litter, and went in, after they had mutually embraced, they breakfasted together, and the Omras like-wise had Breakfast given them A little after, the following Things were brought in for Mahommed Shab

A Crown fet with Jewels

A Sirpeach ||, Ditto

A Bazoubund *, Ditto

A Girdle, Ditto

A Sword, the Handle set with Jewels,

A Sword with a straight Blade, such as most of the Deceanners use, called Dhoub

An enamelled Guttarri

The Crown Nadir Shah put on with his own Hands, making him in Apology at the fame Time After giving him fome Advice, he took Leave of him The Substance of the Advice was as follows 'In the first' Place, you must seize all the Omras Jaguirs, and pay each of them according to their Mansubs and Rank, with rendy Money, out of the Treasury You are to allow none to keep any Forces of his own,

|| Surpeach is a Band or Fillet richly wove, and some times set with Jewels, which is wore round the Turban

* Bazzuhund is a Rescelet

but you yourself are constantly to keep 60,000 chosen Horsemen, at fixty Rusees per Month, one with another: Every ten Men to have one Debbashi *, every ten Debbalbi's one Sudival +, and every ten Sudivals one Hazarri 1. You ought to be well acquainted with the Merits of each, their Name, their Family, and Nation, onot allowing any of them, Officers, Soldiers, or others, to be idle or unactive. ' When an Occasion may require, detach a fufficient Number, under the Command of one, whom you can trust for Conduct, ' Courage, and Fidelity, and when that Business is over, recal them immediately, ' not letting any Person stay too long in Com-' mand, for Fear of bad Confequences, You ' are more particularly to beware of Nizam ' al Muluck, whom, by his Conduct, I find ' to be full of Cunning, and Self-interested, ' and more ambitious than becomes a Subject.' Mahommed Shah knowing these Advices proceeded from Good-will, was very thankful, and defired him, as his Empire depended on

* Dehbafbi, an Officer over ten Men.

† Sudival, an Officer over a Hundred.

# Hazarri, a Captain of a Thousand.

him, that he would appoint those whom he thought most deserving of the principal Posts. Nadir Shah said, 'That will not be at all for your Interest; such Officers will ' have little Deference for you in my Abfence; when I am gone, dispose of every fence; when I am gone, dispose of every Post to those whom you think most worthy, and should they or any of them rebel, upon the first Advice, I'll fend a Person to chastise them; if it be necessary, I'll fend Forces; or, on Occasion, I can be with you myself in forty Days, from Kbandabar; but upon all Events don't reckon me far but upon all Events don't reckon me f

After this, Mahommed Shah taking Leave, returned back to Aeysh Mehl, from whence he gave the Omras leave to go Home.

On Wednefday the 4th *, Nadir Shah fent for Nizam al Muluck, Strbullind Khan, and the other Omras, and having enjoined them Obedience to Mahommed Shah, and threatned them in Cafe of their rebelling, took his Leave.

It was reported that Nadir Shab declared before fome of his Omras, fuch as Thamas Khan, Loutf Ali Khan, and others, that he had acted indifcreetly in regard to two Things; one was his giving the Empire to Mahammed Shab, who being unequal to fo great a Task, the Affairs of India would become worse than formerly; the other, his giving Quarter to Nizamal Mulack, who being so very subtle and crasty, it was more than probable he would raise Disturbances; but as according to the Decrees of Providence; and the Assistance of their own good Fortune, he had once passed his Word to them, he could not act contrary thereto.

On Friday the 6th+, the Shab's $Peifikhanna went to Shalimār. A Munaddi went about to give Notice, that after the Troops should begin to march, none of the Kuzzlebafb, or others belonging to the Army, should tarry in the City, and forbid any Person to entertain or conceal any such in their Honses, and that none belonging to the Army should carry along with them any Male or Fernale

† The 4th of May, 1739

† Nadir Shah's March was to have been the 27th Mohrrim, but was delayed, on Account of Fosdar Khon. Balouche's running away with his Men towards the Rajahi, on being demanded more than one Lack of Rupers, which he was fift taxed with

210 The History of

Captives, excepting Slaves bought with ready Money with a Writing from the Seller, attefted by Witneffes declaring his Confent and Satisfaction, or Women lawfully married to them, and even those Slaves and Wives not to be carried away if in the least contrary to their own Inclinations; and that whoever should transgress any of these Orders should forseit both his Life and Estate.

Upon this almost all who were married in Debli fent back their Wives on finding them unwilling to leave their Native Country, only a few of the Chief Commanders and Officers, by the mildest Means and Intreaties, prevailed on some to seem contented to go; which Nadir Shab, after some Day's March, being informed of, he ordered them all to be immediately fent back.

On Saturday the 7th §, Nadir Shah moved to Shalimar, and gave positive Orders, that all the Soldiers should quit the City that Day.

On Sunday *, before his March from these Gardens, he ordered his Army to be mustered; and it was reported to him, that

§ May 5, 1739. * May 6, 1739.

400 Soldiers and Servants had deferted. The Shah ordered Scidy Folad Khan, the Cutual, to find out those People, and send them with a Guard to the Army, and commanded several of the Nissikebis and Rikas likewise to assist. The Cutual, after great Search, sound about fixty, and sent them away with a Party of his own Horse and some Nissikhebis; they reached the Army near Serbind, where the Shah ordered all their Heads to be cut off. In the mean Time, Serdy Folad Khan, hav-he was going to fend them also; but on hearing how the others were treated, he waited on the Emperor, and represented the Matter to him. Mahommed Shah said: 'He'll certainly kill these poor Wretches also, if they are sent, why should we be accessary to so much innocent Blood? Let them go wherever they please.'

ing seized several more of those Deserters,

Nadir Shab, by continual Marches, arrived near Labor, and we are informed, that he plundered and killed the People of Tannifer, and feveral other Villages. The Occasion of which was thus: The Army constantly sending out Parties to sorage, and bring Corn and other Necessaries; the

E c 2 Country

212 The History of

Country People, who used to watch these Opportunities, attacked the Stragglers, and killed and plundered them of their Horses, and what else they had; in the Night-time also they were very troublesom, and stole whatever they could come at, which very much enraged the Shab, having lost above a thousand Mules, Camels and Yabous before he got as far as Labor. It was reported, that Nadir Shab, having called the Zemidar of Karnal (which is the Place where he got his Victory) gave him 5000 Rupees towards peopling a Village on the same Spot he incamped, and directed him to give it the Name of Patteb abad ||.

Some Days before he left Debli, he fent Part of his Army before to Labor; when they approached the Place, and Zekaria Khan was apprized thereof, he called together all the great Men, Merchants, Serafs*, and wealthy People of the City. At their Meeting it was agreed, that the Khan and they should go out of the City, and fend a Message to the Commanding Officer, in these * Bankers and Money Changers.

ا فنج اباد ا Fatteh abad, fignifies the Habitation of Words: ' If your Defign be to flaughter the Inhabitants, Lot we are here present; if · Plunder be your Intent, the City is deserted, and our Effects left there; or, if Money be what you want, the Soubabdar and Citizens can raife no more than one Crore +; fo whatfoever your Intentions or Orders are, ' that execute: This is a fmall City, and ' not able to withstand the Fury of an Army, s as Debli is.' On Receipt of this Message, the Commanding Officer thought proper to represent the Affair to his Master, who ordered him to receive the Crore of Rupees, and to molest them no further. After the Payment of the Money, he drew off, and joined the main Army upon their March.

Nadir Shab, by continual and long Marches, passed by Labor, on one Side.

On Tuesday, the 1 oth ‡, Sirbullind Khan, having placed Guards about the Castle, commanded as Chief Officer for that Day: Next Day, he was ordered to come off, and to mount Guard only on Mondays. After going from the Castle, he went to see Nizam al Muluck, who happening to be in Kummir

<sup>† 1,250,000 /, †</sup> The 8th of May, 1739.

214 The HISTORY of

e'din Khan's House, he had an Opportunity of visiting both, and then returned to his own House.

Until this Day, a great many of the Bodies killed on the Day of the general Massacre, lay putrified in some of the Streets and Bazzars.

On Thursday, the 12th ||, in the Morning, Azim Allah Khan, and in the Afternoon, Kummir o'din Khan, went to visit Sirbullind Khan.

On Sunday, the 15th*, the Emperor came from Aefb Mebl, to the General Divan, where he fat four Gurris S, during which Time, the Omras came to pay their Obeifance, making their Prefents at the fame Time. Nizam al Muluck; on returning from the Castle, went to Sirbullind Khan's House; for fince Nizam al Muluck's.coming from Deccan, until the 11th Instant, neither of them had been to visit each other.

On Friday, the 20th +, Emir Khan was

The 10th of May, 1739.

* The 13th of May, 1739.

§ One Hour 36 Minutes.

† The 18th of May, 1739.

honoured with a Sirrapab, a Paleki, with Net-work, and the Office of third Bukhfhi t.

Ilbak Khan, with a Sirrapab, a Paleki with Net-work, and the Office of Duan Khalefibll. Azîm Allab Khan, with a Sirrapab, and the Office of Sedr.

Abtilbam Khan, Khandoran's Son, with a Sirrabab, and the Office of Darogba Khals*.

On the 14th of Ribby al Avul +. Danilbmund Khan, who, by Nadir Shab's Recommendation, had got the Office of Khan Saman, departed this Life. So, on the 16th 1. Sand o'din Khan received a Sirrapah, and was promoted to that Office.

From the Day that Nadir Shab left Debli. until this, which is the 26th of Ribby al Avul ||, nothing was done or proposed, in Regard to the State of Affairs in the Empire. Even this Blow, which is sufficient to give an Idea of the Trumpet of the Day of Judg-

t The Third Paymaster.

| Duan Khalefih, the Accomptant General of the King's Revenues.

* Darogah Khafi, Superintendant of the Houshold.

† The 10th of June, 1739.

<sup>1</sup> The 12th of June, 1739.

The 22d of June, 1739

216 The History of

ment, could not in the least awaken out of the heavy Sleep of Security, and Lethargy of Indolence, those People, who were so much intoxicated with the Wine of Pride, and Self-conceit. They all agreed in a general Ill-will to each other, and their whole Talk and Conversation was full of Envy and Detraction.

Of the Buildings that were in Part demolished, and damaged, in the Day of the general Massacre, some that suffered least, are inhabited again, and the rest remain defert; which, if not begun to be repaired before the Rains set in, will be quite destroyed.

The Inhabitants, from the Terror of this Calamity, like People possess, and in Fits, are quite stupissed, and not yet come to themselves, and what is still more strange, (notwithstanding the Oppressions and Disgrace, the People of this Empire have met with, since Nadur Shab's Departure) the indecent Expressions, and beastly Actions of his Soldiers, are the constant Subjects of Discourse, in all Companies, related with a seeming Satisfaction and Pleasure, and by Way of Jest and Drollery; not being in the least affected with their past Disgrace and Misfortunes; but, on the contrary, feemed forry for his going away, excepting Sirbullind Khan, who, three Years ago, foresaw this Calamity, and retired from public Business, dreading the Consequence of Affairs being managed by fuch Omras as then bore Sway: His being an Instrument in collecting the Persbeush was involuntary, and much contrary to his Inclinations, in which he help'd and favoured feveral People as much as lay in his Power, and that in so private a Manner, that they themfelves knew not who affifted them . But hypocritical and ignorant Persons, who had neither Will or Power to affift those People, gave their Tongues too much Liberty in complaning of him: However, I refer this innocent Man's Character to the following Arabic Verses :

They say for certain that God has a Son, And say for certain the Prophet is a Ma-' gician, Neither God nor his Prophet has escaped The Tongues of Slanderers, and how shall I?

The History of 218

When after the Battle, Nadir Shah had fent for Mahommed Shah and his Boungab to his Camp, one of his Omras reprefented to him, that in the Hindoflan Camp there were 100,000 Horfes and a great many Camels, and as those People had, by his Clemency, received Quarter, should he order what Camels and Horfes were fit for the Royal Stables to be seized for his Use, it would not be so great a Hardship upon them. To which the Shah answered: 'I have given these People of the Shah answered: 'I have given the Shah answered: 'I have given these People of the Shah answered: 'I have given the Shah the Shab aniwered: 'I have given these People Quarter in all Respects; besides, the Bread of Soldiers depends on their Horses, most of them are in wretched and indigent Circumstances; should they lose their Horses, they and their Families would be reduced to Beggary and Starving. It would be far from Humanity to treat them ill, now they are at our Mercy; therefore don't molest or insult them on any Account.'

'or infult them of any Account.'

Malemmed Khan Bungush had, for a long Time, been in Expectation of the Soubahdari of Alebahad, especially after Nadir Shah's Departure; but not finding he was likely to succeed, on the 27th of Safer*, he made off, and went towards his own Zemidari. In his

<sup>5</sup> The a5th of Mar, 1739.

NADIR SHAH. 219

Way he plundered feveral Villages, and meeting the Vanjarras +, who were carrying Corn to Sbabjebanabad, carried them along with him.

After fome Days, Ali Hamed Khan, Ali Amjid Khan, Ali Alghur Khan, Khan Zuman Khan, Terah Ali Khan, Azem Khan, and others, in all Twenty-two Omras and Manfubdars, who had run away out of the Field of Battle and Camp, as also Mahommed Khan Bungush, who (without Leave) had retired Home, were all discharged the Service.

Nizam al Muluck and Kummir o'din Khan wrote to Mahammed Khan, that if he came back, or fent his Son to attend at Court, it was probable his Manfith and Jaguir should still be continued to him, if not, he must expect no Favour. Mahammed Khan returned for Answer: 'If my Request is complied 'with, I will come, if not, I will go on to 'my own Zemidani.'

Since the Battle of Karnal, until Nadir Shab's Departure from Shabjebanahad, the Lois fultained by the Emperor and the People

† People who go a Trading in great Droves, and carry their Goods on Oxen.

The HISTORY of

within and without the City, in Jewels, Treafure, Goods, Effects, and destroying of Fields, fetting afide the Lofs of the Buildings, amounted to very near one Arrib t of Rupees, out of which Nadir Shab carried away to the Value of 70 Crores || in Jewels and other Effects; and his Officers and Soldiers 10 Crores*. The Charges of his Army, while he continued there, the Arrears, Pay and Gratuity advanced them, with what Goods were destroyed by Fire, and Fields laid waste, made near 20 Crores + more.

The Particulars of what Nadir Shah carried away with him:

25

9

Jewels from the Emperor and Omras, valued at

Utenfils and Handles of Weapons fet with Jewels, with the Peacock Throne, and nine others fet with precious Stones

Money Coined in Gold and Silver

Rupees Gold and Silver Plate which he melted down and coin'd

1 125,000,000 L $ 87,500,000% 12,500,000%.

1 25,000,000 /.

Fine

NADIR SHAH. 221

Carried over 64

Fine	Cloths and rich	Stuffs of	ali
Kinds				2
Houl	hold Furniture,	and other	va-
luchla C	Commodities			^

Warlike Weapons, Cannon, &c.

70

Elephants 1000, Horses 7000, Camels 10,000, Eunuchs 100, Writers 130, Smiths 200, Masons or Builders 300, Stone-Cutters 100, Carpenters 200.

Natir Shab had the Draught of the Caftle and City of Shabjebanabadtaken, and gave to the abovementioned Artificers, Horses, and what other Carriages were necessary for their Journey, allowing them a sufficient Pay. The Terms he entered into with them were, to follow their several Occupations for three Years in Kandabar; at the Expiration of which, they were to have Liberty, either to return Home, or continue there. But in their Way to Labor, several of them made their Escape, and returned hither.

Since Nadir Shab's entering this Country, until his getting to Lalar in his March back,

The HISTORY of

200,000 of the Inhabitants of this Empire were destroyed, as follows:

From Labor to Karnal were killed on the Roads and in the Villages

Killed in the Battle of Karnal Those killed during the Space of three Days after the Battle, in the Highways and round about the

Camp, were

Those killed on their March to the City, in Sonput, Paniput, and other Villages that were plundered

Those killed in the general Masfacre, by the exactest Computation 110,000.

After the general Massacre were killed in Rouh Allah Khan's Serai, and the Villages and Fields round about where they went a marrauding, which is about thirty Cofs each Way

On their March back, in Tanifeer and other Villages

Those who had laid violent Hands upon themselves, the Women who drown'd and burnt them14,000.

17,000.

7,000.

25,000

12,000.

<sup>193,000</sup> felves,

NADIR SHAH.

Carried over 193,000

selves, as also those who died of Famine and other Hardships, amounted to about 7,000.

200.000.

A Translation of the Cession made by Mahommed Shah to Nadir Shah of all the Territories to the Westward of the River Attok.

Formerly, the Ministers ‡ of his High Majesty (who is exalted like Saturn ||, fierce as Mars*, impetuous as the God of War, King of the Kings of the Earth, Prince of the Princes of the Age, the Shadow of God and Refuge of Islam, in Pompilse Alexander, the Heavens his Court, the Sultan who is merciful, and the Emperor

Sultan who is merciful, and the Emperor who is august, Nader Shab, may God per petuate his Reign) had sent Ambassadors

† In the East it is not polite to fay to a Prince, he did or faid such a Thing, but that his Ministers and Servants did it.

Saturn being the most remote from the Centre of the System.

224 · The HISTORY of

to this Court, to treat of certain Affairs which I intended to comply with; after-wards Mahommed Khan Turcoman arrived from Kandahar, to remind me thereof,

'ed from Kandabar, to remind me thereof, but my Ministers and Agents having delayed the Ambassadors, and postpon'd an A-

'fiver to his High Majefty's Letter, raifed fuch a Mifunderstanding between us, that his successful Army having come to the Confines of Hindostan, both Parties, encountered in the Fields of Karnal, where, after tered in the Fields of Karnal, where, after a Royal Battle was fought, as Providence would have it, Victory to Appearance role from the East of his undeclining Fortune.

As his High Maielly who is mighty as

* from the East of his undeclining Fortune.

As his High Majefty, who is mighty as * Jumpheid+, and the greatest of the Tur * comans, is the Source of Goodness and * Prowess; relying on his Honour, and * trusting to his Support, I had the Satisfaction of an Interview, and enjoyed the Pleafure of coing entertained in his Paradife-like Company. After which, we came together to Shajebanabad, where I brought forth to his View, and with the proper Ceremony prefented to him, all the Treasure, Jewels,

† One of the ancient Kings of Persia, remarkable for his Greatness and Power.

and

NADIR SHAH. 225

and precious Effects of the Hindoltan Emnerors: his Maiesty, in Compliance with my Request, accepted of fome: And out of the Greatness of his Soul, and abundant ' Humanity, in Regard to the illustrious Fa-" mily of Gourgan, and the Honour of the Original Tree of Turkan, was graciously spleased to restore to me the Crown and Gem of Hindoltan.

In Confideration of this Favour, which no Father shows to a Son, nor no Brother to a Brother, I make over to him all the Countries to the West of the River Attok. the Water of Scind, and Nala Sunkra which 'is a Branch of the Water of Scind: That is to fay, Peilhor with its Territories, the Principality of Cabul, Ghoznavi, the mountainous Residences of the Afgbans, the Has zarijat and the Paffes, with the Caffle of Bucker, Sunkar, and Khoudabad: The rest of the Territories, Passes, and Abodes of the Chokias, Balluches, &c. with the Pro-' vince of Tatta, the Castle of Ram, and the 'Village of Terbin, the Towns of Chun, ' Sumawali and Ketra, &c. Places dependant on , Tatta: All their Fields, Villages, ' Castles, Towns, and Ports from the first Rife.

226 The HISTORY of Rife of the River Attok, with all the Paffes

Rife of the River Attok, with all the Paffes and Habitations, which the abovefaid Water and its feveral Branches comprehends and furrounds, as far as Nala Sunkra, where it empties itself into the Sea: In short, all

furrounds, as far as Nala Sunkra, where it empties itself into the Sea: In short, all Places Westward of the River Attok, and those Parts, and Westward of the River Scind, and Nala Sunkra, I have annexed

Scind, and Nala Sunkra, I have annexed to the Dominions of that powerful Sovereign, that from henceforth his Agents and Servants may enter upon and fet about the Management and the fecuring of the above-faid Territories, taking the Government and Command of those several Places, Tribes and Inhabitants into their own Hands; my Officers, Servants, &c. evacuating the abovefaid Places, as being severed from my Dominions, and entirely renouncing all Right they have or might formerly have had to command, controul or collect any Revenues there; the Castle and

Town of Lobry Bundar, with all the Countries to the East of the River Attok, Water of Scind, and Nala Sunkra, shall, as formerly, belong to the Empire of Hindelman Duted at Shajehanabad, the 4th of Mobirrim 1, 1152.

1 The 2d of April, 1739.

A Personal Description and Character of Nadir Shah, which I had from the Gentleman who savoured me with the Account of his Exploits before his Expedition to India.

Years, upwards of fix Foot high, well-proportion'd, of a very robust Make and Conftitution, his Complexion fanguine and inclining to be fat, but the Fatigue he undergoes prevents it; he has fine large Black-eyes and Eye-brows; and, in fhort, is one of the most comely Men I ever beheld. The Injury the Sun and Weather have done to his Complexion only gives him a more manly Afpect. His Voice is fo uncommonly loud and strong, that he frequently, and without straining it, gives Orders to his People at above a hundred Yards Distance. He drinks Wine with Moderation, but is extremely addicted to Women, in which he affects great Variety, and yet never neglects his Bufiness on their Account; his Gg 2 . Hours

228 The HISTORY of

Hours of Retirement among the Ladies are but few, feldom entering their Apartments before Eleven or Twelve at Night, and is up and in Public by Five in the Morning, His Diet is fimple, chiefly Pillaw and plain Difhes; and, if public Affairs require his Attendance, he neglects his Meals, and fatisfies his Hunger with a few parched Peafe (of which he always carries fome in his Pockets) and a Draught of Water. In the Camp, or in the City, he is almost constantly in Public, and if not, he may be fent to, or fpoke with by any Person. He musters, pays and cloaths his Army himfelf, and will not fuffer any Perquifites to be taken from the Soldiers by his Officers, on any Pretence whatever. He has Monthly Accounts transmitted to him of the State of Affairs in all Parts of his Dominions, and holds a Correfpondence with his feveral private Spies in every Place: Besides, in every Province and City there is a Person called Hum Calâm, appointed to inspect into the Governor's Actions, and keep a Register of them; no Affair of any Confequence can be transacted but in the Presence of that Officer, who, besides the Account the Governor is obliged to fend Monthly,

NADIR SHAH. 229

Monthly, transinits his Journal by a separate Conveyance whenever he thinks proper, without permitting the Governor to peruse it; he has no settled Salary or Gratuity for his Trouble, but is rewarded or punished just as Nader Shab finds he deserves. This extraordinary Caution in a great Meafure prevents the Governor's oppressing the People, or entering into any Conspiracies of Rébellions against him. He is extremely generous, particularly to his Soldiers, and bountifully rewards all in his Service, who behave well. He is, at the same Time, very severe and first in his Discipline, pumshing with Death those who commit a great Offence; and with the Loss of their Ears, those whose Transgressions are of a slighter Nature; he nover pardons the Guilty of what Rank foever, and is highly displeased, if, after he has throughly examined the Affair, any Person prefumes to intercede in their Behalf, before which they may give their Sentiments with Freedom.

When on a March, of in the Field, he contents himself to eat, drink, and sleep like a common Soldier, and enures all his Officers to the same severe Dieipline. He is of so hardy

230 The History of a Constitution, that he has been often known, of a frosty Night to repose himself upon the Ground in the open Air, wrapt up in his Cloak, with only a Saddle for his Pillow, especially when, upon an extraordinary Enterprize which required Expedition, he has been obliged to out-march his Baggage, by which Means he has fallen upon the Enemy when they leaft expected him. He is never happy but when in the Field, and laments the Time he is obliged to stay in a City to refresh his Troops, in which (as in all Things else) he uses the utmost Dispatch. His Meals are over in less than Half an Hour, after which he returns to Business; so that the Servants who attend him standing are changed three or four Times a Day. He never indulges himfelf in any Kind of Pleafure in the Day-time, but conflantly at Sun-fet retires to a private Apartment; where, unbending himfelf at once from Buliness, he sups with three or four Favourites, and drinks a Quart, or at most three Pints of Wine, behaving all the Time in the freeft and most facetious Manner. In this private Conversation no Person is allowed to mention any Thing relating to public Bufiness, nor, at other Times, must they

NADIR SHAH. 231

they presume, upon this Intimacy to behave with more Familiarity than their Equals. Two of his Evening-Companions happening to transgress in that Point, by taking the Liberty to advise him in Public, he immedately ordered them to be strangled, saying: Such Fools were not fit to live, who could not distinguish between Nadir Shab and Nadir. Kuli. He has been very kind to those who please him in private Conversation, and behave with a becoming Decency and Deference in Public, where they are taken no more Notice of, nor have they any more Influence over him than othersof the same Rank.

His Mother, who was living in the Year 1737, (at the Request of some who were attached to the Royal Family) intreated Nadir Shah, some Time after he had seized the King, to restore him, not doubting but his Majesty would make him sufficient Amends, by creating him Generalissimo for Life. He ask'd her 'whether she really thought so the she told him, 'She did.' Upon which he smil'd and said, 'If I was an old Woman, 'perhaps I might be inclined to think so too, 'and desired her to give herself no Trouble 'about State Affairs.'

232 · The HISTORY of

He was married to Shah Thamas's Aunt. the youngest Sister of Shah Sultan Hussein, by whom, I heard, he had one Daughter. He has feveral young Children by his Concubines. and two Sons by a Woman he married in his Obscurity. The Eldest, Reza Kuli Mirza, is about twenty-five Years of Age. He was trained up from his Childhood in the Army, where from a Subalternhe has been gradually advanced to the Rank of a General and appointed Vice-Roy of Perfia, during his Father's Expedition to India. The fecond Son Nefr Allah Mirza, who is about twenty-one Years of Age, is nominal Governor of Mulhad and the Province of Khorafan, having a Person to direct and manage for him.

His eldest Son, when he ranked as a Lieutenant, had only that Pay to subsist on, and in all other Stations had no more than his Commission entitled him to. His Father regarded him no more than he did the other Officers, and permitted him to affociate with them, giving him to know, that if he was gusty of any Crime or Breach of Duty, he should be punished with as great Rigour as any of the rest. On his behaving well he not only promoted him, but increased his Paternal ternal Affection for him. They who knew the young Man (for I never faw him) judge he'll make full as great a Figure in the World as his Father; having given fignal Proofs of his Courage and Conduct in feveral Battles, and of his great Abilities in other Respects while Nadir Shab was in India. By my private Advices from thence I'm inform'd, that he govern'd the Empire with great Skill, and kept every Thing quiet and easy until his Father's Return.

Among Nadir Shab's extraordinary Faculties, his Memory is not the leaft to be admired, there being few Things of Moment that he ever faid or did, but what he remembers; and can readily call all the principal Officers in his numerous Army by their Names. He knows most of the private Men who have ferved under him any Time, and can recollect when and for what he punished and rewarded any of them. He dictates to one or two Secretaries, and gives Orders about other Affairs at the fame Time, with all the Regularity and Promptness imaginable.

In Tune of Action, I'm told, he is equally furprising, it being scarce credible how quick he is in discerning the Odds on either Side, and how active in fuccouring his Troops. If any of his General Officers give Ground without being greatly over-powered, he rides up and kills him with a Battle-ax (which he always carries in his Hind) and then gives the Command to the next in Rank. In all the Battles, Skirmiflies, and Sieges he has been engaged in (altho' be generally charges at the Head of his Troops) he never received the leaft Wound or Sear, and yet feveral Horfes have been fliot under him, and Bullets have grazed on his Armour.

234 The History of

I could relate inany other remarkable Things that I have feen and heard of this great Hero, whose Actions already are sufficient to convince the World, that sew Ages have produced his Equal. As he has performed such Wonders when he had hardly Money or Men, what may we not expect from him now he is possess'd of so immense a Treasure? 'Tis probable he may live thirty Years longer, and in that Space of Time, if his Deligns are attended with the same Success he has hitherto met with, to what Pitch of Grandeur may not a Man of his unbounded Ambition and Courage arrive at?

AN

INDEX

Referring to the Page where the following Words are particularly Explain'd

' Page	Arrizbegi 140
A BD - 71	Ashruff 94
Abdallab 71	Afof Jab 64
Abdollees 92	Attok 130
Abd o' Rahman - 71	Aumar 117
Abu Buckr — 117	Auringabad 30
Abul Fazl 11	Auringzebe — 28
Abul Mazuffer 47	Azem - 38
Anssh Mabl — 178	Azîm 40
Afghans — 7	Azlm al Shan - 40
Affbars 72	•
Agra — 24, 31	${f B}$
Abeers —— 153	Babadr Shab 39
Abmedab ad 29	Babar Banu 23
Abmednagur - 35	Babeers 174
Attmad al Dowlat 140	Bajeerau 65
Akbar — 38	Bakhtiaris 157
Akbarabad — 24	Bakhter — 157
Al: 117	Bargab 172
Alumguir 29	Barram - 155
Amead Bukb/b 28	Bazoubund - 207
Aram Bann Begum 19	Beaura 190
Arjumund Banu 27	Bedar Bukh - 41
Arrib - 25	Beglerbeg - 73
-	Begum

I N D E X.

Deguin	19	-
Bhagnagur —	32	E.
Bijapore -	32	Ezabad — 31
Boungah	154	Eaz o'din — 42
Bukbshi	215	E1dgab 184
Bullind Akhter	38	Eild rm 3
	•	Emir - 55,63
C		Emir al Mominin 125
Cabul	36	Emir al Omra 43
Chaboutra -	183	Enam - 48
Chandni Chok	182	Eugene - 29
Chaux	140	-
Chin Kuleejh Khan	44	F. *
Choppar -	189	Fakirs — — 189
Chot	65	Farfang 4
Coins of Nadir Shall	1119	Fallaba 126
•	120	Fattebabad 212
Cofs measured and	com	Fattebpour - 19
puted	20	Firmán 45
Courd	141	Fojbdar 45, 51
Crore	25	Furrukbfir - 42
Croris -	45
Cuttari	199	G.
Cutual	183	Ganims 33
		Ghazı o'dın 44
D.		Ghee 168
Dam	26	Golconda 32
Dara Shekow h	28	Gouzrán 48
Derogha Khafs	215	Gouzrbans 46
Davr Bukhfh	22	Guahar — 32
Deliasht -	207	Gurris 2
Debli	3
Dirbar 156,		H.
Dowlat Afz	28	Hakem 131
Duan	49	Henbel - 117
Duan Khalfib	215	Hanıfa

	I	1	) E	X.
Mabommed		6	Nefr	Allab	41
Malek		117	Neffin	o'din	- 8
Malika al Zi	emanı	173	Niqu		140
Manfub		45	Niffit	bchi	173
Manfubdar		45		m al Mu	luck 44
Manzel		2		Jehan	20
Matim		198		Mabl	20
Mauzm		38	Nour	o'dîn	19
Mauz o'din		40		_
Mehd Alia		25	_	Ο.
M.m Bafbı		73	Ontra		55
Mir Bukbfbi		58	Otbm	an	117
Misjidd		183			•
Mogbel Orre	25	133		P.
Moby o'din		29	Pabr		180
Morad	_	18	Panja		10
Morad Bukly		28		z banu	29
Mother al Me		140	Parve		23
Moureba		152	Patta	ns	7
Munaddi		148	Peifbo	цЬ	48
Mushadd		73	Peilho	r	134
Mufnidd		163	Peifhk	banna	134
Muttefiddis		47	Poulm		184
N				R.
Nadır			Kaffee	ib al Din
Nadır Kuls	71,			Dowl	1.5
Naib		71		— Kadı	-1-
Nakar Khann		141	Rabed	- Shan	40
Nafr jing	4 .	153		ars in Buksb	46
Nafr-c'dys		44	Rajab	ш ыкуо	41
Navob		54 141	Rajab	Sahau	22
Nazem		49	Rajpor	ef t	33 32
Nazem Mund	em	49 140	Rans		22
Nazr	· .	48	Retz		181
		4,		R	oisbinrae
				-	•

INDEX.

Roishinrai	28	Sudival	207
Rupee 25,	26, 50	Sujab	28
S.		Suliman Bourge	178
Sabou Rajab	33	Suliman Shekowb	32
Schias	117	Sultana Nissa	22
Scind	or	Sultan Khourm	23
Sedr	123	Eunnis	117
Seer Cacha an	d Pucca	Suria Banu	28
•	168	Ť.
Selim	18	Taage Mahl	25
Selima	18	Tabal	126
Selangur	54	Takbi Revan	162
Sepeb Shekowb	38	Tazia	198
Sera, Serai, 01	: Seragho	Temur	1
•	67	Thamas Kult	97
Seraf	212	Tosshik Khanna	173
Serafa ardui	184	Tokbîr	126
Settara	33		202
Shafi	117	Towper Bash:	173
Shab	35	ν.
Shahab o' din	24		6
Shah Alum	39		163
Shah Jehan	2.4	- Vanjarras	219
Shahjebanaba	4 4	3 Vijapore	32
Shah zada	1		52
Shakr nıssa	1
Shehriar	2	3 Wallah Yah	41
Sher Afkan	2	· v	4.
Sinnid	4	9 17.2	154
Sirpeach	20	_	154
Sırrapab Solar Year	4
Soubab			6
Soubabdar		34. Zem 34. Zemidors 🖡	46
Stage	•	2. Zen al att	46
030	FΙ	N I S.	35

BOOKS Printed for and Sold by A. MILLAR.

I. HE Works of Francis Bacon, Lord High Chancellor of England With feveral Additional Pieces, never before printed in any Educon of his Works To which is prefixed, A New Life of the Author, by Mr. MALLET. In 4 Vol

II The Additional Pieces, and Life, may be had alone to complet the former Edition. In one Volume Folio

III The Liff, in Oflino In this Work, befides an accurate Review of the Reigns of Queen Elizabeth and King James I, the Charafters of the most eminent Persons that flouristic under both those Princes, are occasionally drawn

TWA CONSERT COLLECTION of the Higherial Political, and Hilpellianesse Works of John Million chaning feveral Or great Papers of His, never before published With an Hilforical and Crisical Account of the Life and Wriners of the Author By Mr Birch in 2 Vol Fohn

sings of the Author By Mr Breen In 2 Vol Folio
V The Oceana and Other Works of James HarRINGTON. Eff. with an exact Account of his Life prefix'd, by John Teland To which is added, An Arpenoix, Containing all the Policical Trads wrote by this Author, smitted in Mr Teland's Edition

The Appendix may be had alone

I THE OPPLIANT MAY OF MAIN AND HOLD THE OF T

perfine Willing Paper

curae writing raper

Preparing for the Prefs, and to be jublished so jeb all convenient Expedition

VII A NEW and COMPLETE COLLECTION of the Works, of the Hon Roere Boyle, Eq. printed from the best Editions, with confiderable Improvements and Additions from his own Manuscripts. As likewise a large Number of Letters upon various Subjects written by Himself and his Fig. nds to him, with someother Tracks never before published. To the Whole will be prefixed, A New Account of but Left, configure partly of Manuscri drawn up by himself!

If such Gendemen who have any Papers in their Hands, which may containe to the Advantage of this Work, will please to communicate them to the Undertaker A MILLAR.

the; will be thankfully acknowledged

CATALOGUE

o f

MANUSCRIPTS

INTHE

Persic, Arabic, and Sanskerrit LANGUAGES.

Collected in the East by FAMES FRASER.

LONDON:
Printed for A. MILLAR. MECCALIL

CATALOUGE

Oriental MANUSCRIPTS.

HISTORY.

ARIKH Rozis al Suffa. By Mahammed ben Khoavind Shah ben Mahamud. Dedicated to Mir Ali Sheir. In Five Volumes, Folio.

Vol. I. Containing, An Introduction concerning the Ufefulness of History, how necessary it is for those who Command and Govern, to be acquainted therewith; and what is requisite, in order to be able to compose a good History. After which, follows an Account of the Creation, Noab's Flood, and the Lives of the Patriarchs, Prophets, and Kings of Israel.

An Account of the Lives of the ancient Poets and Philosophers.

A CATOLOGUE of

The Khalifthips of Muhukhr, Aumar, Olbman, and Mt; wherein is a particular and copious Account of the first Foundation of the Arab or Saracen Emptre; all the Wars, Conquests, and Changes, that happened in their Khaliships.

Vol. III. The Lives of the Twelve Imans, and

Vol. III. The Lives of the Twelve Imams, and of all the Khalifs, from Mortifa All to Motezum B'illab, with an Account of their Wars, Conquefts, Etc. until the final Diffolition of their Empire by Holaku Khan.

Vol. IV. The Hillory of all the Kings that reigned in Perfia, from the Saracen Conquest, until it was subdued by Conguéz Khan'e Sons. The History of all the Princes that govern'd in the several Parts of Tartary, and the Confines of India, from the Time Mahommedanism was first propagated there, until the Conquest of these Countries by Chinguez Khan's Sons.

of these Countries by Chinguez Khan's Sons.
Vol. VI. The History of the famous Temour, or Tamerlane, his Sons and Successors, until the Year 830.

TUARIKH TEBRS. By Alsa Jasser Mahommed ben Herir ben Iezid al Tebri. Translated into Persic 5, with a Continuation, at the Command of Ma Saleh ben Neb at Khorasan, by Alsa Al. Mahommed ben Abelleh al Balaimi It contains the same as the first Four Volumes of Tarikh Rezit al Sussa, but only to the Year 550. It is reckoned the most authentick Hilfory they have, and is much esteemed in the East. There is an Appendix to it, containing a Geographical Account of the Countries and Places mentioned in History.

TUARIKH & Pallbaban Hind. A History of all the Mahommedan Kings that reign'd in Debli, to the Time of the Great Mogbol Jilal o'din Mahommed Abber. ROZIT aul' albab fi tuarikh al akaber v'al infab. By Aba Sulman Daud ben ali al fazl Mabonmed Bena Geti, in the Time of Sultan Abyleyd, the Sixth in a lineal Descent from Chinguez Khan. Containing the Genealogy, Sc. of the Patriarchs and Prophets, from Adam to the Death of Abraham.

The History of the ancient Kings of Persia, from Keyemers to Iestegar de Sebersar, the last King; with an Account of the famous Men and Philosophers that flourished in their Times. The Genealogy, Burth, and Life of Mabommed. The History of the Four first Khalifs, or Successors, and the Twelve Imams, with the rest of the Khalifs, to Motezum B'illab, the last Khalif of Bunn Abass.

The Hiltory of the feveral Kings that govern'd in Perfia, Tartary, &c. from the first Out-set of Iacub ben Leifs, to the latter Days of Khowr Shab.

The History of the Jews, the Prophets and Kings of Ifrael, from Mose's Time, to their last King Mattina, called by Bukbtnijfar, Sedkiah. The History of the Nazarens and Franks, with the Genealogy of the Virgin Mary, traced up to David. Also an Account of their Country, their Cefars and Popes, from the Time of the Messiah, until the Year 717 of the Hegra.

Meliah, until the Year 717 of the Hegira. An Account and Hiltory of India, and its Kings, from the Time of Pafdeau, to Alaè à tin. The Hiltory of Khatai, from the Time of Nêkou Padhah, to Allan Khan, with whom Chinguéz Khan, and his Successiors, had Wars. The Time of their Government, according to their own Historians, is 42, 875 Years.

The History of the Mogbols, and Origin of Chingúez Khan, his conquering of Perfia Ge. with an Account of his Sons and Successors, to the 25th Sheval, 717.

A CATALOGUE of

6

AKBAR NAMA By the famous Abul Fazl ben Mobarek Containing the Genealogy of the Tamerlane Race, from Adam to Akbar the Great Mogbol

The particular History of each, from Tamerlane, until the 38th Year of Akbar's Reign

A Lift and Account of all the Poets, Physici ans, Astronomers, and Jearned Men, with a Muster Roll of the Standing Forces then in the Empire

TEBCAT Akbar Shah: By Nizam o' ain Ahned ben Mahommed Mokim alrows Containing the Hi

flory and Actions of the first Invaders and Con querors of Hindostan, from the Year 367 of the Hegira, to the Conquest thereof by Tamerlane, in 801, and from him, until the 38th Year of Ak-bar's Reign With a List of all the famous Men that flourish'd in Akbar's Time, and a Muster Roll of the Army in 1002 The History of the Kings of Deccan, to the Year

1002

```
Giczerat, to 980
              929
   Malva.
             967
Chunpore, 967
   Calbmir,
```

Towards the latter End, it contains fundry Things relating to India

PADSHAHNAMA By Abdal Hamid Jabors, in 3 Vols Folio Vol I A Review of the Mogbol's Tamerlare to Shah Jeban.

The Hiftory of the first Ten Years Reign of Shah Jehan, to which is annexed his Hiftory before his Accession to the Throne.

A Muster-Roll of the Standing army, and an Account of the Treasury, Revenues, Jewels, &c. as they then stood. With an Account of what Prefents were made, the Money laid out on Publick Buildings, and Pensons fettled on the Queens, Princes, and Princesses.

Vol. II. Containing the second Ten Years of Shah Jehan's Reign; with a muster-Roll of the Standing Army, and an Account of the Trea-fury, Revenues, &c.

Vol. III. The third Ten Years of Shah Jehan's Reign, with a Multer-Roll, &c. &c. &c. The whole interferfied with feveral curious Relations, regarding the different Provinces of India, and an Account of the most remarkable Buildings, Mosques, Tombs, &c.

Maçır. Jehanguiry. By Kamgar Hoffeini. Being a full and exact Hiftory of the Great Mogbol Jehanguir, from his Birth to his Death. Intersperfed with a great many curious Relations. The Manner he was entirely managed by, and at last infulted on Account of, his beautiful Mistress Nour Jehan.

VACKEAT Babri. The Great Mogbol Babr's Commentaries of himfelf, from the Time he fat on the Throne, which was at Twelve Years of Age, until one Year before his Death. Containing an Account of his feveral Relations; as alfo the Princes who then govern'd in feveral Paits of Yartary. A full Account of his Battles in Tartary and India; a correct Defeription of India; the Soil, Climate, Manners of the People, Commodities produced therein; a List of the several

Powers

A CATALOGUE of

ĸ

AKBAR NAMA By the famous Abul Fazl ben Mobarek. Containing the Genealogy of the Tamerlane Race, from Adam to Akbar the Great Morbol

The particular History of each, from Tamerlane, until the 38th Year of Akbar's Reign

A Lift and Account of all the Poets, Phylici ans, Aftronomers, and learned Men, with a Muffer Roll of the Standing Forces then in the Empire.

Terat Akhar Shah By Nizam o' din Ahmid hen Mahommed Mokim ahrou Containing the Hiftory and Actions of the first Invaders and Conquerors of Hindestan, from the Year 367 of the Higgra, to the Conquest thereof by Tamerlane, in 801, and from him, until the 38th Year of Akhar's Reign With a List of all the famous Men that flourish'd in Akhar's Time, and a Muster Roll of the Army in 1002

The History of the Kings of Decean, to the Year

Guzerat, to 980
Bengal, 929
Maka, 967
Sund, 986
Calbmir, 995
Multan, 980
Multan, 980

Towards the latter End, it contains fundry Things relating to India.

PADSHAHNAMA. By Abdal Hamid Labors, in 3 Vols Folio

Vol I A Review of the Mogbol's History, from Tamerlane to Shah Jehan.

The

Shab Jehan, to which is annexed his History before his Accession to the Throne.

A Muster-Roll of the Standing army, and an

A Muster-Roll of the Standing army, and an Account of the Treasury, Revenues, Jewels, &c. as they then stood. With an Account of what Prefents were made, the Money laid out on Publick Buildings, and Pensons settled on the Queens, Princes, and Princesses.

Vol. II. Containing the fecond Ten Years of Shah Jeban's Reign; with a muster-Roll of the Standing Army, and an Account of the Treafixty, Revenues, &c.

Vol. III. The third Ten Years of Shah Jehan's
Reign, with a Muster-Roll, &c. &c. &c.

The whole interspersed with several cursous Relations, regarding the different Provinces of India, and an Account of the most remarkable Buildings, Mosques, Tombs, &c.

Macra Jebanguiry. By Kangar Hosseini. Being a full and exact History of the Great Mogbol Jebanguir, from his Birth to his Death. Interspersed with a great many curious Relations. The Manner he was entirely managed by, and at last infulted on Account of, his beautiful Mistress Nour Teban.

VACKEAT Babri. The Great Mogbol Babr's Commentaries of himfelf, from the Time he fat on the Throne, which was at Twelve Years of Agg, until one Year before his Death. Containing an Account of his feveral Relations; as also the Princes who then govern'd in feveral Parts of Tartary.

A full Account of his Parts in Test and Test

A full Account of his Battles in Tartary and India; a correct Description of India; the Soil, Climate, Manners of the People, Commodities produced therein; a List of the several Powers

ACATALOGUE of ጸ

Powers who then possess'd India Also a Defenption of the Beasts, Birds, Frints, Herbs, and Flowers, peculiar to that Country

- VAKEAT Jebanguin. The Great Moghol Jeban guir's Commentaries of humfelf, from his fitting on the Throne, until the 13th Year of his Reign, wherein is fet down all the new Regulations and Experiments he made
- ALUMGUÍR, ALIA By Murfu Malermed Kærn hen Mahommed Amin Murfa Containing the Filtory of Isdia and Auring 22th, from Sultan Dara Shecken h's first confining his Father Stab Jeban, until the 13th Year of Auring 22th's Reign, wherein is a full Account of the Means he used to cut off his Brothers, and secure the Empire to humself.
- T'ARÎK H. Cafemîr By Heffan ben Ali Cachmin Wroce at the Command of Jilal e din wulch Machenda Nath ebr Mulat Acufferi. Containing The Hiltory of Cafemin, from the earliest Times, until its being corq em land to the Earliest Times, until its being corq em land to be being the Space of near 4000 Years, by their Account, with a short Appendix, giving a Defenption of the Country, and the remarkable Places therein.
- MIRAT Secarár: By Secander Ein Mahammed.
  Containing the History of Gazerat, from the ear-lieft Times, until its Conquest by the Great Mog-hol Abbar.
- TARÍKH alum aras Abaffi In Three Vols By Secander Beg, Secretary to Shab Abafs the Great, Containing, Vol.

Vol. I. The Genealogy of the Perfian Kings of the last Race, or the Seff Family, lineally from Mortifa Ali; with the particular Life of each, to Sbab Ismael, who was the first King of that Race.

The Life and History of Shab Israel.

The Lafe and History of Shab Thamas, his Son. An Account of the Learned Men, Poets, Physicians, Astronomers, Painters, Mussicans, and fine Writers, that sourished in Persia, in Shab Thamas's Reign.

Vol. II. and III. Containing a full History of the Persian Kings, from Shah Thomas's Death, until the Death of Shah Abasis the Great; wherein is set down every remarkable Incident that happen'd in Persia during that Time, with many other curious Relations.

TARÍKH Shah Ifmael. By Shurf o' din Alı Iefdı, the Author of Habib al ferr. Containing,

I. A furnmary Account of Sbab Ifmael's Predecessions, as high as Mortifa Alt; with a short Account of the several Kings of Persia, who were their Contemporaries.

II. A compleat History of Sbab Ismael, from his Birth to his Death; giving a particular Account of the several Powers who bore Sway in Persia, and round about it, at the Time of his first setting out, and for some Time afterwards.

TARÎKH Mokbifir. Containing,

A short History of the Great Mogbols, from Auring-zebe's Death, to the third Year of the present Emperor Mahammed Shah's Reign.

ATHAR al Belad v. akbbar al Ebad. By Zekaria ben Mahmud al Kazvim. Being a Geographical and Historical Account of most Places in the World, B. Nature

A CATALOGUE of

TO

Nature of the People, Curiolities, &c. divided into feven Climates.

TARÎKH Mobarek Shaha. By Iabya ben Ahmed ben Abdallab al Serindi. Containing the History of the Sam Ghori Kings, from Sultan Mahommed Sam, in the Year 569 to 837.

Mirat al Mokblucat. By Abd o' rhaman Cheisti, which he fays is an Explanation of a small Book, in the Brahmin's Language; composed, at first, in the time of the Genu, which he, by great Chance, found; containing a Prediction in regard to the Creation of Adam and Eve, peopling the Earth with Mankind, and foretelling Mabommed's Million.

MAREGE al Nalou't fi Medarege al fattouêt. By Majîn al Meskin. In four Vols. Containing Four Parts, and one Appendix. I. Treats of the Creation, Paradife, Gr. and all the Patriarchs and Prophets, to the Time of Mahommed. II. From Mahommed's Birth to his Mission. III. From his Miffion to his Flight. IV. From his Flight to his Death.

Appendix. Giving an Account of all the Miracles that are recorded of him.

TARÎKH Jehan numai. Containing

The History of Chinguez Khan, and his Successors, from his first Appearance in the World, until the latter End of Holaku Khan's Reign.

Montekheb Tuarikh. Containing Part of Holaku Khan's History, the whole of Temour's, and un-Son.

Oriental MANUSCRIPTS. 11

It contains an Account of Three Chinese Emhallies to Shahrokh Mirza, and Copies of Daimung Khan, Emperor of China, his Letters to him; with Copies of two Letters in Arabic and Perfic, fent from Shabrokh by Shekh Mahemmed Bukbshi to him; wherein, among other Things, he endeavours to convert him to the Mahommedan Religion.

It contains his Correspondence with Kbefr Khan, then Emperor of Hindestan, and an Appendix, giving a Description of Mawaralnahr (or Tranfoxane Tartary) its Cities, Rivers, &c.

Montekheb al Tuarikh. Composed by Abdaleadr Muloukshab Bedauvni, in the Year 999, at the Command of the Great Mogbol Julal o' din Mahommed Akbar.

It contains the History of all the Mahommedan Princes that invaded and bore Sway in India, to the Year 999, according to their feveral Dynaîties.

TARIKH Gozidib. By Makommed ben Abibeer ben Abmed ben Nasser Mustofi al Kazvini. Divided into a Preface, Six Parts, and an Appendix.

Preface. Creation of the World

Part I. Account of the Patriarchs, Prophets, and ancient Philofophers. In two Sections.

Account of the Kings who ruled the Empire of Persia before Mahommedanism; luch as the Persbdadians, Karanians, Samanians, and Safamans. In four Sections.

III. Concerning Mahammed, his Successors, Khalifs, Imams, Followers, &c. In one

Introduction, and Six Sections.

IV. Account and History of all the Kings who reigned in the feveral Parts, from the Beginning of Mahommedamin, until the

ACATÓLOGUE of

Year 730. In Eleven Sections. Containing the following Dynasties.

Binn: Leiß,
Samanians,
Ghozziavi, Kings.
Ghori, Ditto.
Dielman al Boui. Ditto.

Siljowkian, Ditto.
Khuarifin, Ditto.
Atabakan, Ditto.
Ifmaelian, Ditto.

12

Ifinaelian, Ditto.
Kara Khatai, Sultans.
The Moghol Kings.

V. Concerning the Imams, or Antifies of the Mahammedan Religion; the Readers, Elders, and Learned Men, who, through their Piety and Exemplary Life, arrived to a State of Excellence: With fome of their most remarkable Sayings.

VI. An Account of the City of Kazzum, its Situation, Buildings, Canals, Tombs, Misjidds, Gr. with an Account of the feveral Families, and great Men that have flying from that Place.

fprung from that Place.

Appendix. The Genealogy of the Patriarchs, Prophets, Kings, Philosophers, &c. mentioned in this Hillory, in a Tree, to the Year 730.

KELMAT TYBAT. All the remarkable Sayings of the Great Mogbol Auring zebe; with Copies of all the Letters, Notes, &c. he wrote himself.

AYIN ARBARI. Composed by a Society of Men assembled for that Purpose By Jula'o din Ma. Lommed Jibar, the Great Magbol. Containing, I. A particular Account of each Province, City, Town, and Village of the Magkel's Empire.

Oriental MANUSCRITPS. 13

pire. The Extent of each Province in Cof's and Measure of all the cultivated Fields belonging to them, in Vingas. Their Latitudes and Longitudes; the latter taken from Jeair Kbalddi, or the Canarie Islands. The Revenues and Income of each Place. The Quota of Men cach Province and Government is obliged to furnish. The Kinds of Grain and Commodities each produces; with an Account of the Powers who formerly bore Sway in each Province, and the feveral Sorts of People who now inhabit those Places.

II. A full Account and Lift of the Great Mogbol's Army. The Wages, Salary, and Office of each particular Servant, or Officer about him. The Manner of training and feeding all his Elephants, Camels, Mules, Horfes, Oxen, &c. with an Account of the Grooms, Servants, &c. who attend them. An Account of the Attendants, Salaries, and daily Expences allowed for the Harram, or Seraglio. A Lift of all the Imperial Implements used in Peace and War; fuch as Scepters, Standards, Drums, Tabbals, Battle-Axes, &c. and all the Weapons used in Hindostan, with their different Prices, Account of all the different Sorts of Weights, Coins, and Measures used in the Empire; with the Charges and Method of Refining and Coining Gold and Silver in the Royal Mint; with the feveral Inscriptions, Weight, and Value of each Coin. The Receipts of feveral Sorts of Bifhes ferved up to the Mogbol's Table. Receipts of the different Sorts of Perfumes used at his Court. Account of all the different Flowers, fweet Woods and Gums, with their Prices, and Places of their Produce. Ditto of all the Herbs, Fruits, &c. at the different Seasons of the Year. Account of the Moghol's manner of Hunting, Exercise.

A CATALOGUE of

14

Exercife, fighting Elephants, and other Diversions. The Geremonies and Manner of Marrying in the Royal Family; their Rejoicings, Featings, &c. The Names and Description of the different Sorts of Apparel, Ornaments, and Jewels used by the Men and Women at Court. The Mogbal's Manner of holding a Dr.an, and receiving People, and the Obersance and Honours they do him. His Method of employing his Time.

MI. A full Account of the Brabmin's Rehgion; their Books, and the Subject of them; the feveral different Sects, and what Points they differ in; with the whole Particulars of their Eating, Drinking, Marrying, Purifications, Worship, and burning when Dead. After which, follows an Account of the principal Mabbummedam Saints; the Places they are buried in, and the Days that their Tombs are chiefly vifited. To the whole is added the remarkable Sayings of the Great Moghol Abbar, on fundry Subjects and Occasions; and a thort Account of Abul Fazl, and his Family, by himself.

POETRY, &c.

SHAHNAMA. I Vol. Fol. containing 60,000 Couplets of Verfes. Composed by the Prince of Poets, Molana Hassan Friders, Native of Touts, Ving, in Majesty of Stile, and Harmony of Numbers, has surpassed all who wrote in that Language

The Subject is, The History and Wars of the ancient Kings of Persia, until the Conquest of their Empire by the Aabs, in the Reign of Jesdegerde Shehriar.

Therc

There is a Lexicon prefixed to it, explaining all the difficult and ancient Words to be met with in the Book.

KULIAT KHACANI, or the whole Works of that famous Poet, Afzal o'din Ibrahim Khacani chn Alal nijar al Shrwann. It contains feveral Books on various Subjects.

Shirreb Duan Khacani. Being a Comment on one of Khacani's Books, call'd his Duan; explaining what feems mylterious and obfcure. By Mahommed Daud Alus Shadiabadi.

Kuliat Aibli. The whole Poetical Works of Molana Aibli Sbirazi. He is very much admired for a certain Sweetness and Smoothness peculiar to his Poems. It contains the following Books on vanous Subjects.

Sehr Halal, Shama v Purwana. Ketah Kuffayd. Ketah Ghuzhat. Kuffayd Muzouh, KULIAT Jami. The Works of the famous Mullab Abd o' Rabman Jami. Containing Twenty One Books, viz.

Selfelu al Zabab, 1st Tome.
Selfelu al Zabab, 2d Ditto.
Selfelu al Zabab, 3d Ditto.
Keffib Salman vi Abfal.
Tobju al Aberar.
Ifof Zuhkba
Leit Muynoun.
Kberad nama Secander.

14 A CATALOGUE of Exercise, fighting Elephants, and other Diversi-

ons. The Geremonies and Manner of Marrying in the Royal Family; their Rejoicings, Feafings, &c. The Names and Description of the different Sorts of Apparel, Ornaments, and Jewels used by the Men and Women at Court. The Mogbol's Manner of holding a Druan, and receiving People, and the Oberlance and Honours they do him. His Method of employing his Time.

III. A full Account of the Brabmin's Religion; their Books, and the Subject of them; the feveral different Sects, and what Points they differ in; with the whole Particulars of their Eating, Drinking, Marrying, Purifications, Worfnip, and burning when Dead. After which, follows an Account of the principal Mahommedan Saints; the Places they are buried in, and the Days that their Tombs are chiefly vifited. To the whole is added the remarkable Sayings of the Great Mogbol Athar, on fundry Subjects and Occasions; and a floot Account of Abul Fazl, and his Family, by himself.

POETRY, &c.

SHAHNAMA. I Vol. Fol. containing 60,000 Couplets of Verfes. Compored by the Prince of Poets, Molana Hoffan Firdzeft, Native of Tosts, who, in Majesty of Stile, and Harmony of Numbers, has surpassed all who wrote in that Language.

The Subject is, The History and Wars of the ancient Kings of Perfia, until the Conquest of their Empire by the Arabs, in the Reign of Jesdegerde Sbebriar.

There

There is a Lexicon prefixed to it, explaining all the difficult and ancient Words to be met with in the Book.

KULIAT KHACANI, or the whole Works of that famous Poet, Afzal o'din Ibrabim Khacani ebn Alal nijar al Sbirwani. It contains feveral Books on various Subjects.

Shirreb Duan Khacani. Being a Comment on one of Khacani's Books, call'd his Duan; explaining what feems mysterious and obscure. By Mahommed Daud Alui Shadaabadi.

Kuliat Ashli. The whole Poetical Works of Molana Ashli Shirazi. He is very much admired for a certain Sweetness and Smoothness peculiar to his Poems. It contains the following Books on various Subjects.

Sehr Halal.

Sehr Halal, Shama v Purwana. Ketah Kuffayd. Ketah Ghuzliát. Kuffayd Mazouh.

Kuliat Jami. The Works of the famous Mullab Abdo' Rabman Jami. Containing Twenty One Books, viz.

Selfelit al Zahah, 1st Tome. Selfelit al Zahah, 2d Ditto. Selfelit al Zahah, 3d Ditto. Keffih Sulman v Ahfal. Tohfit al Aherar.

Sejit al Abrar. Isof Zulikha. Lelt Mujnoun.

Leh Mujnoun. Kherad nama Secander.

16 $\mathcal{A}$ Catalogue of ,

Duan Ávul
Duan Sanı
Duan Sahç
Riffalb Matmai Kobir
Riffalb Matmai Mottevefiit.
Riffalb Matmai Sogbir
Riffalb Matmai Sogbir
Riffalb Matmai Afgbur
Riffalb Arotez
Riffalb Kafia Babariftan.
Munihati.

Moufica

DUAN KHOSRO In Four Vols A Book greatly efteemed in the East It is on the Subjects of Divinity and Love, wrote in a Spiritual Strain, and is generally fung to Musick.

TOHEIT al Irakan, which is also one of the Books of Kuhat Khacam It is a beautiful Poetic Defeription of several Rivers and Places, in Persa, Diarbeer, (or Mesopotamia) and Arabia

Is Is In Indiana, or the Loves of Joseph and Potenbar's Wife It is also comprehended in the Twenty One Books of Kuliat Jame.

Degouzi

Are both Poems on the Subject of Love.

Dulin Hafez The Poems of Mahommed Shuns o' din Hafez al Shrazı They are wrotein a fublime Stile, and a little mysterious They are used in the Losh, as the Sortes Virghame in Europe, and much credited on that Score

BEHR AL ABRAR. By Hafbmi Tatari.

Hidika Hakim Sinar

í8

Nozhit al Ariwab. With an Explanation, by Ab-

ETHICS, POLITICS, NOVELS, &c.

L UVAMEH al Aftrack fi Mokarem al Akblack. By Jan: Mahommed ebn Aftaad Duam, and dedica-ted to Sultan Hosan Beg, Bahadr Khan. It is a Treatife of Moral Philosophy, containing Rules and Directions for tempering the Passions and Appetites; each Moral Duty, and vicious Habit, being fully treated of under their diffinct Heads, This Book is divided into Three Sections. The First of which considers Man in Regard to his own Person singly, as a Member of Society, and what Duties are incumbent on him. In the Second, he is confidered as the Head of a Family, and Rules laid down for his Management, in Regard to each of those whom he has under his immediate Care. In the Third. he is confidered as Head or Ruler of a Society or Kingdom, and Directions laid down for his Government in that State. Towards the latter End are annex'd, Plato's Instructions to Ariflotle; containing fundry excellent Advices: As alfo a Translation of the Secret of Secrets, or Arthotle's Instructions to Alexander the Great, regarding his Conduct in Perfia, which, by

ARHLACK Nafri, A Treatife on the fame Subjust, and disposed in the fame Order, by Nafr o din

Order of the Khalif Maintin, was translated from the Original Greek into Arabic.

o' din Mahommed ben Mahommed ben Hossan al Toussi.

Destour al Vizra. The whole Duty of a Vizir, with proper Rules and Directions for his Management, in Regard to all Ranks of People, from his King to the meaneft Subject. It is dedicated to Emir Fakher o' din ben Holfan.

AKHLACK al Mobossimin. By Monla Hossan ben Als al Kashif, and dedicated to Sultan Hossen A Treatise of Ethics; much esteem'd in the

A Treattle of Ethics; much elicem in the Laft. Divided into Forty Chapters, each treating of a different Head. The whole interfperfed with pleafant and improving Narratives, adapted to the Subject.

AYAR Danish. The History of which Book is thus. The ancient Brahmins of India, after a great deal of Time and Labour, compiled a Treatile, (which they called Kuriuk Dumnik) in which were inferted the choicest Treasures of Wisdom, and the perfecteft Rules for governing a People. This Book they prefented to their Rajabs, who kept it with the greatest Secreey and Care. About the Time of Mabannued's Birth, or the latter End of the VIth Century, Norshervan the Just, who then reign'd in Perfia, discovered a great Inchnation to see that Book: for which Purpose, one Burzewia, a Physician, who had a surprising Talent in learning several Languages, particularly the Sanskerrit, was introduced to him, as the properest Person to be employed to get a Copy there-of. He went to India; where, after some Years Stay, and great Trouble, he procured it. It was translated into the Pebluor Language by him, and Buzzjumehr the Vizir. Nossbervom ever after, and all his Successors the Persian Kings, had this Book C 2 20 alfo.

in high Esteem, and took the greatest Care to keep it secret. At last, Am Jasser Munsser Zu Mikky, who was the Second Khalf of the Abasser, by great Search, got a Copy thereof in the Pebleci Language, and ordered Irism Hossar Miller and Mokessa, who was the most Learned of that Age, to translate it into Arabic. This Prince, ever after, made it his Guide, not only in Affairs relating to the Government, but in private Life

In the Year 380 of the Hegira, Sultan Mahmud Ghazi put it into Verfe. And afterwards, in the Year 515, by Order of Bheram Shah ben Maffaud, that which Abdal Mohaffa had translated, was re-translated into Perfix, by Abul Mala Naffer allah Muffeji; and this is that Kuhla Dumna, which is now extant. As this latter had too many Arabit Verfes, and obfolete Phrases in it; Alekan Ali ben Hoffein Vazz, at the Request of Emir Sobeli, Keeper of the Seals to Sultan Hoffein Mirza, put it into a more modern Stile, and gave it the title of Anuar Sobbli.

In the Year 1002, the Great Meghol Jalal o' din Mahommed Abbar ordered his own Secretary and Vizir, the Learned Abul Fazl, to illustrate the obscure Passages, abridge the long Digressions, and put it into such a Stile as would be most familiar to all Capacities; which he accordingly did, and gave it the Name of Apar Danillo. or the Criterion of Wisson.

ANUAR Sebéli. An Edition of the same Book, wrote in Sultan Hossein's Time.

KULILA DUMNA. The Edition wrote in 515, by Bheram Shab's Order.

- AÇAR Asmutt, or the Vestiges of Chastity. A Novel. In which the Author has given the Character of a virtuous chaste Woman.
- TOUTI NAMA. By the famous Nakhhiehi. In this Book, the whole Difcourfe is feigned to have paffed betwixt a Parrot and her Miffrefs, whofe Husband had gone a distant Voyage. In which the artful Tricks and Ingratitude of Women are laid open by a Relation of several curious and surprising Intrigues, which the Parrot relates every Night, in order to divert the Time, and bring on the Morning, to prevent her going to her Gallant, until her Husband's Return.
- Dowzd v Kazzi, or the Thief and the Judge. Being a Difpute betwixt the Kazzi of Baghdad, and a Thief, who had laid Hold of him as he was going out to his Country Garden, about an Hour before Day-light. The Thief happens to prove too hard for the Kazzi; for he cites more Paffages from the Koran, to justify his robbing hum, than the Kazzi can well answer.
- MAHAVERAT. Rules and Directions for behaving in Company; with a Relation of feveral famous Repartees, witty Answers, and inoffensive Jests; with a Collection of Proverbs, and the best Passages out of the most eminent Poets, on the several different Subjects that can happen in Conversation.
- NEGARISTAN. By Majin Jouini, in the Time of Sultan Abouleyd Bahadr Khan. Dedicated to his Vizir Mahammed Rifehid. It is wrote in a beautiful Stile. It contains fome Hundreds of very pleafant and improving Relations, which are the structure of the sultangular structure.

true in Fact, and regarding each of the following Heads, viz.

I. A virtuous Difposition.

II. Abstinence, and Self-Denial.

III. Humanity towards our Fellow-Creatures. IV. Love and Friendship.

V. Council and Advice.

22

VI. Greatness of Soul, and Mercy.

VII. The many Advantages arising from the Knowledge of Arts and Sciences.

KESSIH Kamroup. A fine Novel. Wrote by Hemit Khan ben Islam Khan Alumquiri.

Tokvim al ARHLACK. A Treatife of Ethics; digested into a very regular Method.

Pund NAMA. A Treatife, containing feveral good Instructions: By Shekb Ferid otar.

ARTS, SCIENCES, &c.

DANISH NAMA & Jeben. A Treatife of Phy-fics. By Ghyath o' din Als ebn Als Emiran al Holleini, al Isfabani. It is divided into Ten Sections, Twenty Divisions, and an Appendix; which treat of the following Subjects.

The Universal Intelligent, and Universal Soul. The Heavenly Bodies; their Order, the Time and Manner of their Revolutions.

Concerning the Elements.

Concerning a Body. Of a Simple and Compound Body.

That there is no Vacuum,

The Theory of Vapours, Exhalations, Wind, Clouds, Rain, Snow, Hail, Dew, Thunder, Lightning, falling Stars, Redness of the Sky about the Horizon, feveral Suns appearing at once, Rain-bows, Halo's, Earthquakes; Sounds. Wind, and Fire, coming out of the Bowels of the Earth; Springs, Fountains, Hills, &c. Produce of all Sorts of Minerals, Stones, &c. Reason of their different Weights, Colours, Taftes, and what Planets govern each.

Vegetables; their Theory, Production. Account of the Vegetable Soul, and its Faculties. Production of Brute Animals; Account of their Soul, and its Faculties.

Creation of Man; Account of his Intellectual Soul, Faculties, and his Form.

Account of the Continuance of Production.

The Production of Animals by Generation, the Manner and feveral Degrees of the Formation of a Fatus, its Polition in the Womb, its Birth, and the Causes of Male and Female. Account of the outward and inward Senfes : where they differ in Man and Beaft; how Objects strike the Senses and Mind. Of the Immortality of the rational Soul.

Of Mifery and Happiness.

Of Predeftination and Providence.

That it is possible a Man may be inform'd of hidden Things, and what is not to be perceived by the Senses, both in Sleep and awake, and the Manner thereof. In Seven Discourses. Of Dreams, and the feveral Sorts of them.

Of Infpiration, Prophecy, and the Degrees of Prophets, Miracles, Sorcery, Magick, an Evil Eye, &c. and living by little or no Food. Of Opticks; the Theory of Sight, Light, and

Proving the Earth and Water to be of a Spherical Form. -

Geogra-

A CATALOGUE of 24 Geographical Definitions and Paradoxes.

Abu Ali Sina's Advice.

A Treatise of Anatomy; with the Use and Functions of the several Parts.

Mijmoub Tes v' Gherib. By Isof hen Mahommed ben Isof al Tabib. Dedicated to the Great Mog-bol Nessir o' din Mahommed Hemasun. Containing, cife, Reft, &c.

Hefz Sebt, or Rules for the Preservation of Health, in Regard to Eating, Drunking, Exer-Names of Medicines, in the Indian Language. Jameb al Fovaed, or an Account of all Diseases incident to the feveral Parts of the Body, from the Head downwards; with Remedies for each. Cures for venomous Bites.

Receipts and Remedies for feveral Verfe.

- Hissan aibl Tinjum. The Accounts used by Astronomers.
- Dir Mussahit. Mensuration of Superficies's, Solids, &c.
- TAKHLÎS al Moftab. In Arabic.
- Arouz. The Method of composing Verses of all Kinds,
- Rems., or Geomancy.
  These Eight Treatises by Abdalwabid Gilani.
- Khafian Aflatoun fi elum adad. In Arabic. By Shekb Malek Mogbrebi.
  - ELUM Munazerib, the Art of Disputing and Pleading.
  - ELUM Hiffab, of Arithmetick, &c.
  - AL GEBR V Mokabla, of Algebra.
  - ELUM Duvarin, the Method of writing the best Stile; with Quotations from the most approved Authors, on several Subjects
  - ELUM Bideeib, The Art of Composing and Ranging the several Parts of a Discourse in the best Manner.
  - ELUM Mithal
  - Estiarih ou Elum Bayan. By Molana Asam o'din.
    - ELUM Ziratt. A Compleat Treatife of Hufbandry and Gardening; wherein is fet down the proper Season and Manner of managing all Kinds of Grain,

26 A CATOLOGUE of

Grain, Fruit Trees, Greens, & The Prognoflucks of the Weather, with an Account of the Phyfical Uses of the different Fruits and Herbs, how to destroy or drive away all Kinds of Ver min, or hurful Reptiles, with the Method of making Wine

Mizan

Ajinass feal Panjh Gunih

Nehv Zerni

Мезван

Shirken Moula Jami

These Six Books are the Rudiments, Gram mars, &c that are necessary, in order to read, write, and pronounce the Arabic Language

Seb RISSALIH e Tirandaza Three different Trea tifes on the Art of shooting with Bows and Ar rows, with the Method of making Bows, and all Kinds of Arrows The Art of Shooting on Horseback, at full Speed, either forwards or backwards

Zeech Ulegh Beg By Mahammed Mirza Ulegh Beg, Grandfon to Temar It contains the different Aira's, and Manner of counting Time, in all Places The Feltivals and remarkable Days, as all the different Nations hold them The Chr. nefe Computation of Time, and their Aira's with a Treatife of Aftronomy Aftrology ~

Dr Khavass Choub Chim, tife on China Root, T the Natures and Physical

Method of preparing each, especially the China-Root, when used as a Diet-Drink in the East.

Rissalin Munték. A Treatife of Logick.

RISSALIH Heyit. Of Geometry, and the Doctrine of the Sphere.

RISSALIH Arouz. Another Treatife on the Art of making Verses.

Dir Elum Khutt. The Rules for writing the Perfiam Characters.

- FARS NAMA. Wrote by Nizam o'dln Abmed, at the Command of Sbab Abost the Ild. It is a Treatise on Ilorse; the Method of Riding and Managing them; the Marks by which they are known; with Receipts for all the Diseases incident to them.
  - Anis al Ashakain. The Method of reading and understanding the Persian Poets, and discovering the Beauties in them.
- JUVAHR NAMA. A Treatife on all precious and valuable Stones, from the Diamond to an Agate; the Places they are found in; with the Method of understanding them, and the Prices of each.
  - Tokvim farfi. A Perfian Almanack.
- Destrour al amal. Containing an Account of the Great Mogbol's Revenues from each Province in general, and each Town and Village in particular, throughout the Empire; with a Lift of all the Polts. Offices, &c. therein.

26 ACATOLOGUE of Grain, Fruit-Trees, Greens, &c. The Prognoflicks of the Weather; with an Account of the Physical Uses of the different Fruits and Herbs; how to deftroy or drive away all Kinds of Vermin, or hurtful Reptiles, with the Method of making Wine.

MIZAN.

AJINASS FEAL.

Panjii Genjii. NERV Zeriri.

MESBAII.

Sninken Meals 7a-i.

These Six Books are the Rudiments, Grammars, &c. that are necessary, in order to read, write, and pronounce the Arabic Language.

Seb Rissaum é Tirandazi. Three different Treatiles on the Art of shooting with Bows and Arrows; with the Method of making Bows, and all Kinds of Arrows. The Art of Shooting on Horseback, at full Speed, either forwards or backwards.

Method of preparing each, especially the China-Root, when used as a Diet-Drink in the East.

- Rissalih Munték. A Treatife of Logick.
- Rissalin Heyit. Of Geometry, and the Doctrine of the Sphere.
- RISSALIH Arouz. Another Treatise on the Art of making Verses.
- Dir Elum Khutt. The Rules for writing the Perflan, Characters.
- FARS NAMA. Wrote by Nizam o'din Abmed, at the Command of Shab Aboft the Ild. It is a Treatife on Horfes; the Method of Riding and Managing them; the Marks by which they are known; with Receipts for all the Difeases incident to them.
- Anis al Alhakain. The Method of reading and understanding the Persan Poets, and discovering the Beauties in them.
- JUVAHR NAMA. A Treatife on all precious and valuable Stones, from the Diamond to an Agate; the Places they are found in; with the Method of understanding them, and the Prices of each.
  - Tokvîm farfi. A Perfian Almanack.
  - Destrous al anul. Containing an Account of the Great Mogbol's Revenues from each Province in general, and each Town and Village in particular, throughout the Empire; with a Lift of all the Pofts, Offices, &c. therein.

MAIMA, namba v Tarikba.

ELUM Khourd as bindi.

HEELHA Ifmaels (or, Al alat alroubannat) A Book of Machinery, containing about 300 Figures. It was composed by Montlezz Ifmael al Gezers, and is divided into fix Parts.

Part I. Of strange Clocks and Clepsydras.

II. Vessels of a strange Structure, III. Musical Instruments.

IV. Hydraulick Engines and Machines for railing weighty Things from deep Places.

V. Vases for Drinking, Plates, &c.

VI. Several Sorts of Machines.

wrote in Arabic, and dedicated to Kara Erston al Ariki.

Dictionaries, Vocabularies, &c.

ARHANG Jehanguiri. By Mir Jemal o'din Hofein Anjou ein fakhr o'din Hoffan. Dedicated to the Great Mogbol Nour o'din Mahommed Jehanguir. 'Tis compiled from Forty Eight different Dictionaries, and contains all the Words modern or ancient, that properly belong to the Perfix Language, with their true Vowels, and their feveral Significations; each Signification authorized by a Quoetation from fome eminentAuthor. The Introduction is divided into Twelve Sections, relating to the feveral Changes the Letters and Words have undergone, the Syllables and Words that are added for Ornament in Writing; with a Copious Grammatical Differtation, necestary to be perused, for the more perfect Knowledge of the Perfix Language; with an Appendix, explaining those Words of the Zend, which are not to be found in the Body of the Book.

LETAEF al Loghat. By Abdal Letif ben Abdallab Kobir. A Dictionary in great Esteem.

FARHANG adàt al Fazla. By Kazzi Khan Pedr Mahommed Deblut; known by the Name of Bedbarwal. It contains chiefly the ancient Perfic Words, AKD al Juvabr. A Vocabulary.

LOGHAT Arabi, Farfi, v Turki, Ditto.

NISSAB Sabian, Ditto.

FARHANG Ifofi.

ALFAZ Advia By Nour o'din Mahammed Abdallah Hakim Am al Muluck Shrazi. Dedicated to the Great Maghol Shahah o'din Mahammed Shah Jehan. It explains, in an Alphabetical Order, all Drugs, and Medicines; their Qualities, Virtues, Doles, &c. with the Names of each, in the Arabic, Perfic, and Indian Languages. To which is added, an Appendix, fully treating of Bezoars, Mummy, China-Root, Tea, Coffee, and Tobacco.

LETTERS, FORMS OF WRITING, &c.

NSHA, Abul Fazl. In Three Tomes. Being Copies of all the Letters wrote by the Learned Abul Fazl (Secretary and Vizir to the Great Mogbel Jilal o'din Mabommed Akbar) in his Master's Name, to the several Kings and Powers he corresponded responded with. They are reckoned the best writ of any Thing in that Language.

Insha Isof. Rules and Precedents for writing to all Degrees of People, from the King to the meanest Subject. Also Forms of all Kinds of Writs, Bon Salos, Receipts, Firmáns, Conveyances, Petitions, &c.

Insha Harkerrin v Burbemun. Containing the fame as Insha Ifof.

JINAE Abun. Forms of Letters to Parents, Rela-

INSHA Khot Nish.

SEHIFA SHAHI. By Hossein ben als al Vaez al Kashfi. Dedicated to Sultan Hossein It contains Rules and Precedents for writing to Princes, and all Ranks of People, in the molt elegant Manner, and in fo regular and well-disposed a Method, that Persons of an ordinary Capacity, with moderate Application, may soon attain to a very good Stile in that kanguage.

With feveral Copies of Perfit and Arabick Writings, by the most eminent Masters that have been in Perfit, India, or Tartary, for the Two last Centuries.

DIVINITY.

WO KORANS.

TAFSÎR Bedavi. Bedavi's Comment on the Koran in Arabic.

Tafsîr

- TAFSIR Hoffein: Hoffein Vaez his Comment on the Koran in Perfic.
- TARSIR Kafhar: A large Comment on the Koran, according to the Schuss Dockrine. By Fatteh Allah ehn Shuckr Allah el Kafhan: In Two large Folio Volumes The Two first Comments are according to the Sunns.
- Muiskat A Book containing all the authentic Traditions of Mahonimed, in Regard to Points of Faith, Worfing, & and what is not determined in the Koran, whether by Infpiration, or as his own Opinion, which are called Abedif, Koddiffi v Nebrii
  - SHIRREH Sourat al Zoba Explanation of the Sourat al Zoba, (a Chapter of the Koran so called) By Baba ben Mahmud, ben Ibrahm.
    - ORAD Prayers for all the Set-Times of the Day and Night By Shekh Mahammed ehn Ibrahim al Kairi
  - ORAD Mauzm Mahommedan Prayers for the different Festivals, Fasts, Months, &c
    - TOKMI, al Ithah v Tokunet al 1ekan An Explanation of all the Articles of Faith in the Mahammedan Religion By Abdalbuck ben Sef o'din al Turk al Debluor al Bokbars.
    - AL MOTMED fil Matkad, or Akaed Toreifn Deducated to Sulpar Stittan Atabak. It is divided into Three Parts, and each of these Parts into Ten Chapters.

Part I. Concerning a Belief and Faith in God.

A CATALOGUE of II Ditto in the Angels, Reveal'd Religion, and the Prophets.

32

III. Ditto, other particular Points; fuch as are most consentaneous to the true Or-are most consentaneous to the true Orthodox and primitive Faith.

Rissalin Slok afza. A fpiritual Work, by Othman Birgi ben Abedad.

Kunz al fovaedu Sbirreb al Akaed; of the fame Nature as Tokmîl al Imân in Verse.

AITKAD NAMA: upon the same Subject. By Motana Abdo'rabman Jami.

KHAVASS Souratha. The Properties of each Sourat, or Chapter in the Koran, in Verse.

or Chapter in the Koran, in Verse.

MIRAT al Aktra, concerning the Resurrection and IIRAT al Akbra, concerning the Resurrection and last Judgment. Wrote in Arabit, by Shekh Modörzehman, and translated into Prsse, by Mahommed Ghani ehn Shekh abdal Ghosout.

VI. Alms, appropriating to pious Uses, Charity, and freeing Slaves, fighting with the Infidels; its several Laws and Rules, VII. The Visitation of Mahommed's, Mortisa Ale's, and the Imams Tombs, with the Days of their Births and Deaths.

VIII Concerning Promises, Vows, Oaths, and the Performance of them.

IX. Buying, Selling, Sureties, Pledges, and Partnership

X Hiring, Renting, Lending, Pawning, and appointing Agents.

XI. Marrying for ever, and for a limited Time; with all its Laws and Rules.

XII Divorces, and Rules

XIII. The Laws of Hunting, and all Sorts of Game.

XIV. Killing of Animals for Food; what are lawful and forbidden.

XV. Laws and Rules of Eating, Drinking, and Cloathing

XVI Law-Suits, Cases of Equity, and how they are to be decided.

XVII. Concerning Contracts and Last Wills. XVIII Sharing of Heritages, Legacies, &c.

XIX. The Pumilments that are by Law inflicted on Theft, Adultery, Fornication, Sodomy, &c

XX. The Price of Blood for Murder, maining, wounding, being bit by one's Dog, &c.

FEKIH Mazbub buck Anma Masoumin In Eighteen Parts, and each Part divided into many Chapters and Sections, on the above Subject, according to the Schias.

A CATALOGUE of 32

II Ditto in the Angels, Reveal'd Religion, and the Prophets.

III. Ditto, other particular Points; such as are most confentaneous to the true Orthodox and primitive Faith.

RISSALIH Slick afza. A spiritual Work, by Othman Birgi ben Albedad.

Kunz al fovaed v Shirreb al Akaed; of the fame Nature as Tokmîl a! Iman in Verse.

AITKAD NAMA: upon the fame Subject. By Motana Abdo'rabman Jari.

KHAVASS Souratha. The Properties of each Sourat, or Chapter in the Koran, in Verfe, MIRAT al Akbra, concerning the Refurrection and last Judgment. Wrote in Arabic, by Shekh Abdo'rabman, and translated into Perfic, by Mahammed Ghani ebn Shebb abdal Ghofour.

JAMEH ABASSI. A Collection of the Mabon medan Civil and Ecclefiastical Laws, according to the Schias. By Baha o'din Mahammed Aamh; de-dicated to Shah Abafi. In Twenty Parts; and each of these Parts divided into many Sections and Chapters.

Part. L. Purifications of all Kinds.

IL Prayers; their Forms, Times; what are necessary and supererogatory.

III. Zikāi, or what is fer alide of one's Effects for chantable and religious Ufes.

IV. Falts, Fellivals, &c. V. The whole Ceremony of a Pilgrimage to Mecca.

VI. Alms.

VI. Alms, appropriating to pious Ufes, Charity, and freeing Slaves, fighting with the Infidels; its leveral Laws and Rules.

VII. The Visitation of Mahommed's, Mortifa Ali's, and the Imams Tombs; with the Days of their Births and Deaths.

VIII. Concerning Promises, Vows, Oaths, and the Performance of them.

IX. Buying, Selling, Sureties, Pledges, and Partnership.

X. Hiring, Renting, Lending, Pawning, and appointing Agents.

XI. Marrying for ever, and for a limited Time; with all its Laws and Rules.

XII. Divorces, and Rules.

XIII. The Laws of Hunting, and all Sorts of Game.

XIV. Killing of Animals for Food; what are lawful and forbidden.

XV. Laws and Rules of Eating, Drinking, and Cloathing.

XVI. Law-Suits, Cafes of Equity, and how they are to be decided. XVII. Concerning Contracts and Last Wills.

XVII. Concerning Contracts and Lait Wills.
XVIII. Sharing of Heritages, Legacies, &c.
XIX. The Punishments that are by Law in-

XIX. The Punishments that are by Law inflicted on Theft, Adultery, Fornication, Sodomy, &c.

XX. The Price of Blood for Murder, maining, wounding, being bit by one's Dog, &r.

FEKTH Mazbub buck Asima Majoumin. In Eighteen Parts, and each Part divided into many Chapters and Sections, on the above Subject, according to the Schias.

34 A CATALOGUE of

MIJMOUH KHANI A Book of the Mahommedan Civil and Ecclefiaftical Law in all its Branches By Kumal Kr in Dedicated to Beheram Khan At the latter Ead is a Calculation of what Natinber of Letters of each Sort there is in the Koran

KHLASSIT AL FERIH A compleat Body of the Mahommedan Civil and Ecclefiaftical Laws, according to the Summs, as regulated by Mul Hamfa, and wherever he diffirs from the other Three Malck, Shafi, and Hanbal, Nouce is taken ther of Thefe Four last Books are what the Nus 1 sand Kazzus are guided by, in whatever they decide or determine, and what directs all forts of People, as to their Purifications, Prayers, and all other Rites and Ceremonies of their Religion

KHOTBAH A Form of the Harangue spoke by the Mullab on every Friday in the Mosques, wherean the Frince who governs is mention'd and pray'd for

Jeban Ara Beguri, Suster to Auring-zebe, her History of the Aymr Saints

LUVAYIH TOHID By Molana Abdo Rabman Jams Being a Treatife of the Infouff Religion, or the Eastern Queetiffs With Rules how to acquire a Habit thereof

Dir Mazhub Aramin A Treause wrote by an Armeman Priest, who turned Mabon medan in Shab Hossen King of Perssa his Time, or 1123 of the Histra, in which he endeavours to expose the Corristan Religion, as practified by the Armemans and Reman Carbolicks, by quoting several Parts of their Missal, and describing their Forms of Worship It is dedicated to Shab Hossen.

Oriental MANUSCRIPTS. 35 The ZEND of Zeratusht, in the ancient Persic Character.

A TRANSLATION of all the Remains of Zeratufut, or Zoroafter, into Perfic; with feveral other Pieces, as follows

Liturgy of the antient Persians.

Concerning Women, Heaven and Hell. Dialogue betweet Minukberad and Ormifd.

Account of the antient Kings.

Account of the leveral Books of their Religion, before they were destroyed by Alexander, and what was the Subject of each Zeratulbi's Conference with Ormild.

Account of the first peopling of the Earth; with the feveral Excellencies peculiar to the Month Firwirdin.

Concerning the Soul and Death.

Account of the Creation.

Ormild and Aberman, the Two Principles. The Guardian Angels.

Religion explain'd

Explanation of fome Terms used in their Reigrous Offices,

Concerning the Existence and Nature of a De-

Explanation of the 101 Names of God.

Of the Nature of Sin, necessary good Works, Works of Supererogation, Charity, Obedience, €dc.

State of the Bleffed in Heaven, and Wicked in Hell

Refurrection, and last Judgment

Daftan Norsher-History of those and the preceding Times, intermix'd van, Furrukbnama, 3 with Morality. Dastan Mirghou Zin.

Ardaverafnama,

A CATALOGUE of

36

Letters from the Gebers in Persia to those in India

Of the Good Angels Affiftance, and the Evil's Reliffance.

Account of Zeratufot's Conference with God.

in Regard to the Soul; the feveral Kinds of Sin, Women, Worship, Religion; the Worfhlp of the Fire; Gurftafp's Soul; State of the Bleffed and Wicked. A Prediction.

Of Marriage; Purifications of Women; Offices to the Dead; Religious Duties; the Merits of each explain'd.

How particular Angels prelide over every Action.

The Ghahanhars and Feltivals to be observed.

The Ceremony of the Kufti, Continuance of the World; the Refurrection, its Manner, the Method of Judgment and Punishment; how the Soul'is disposed of after Death.

Ketab fud dir; in Verfe. 'In 100 Parts. Mar nama.

' Mudit Dinia v' ajaebba.'

Explanation of a Confession of Sins. Prayers, &e, to be used in setting out on Journey, or commencing any Work.

The Purifications that are to be used on all Occafions. :

Several Queltions and Answers relating to Cases in Religion and Law.

Rules in Eating, Drinking, &c.

Worship of the Sun and Fire. Another Conference of Zeratefot's with God. Abkam Hakim Jamasp, concerning several Things in the Time of Gwftofp.

Predictions concerning the latter Times. Account of the ancient Kings.

Prayers

Prayers of fundry Sorts. Poems on the Months, and their Guardian Anģels. Form and Method of Bathing and Purification.

Oriental MANUSCRIPTS. 37

On DIVINITY, and other Subjects, in the Sanskerrit, or the Brahmin's ancient Language and Character; being all in loofe Leaves.

M Atch Pouran. 601 Fol. Bhaguit Pouran. 620 Fol.

Villeesbik Shaster. 105 Fol. Muns Smirti Dirbns Shafter. 280 Fol.

Mitakra, Dirbm Shafter. 523 Fol.

Anntvitti, Dirbni Shafter. 124 Ditto.

38 A CATALOGUE of Tut Nermeh The Duties of each Day 35 Folio's.

 Jallurdrow Paxishan
 Jallurdr Raya's Actions
 60

 Ditto
 Ritim Kuilb
 Concerning Jewels, Stones, &c 70

Ditto

Abbedan Maba A Vocabulary of Sankerris Words.

66 Ditto

Dwarka Matim Concerning Dwarka 117 Ditto.

Aneakrit Teluk A Vocabulary 46 Ditto

Purvafs Kund The Excellencies of each particular Place of Worship in Irdia 54 Ditto

Veåkrin The Sanskerrit Grammar 150 Ditto.

Madbiv Nidban Of Phylic of Ditto.

Sharir Of Anatomy 155 Ditto

Vaguat Of Physic 253 Dato

Several Veakrin's, or Grainmars 300 Ditto,

Morâtr Kutta 3 Ditto.

117 Ditto

Raagbinds A Treatife of the Indian Musick.

Ansubbidra A Part of the Vedb., showing the Cha-

Anoublidra A Part of the Vedb, showing the Character, and the Manner it is writ in

Oriental MANUSCRIPTS. 39 Sanskerrit Alphabet; with the Method of joining all their Letters.

The Banian Alphabet. Ditto.

Five Brahmin Almanacks, from the Year 1739, to 1743. Three Eclipses, as calculated and drawn out by Shri nat Veaz, a Brahmin, at Cambay, TIRJUMMA Jowg Vifilts. A Translation of the Jowg Visibt, from the Original Sanskerrit, (the Brebmin's Language) into Perfic. It treats of the Vanities of the World, and what Happiness attends a true Retirement from it.

A CATALOGUE of

(who was fix'd to no Rebgion) wrote a Letter to the King of Portugal, by 89 d Mazuffer, defining to fend him a Translation of the Scriptures into Arabic or Perfü; and at the fame Time, one who was capable of explaining to him the Christian Religion — One Geronimo Xavier, a Jesuit, and Relation to the famous St. Francis Xavier, was appointed for that Purpose, who having learned the Perfix Language (as he says) in the Space of Eight Years; with the Affistance of Molana Arabal Settar ben Kaffan Labori, composed this Book, and present at to the Mogod in April 1602.

fam Labors, composed this Book, and prefented it to the Mogbol in April 1602, The Mogbol's Letter, which is curious in its Kind, is to be found in the first Volume of Infoa Abul Fazi This Manuscript is the Original one that Xavier presented to the Mogbol.

E. (.

FINIS.

